THE COMING GAME

BOTH TEAMS ARE PREPARING FOR SATURDAYS STRUGGLE.

It Occurs on O. A. C. Field—A Big Attendance is Expected—Former Games Between the Two Teams.

Out at the college, preparations are on for the game of football to be played next Saturday afternoon between the OAC and State University elevens, As the day approaches local interest increases, and it is already certain that the attendance will be the largest seen on OAC field in many a day. The new grand stand, where those who do not desire to stand on the side lines may find a comfortable seat, with a complete view of every play and every part of the field, will attract spectators who otherwise might not attend, especially in case the day should be rainy.

In forecasts of what the size of the crowd may be various figures are given. None estimate the number at less than 1,000, while some guess that 2,000 persons will watch the scrimmage. At the Willamette game, the crowd numbered 600, of whom practically all were OAC students and Corvallis people. At the coming game special train connections with Albany are expected to bring many people from that town and Eugene A dispatch to the Oregonian last Sunday from Eugene, states that the University men will come in a special coach on Friday, and bring along a carload of rooters. To this contingent is to be added a large number of Benton county farmers, especially of the younger generation, who have expressed a purpose to see the game. With 600 persons at the Willamette game, and with interest in the coming struggle at a far higher tension, it is to be seen that figures suggested above as the possible attendance are not beyond the bounds of the probable.

This week, the collegians are practicing in secret. Whether they are working out new formations or are anxious to prevent a discovery of their signals, is a matter of conjecture.

Of a few changes in the positions of players there are hints, but as to what will be the final lineup of the men, nobody on the outside knows. Pilkington, a very excellent player who on account of an injury sustained at signal practice, was unable to be in the Seattle game, is fully recovered. He was in practice Monday night, and will be in the game Saturday. His presence on the field will be a source of gratification to the players. He is to be full back, and will certainly be able to hold his own against the powerful player that the University has in that position.

Another change of position is that of John Gault, who goes from tackle to right guard, and Abraham, who goes from guard to tackle. Each can be counted on to do as good work as will be done by the players against whom they are to go.

In other changes, it is understood that Rose, who has been playing substitute, goes to end, and Bundy to tackle. Both are old men at their places, and both, very excellent.

In former contests between the two institutions the score of games won stands, four for the University men and two for the Collegians. The record is as follows:

1894—U of O. 0; OAC, 17.
1895—U of O, 44; OAC, 0.
1896—U of O, 8; OAC, 4.
1897—U of O, 8; OAC, 26.
1898—U of O. 38; OAC. 0.
1899—U of O, 38; OAC, 0.

In 1893 the Collegians, under Will Bloss, won the inter-collegiate championship of the state. Eugene had a weak team in the field that year, and did not play the college men, or unquestionably another victory would be in the record for OAC,

In 1898 and 1899 OAC's team was beoken by the going of Art Stimpson, Pap Hayseed, Gyp Thurston, Will Scott, Harding and many other of the best men to the Phillippines, and in those years, occurred the disastrous scores of 38 to 0 in favor of the University.

Albany Herald: John Gault, captain of the OAC football team, and most of the players were in Albany to witness the game between Albany and Portland Academy. The Corvallis boys before the game seemed to think the farmers could devour the Albany team, in short order if they ever could get a crack at them, but before the game was over they revised their views and were ready to show due respect to the Albanyites.

Albany Democrat:—The Democrat would like to see the Albany football team given an opportunity to show the Seattle team whether they are seriously considered in the Northwest college championship. The Albany team should confine their playing to college teams and for the championship. It is the Democrat's opinion that the local team is the best college team in the Northwest.

Dallas, Or., Oct. 31.—The contract for building the roundhouse of the Dallas-Falls City Railroad has been awarded to A E Campbell, of Dallas, who is now purchasing the material for its construction. Work will commence as soon as possible.

The company's grading crew are rapidly completing their part of the work on the line. The crew in charge of Mr McPherson is now one mile east of Falls City, and the other crew under the supervision of J E Talbot, is now almost within the corporate limits of Dallas. Five of the seven miles of line are now completed. Ties for the road are being hauled from the sawmills, and the piling and timbers for trestles and small bridges are alrdady on the ground.

Albany, Ore, Nov 1—On account of the large number of timber claims taken up by Albany people the recent order of the government in reference to claims has created intense interest here. Local claimants freely charge that it is in interest of the scrip-holders and that in case of the vacation of the land would be filed on at once. The general sentiment, though, is that considerable land has been taken in interest of Eastern syndicates. One well founded report is that 115 claims were recently taken up in Crook county for which the claimants each received $250 from a Michigan syndicate. Another is that 52 menf who recently completed their filings at Roseburg, received $150 each for their trouble in perfecting the title. Albany claimants, though, have acted upon their own account and have no fears of their titles being disturbed.

A Typical South African Store.

O. R. Larson, of Bay Villa, Sundays Riverr, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything rom the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past 12 months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by Graham & Wells.

His Life in Peril.

"I just seemed to have gone all to pieces," writes Alfred Bee, of Welfare, Tex., "biliousness and a lame back had made life a burden. I couldn't eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began to use Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength and enjoy hard work." They give vigorous health and new life to weak, sickly, rundown people. Try them. Halifax, N. S., Nov., 2—A dispatch from Sidney, C. B. says that preparations for the final test of the Marconi wireless system have already commenced, and that the inventor anticipates the complete success of the system. Mr Marconi said today, alluding to his experiments:

"For 200 miles from Poldhu I transmitted messages on my last trip, I received messages at a distance of 500 miles from Poldhu. As soon as the machinery is all installed in the Tablehead station I will commence to experiment. I will first place the Carlo Alberto a short distance from shore and experiment between her and Tablehead, and when I am satisfied that everything going properlly I will send a message across to Poldhu. It will probably be a week before I have a statement to make regarding my communication between Podhu and Tablehead.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Henderson Grimett, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—GEO. R. McDONALD, Man, Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism. sprains and bruises. Sold by Graham & Wells.
