GEER'S PLAINT.

Because they did not support him for United States senator, ex-Governor Geer declares the democratic members of the late legislature "did not uphold the Mays law." The difficulty with the ex-governor's notion of things is, that he was not the whole Mays law. It is easy for a statesman to go wrong in his opinions. A Corvallis statesman insisted that his sick cow had hollow horn until the hired man reminded him that she was a mulley. Almost everybody concedes that Lieutenant Wood was as much a part of the Mays law as was ex-Governor Geer. Save Lieutenant Wood, no democrat in or out of the legislature, nor no republican except Mr. Geer, believes or professes to believe, that the result of the vote in the June election meant that in the legislature, the democratic members should vote for Geer for Senator. Those who elected the democratic members expected them to vote, first and last, for Lieutenant Wood, and for no one else, which they did, very much to their credit, and in full vindication of the Mays law.

Had the republican members followed a similar course, Geer would be senator and at peace with the world. They did not, and in anguish of soul, the ex-governor insists that it was the democratic members that had the hollow horn. Being mulleys, they are immune. It is the long horns on the other side of the chamber that are hollow.

THE COMING CARNIVAL.

Heavy Subscriptions Were Expected—Canvass to be Continued.

The canvassing committee from the Woodmen has met with less encouragement in the way of contributions for subscriptions to the street carnival than was expected. The pledges are falling far short of that which the four days programme and the attractions and crowds incident thereto would seem to deserve. The Woodmen say the arrangements will be such as to insure a far larger crowd than has ever been seen at any Fourth of July Celebration, and that there will be four days of it, instead of one. A whole regiment of uniformed Woodmen will be among the features, and there will be Woodmen and others in attendance by hundreds, not only from Benton, but from every adjoining county. They hope for, and doubtless will receive a more generous assistance, as business men and others on reflection come to realize the full meaning of the coming carnival. The committee will continue the canvass for subscriptions.

JEFFERSONIANS WON.

By Vote of two Judges—One was Against—Card of Thanks.

A hard fought debate took place at the college Friday night. It was between Jeffersonian and Philadelphia teams. The former were Johnson, Hall and Moore; the Philadelphia were Beaver, Darby and Earl Rawson. The question was "Resolved that great men produce epochs rather than that epochs produce great men." The speeches were all good, and the large audience much interested. The Jeffersonians won on a decision of two judges, one being for the Philadelphia. The result eliminates the latter from further opportunity to contest this year for the Gatch cup.

The deep gratitude of the surviving relatives is hereby expressed to all those who administered with aid and sympathy in the last hours and death of Otto Haenel. The president and faculty of the college, the students, the members of the dead son's class, the church friends the people of Corvallis and all others are held in grateful and kindly remembrance by Mr. and Mrs. Haenel, at whose request this expression is made.

BEATS DYNAMITE.

As an Explosive—Colder Than Ice and Hotter Than Hades—Is Coming.

Pour water upon a hot stove and it instantly arises in steam; pour Liquid Air upon ice and it quickly passes off in vapor because the ice (being 344 degrees warmer) has the same effect upon it the stove has on water. Put a kettle containing Liquid Air on ice and the liquid boils violently, steam issuing freely from the spout. As it becomes chilled by the intensely-cold liquid the ice changes color and the boiling is less active; if a few pieces of fresh and comparatively warm ice are placed in the kettle the vigorous boiling will be resumed, and not infrequently the lid of the kettle forced off. In open cans or bottles Liquid Air is harmless as water; but if confined would burst loose from the strongest Krupp gun ever made. The supply of this paradoxical and much talked of wonder will be brought to this city for an entertainment Wednesday night, April 29th, in double bulbs of delicate glass, a vacuum surrounding all but the neck of the the inside bulb, which cannot be corked or closed, as the Liquid Air is constantly expanding. By thus insulating the inner bulb from outside heat' evaporation of the liquid is so retarded that a portion of it will keep for ten or more days, and a liberal supply is guaranteed for the many experiments announced in connection with this lecture.

While it is 312 degrees below zero yet it can produce within itself a heat of over 3000 degrees above Liquid Air is not in itself an explosive, and there is no danger whatever in the experiments, yet by combining with hydro-carbon it can be made a more powerful explosive than dynamite. The managers of this novel and instructive entertainment are H. B. Thearle and H. M. Hanaford of Chicago and the local managers of the OAC Athletic Union have a guarantee contract that will be exactly as represented, or no payment made, so all can rest assured of an evening of novelty and instruction.

ALL ABOARD.

Tickets are Now on Sale for the "Trip Around the World."

Arrangements have so far progressed as to permit the giving of further particulars of the proposed trip around the world. It is to be given under the auspices of the order of Rebekahs of this city in commemoration of the 84th anniversary of Oddfellowship, and the first section of the excursion train will start at 7 o'clock in the evening of April 25th, from the Occidental hotel, a point which the time table designates as "Boston." Tickets cannot be exchanged for tie passes. That is to say, no ticket holder shall go on foot. Arrangements have been made in the various countries for the reception of those only who accompany the excursionists.

The first stop will be made in Germany, so named on the time card, and it will not require a violent stretch of the imagination to conclude that you are really in der lieber alter Vaterland, since you will be surrounded by typical German scenes to the exclusion of everything American. Here Germany will prevail as completely as though you were in the real, old country. Here you are to be fed on exclusively German refreshments, served by exclusively German waiters and from exclusively German utensils. You are to be allowed ten minutes in Germany, then your trip will be continued to the home of Mrs. H. S. Pernot, where you will be received into Japan with Japanese hospitality and regaled with Japan tea. Decorations and all effects are to be Japanese. At the residence of Miss Pauline Kline the customs and typical scenes of England are to be presented. The home of Mrs. Sarah Moore will represent Florida, with entertaining accompaniment. On the return home the excursionists are to tarry awhile at the residence of Mrs. M. Jacobs, and here you are to behold the sights of Washington City.

Details of the entertainment have been worked out with much pains and no small expense and there is no doubt that this "trip around the world" will prove most fascinating. Tickets for the round trip may be secured at various places in the city at 35 cents each. You better get aboard.

BURIED YESTERDAY.

At Monroe—Mrs. Casper Zierolf—Her Death Occurred in Portland.

Mrs. Casper Zierolf was taken two weeks ago to a Portland hospital for medical treatment. It was expected that a surgical operation might be effective in prolonging her life. Her relatives and intimate friends knew, however, that the chances were desperate, and there was little hope of a favorable outcome.

Monday noon, her mortal remains arrived in Corvallis on the westside train. Her death occurred in St Vincents hospital, the preceding day. Members of the family, and a large party of friends met the remains at the station, and the body was taken at once to the family home south of Corvallis. Yesterday morning neighbors and the sorrowing family followed the remains to Monroe, where at 10 o'clock, occurred the funeral service. The latter was from the Catholic church, and was conducted by Rev. Father Butjen, of Eugene. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery. The funeral was one of the largest that has occurred in the vicinity in years. The family stands high in the community, and all the neighbors came from miles around to pay their tribute of respect. Many people from Corvallis were present at the obsequies, among them Mrs. Nolan, Mrs. Sheasgreen, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Zierolf, Mrs. George Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Mangas and Miss Mae Mangas, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Burnett, Virgil Watters, E. B. Horning, W. S. McFadden, H. W. Hall and many other members of the A. O. U. W. lodge.
