Chicago, April 21.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Houston, Tex., says: Professor Le Roy Fewer, an aeronaut, has met with a serious accident before thousands of spectators here. He made a successful ascension of 3000 feet in the air and cut loose with his parachute in good trim. While attempting to shift the course of the parachute on its downward flight, one of the ropes snapped, almost reversing it and causing the balloonist to lose his hold when within 150 feet of the ground, and the man fell, turning over and over in the descent. He fell in a soft slough which he had been trying to steer clear of, and this alone prevented his instant death. One arm was broken in two places, two ribs and his nose were broken, and there are believed to be internal injuries. The man is still alive.

San Francisco, April 21.—Mrs.
Frieda Baker, wife of a commission clerk, was killed at noon today by Mike Nihall, a barkeeper, in a fit of jealousy. Nihall then turned the weapon on himself, inflicting a slight wound.

Nihall was a former lover of Mrs.
Baker and since her marriage to Baker several months ago has hounded the woman continually.
This morning he met Mrs. Baker and her mother walking on the street and accosted them. Mrs.
Baker's mother, seeing danger in a meeting, advised her daughter to run, which she did, followed by Nihall, pistol in hand. Mrs. Baker entered the saloon of one Fowke and appealed to the proprietor for protection, but before he could be of assistance to the distressed woman, Nihall entered, and throwing his arms around Mrs. Baker, began firing his revolver, several shots entering Mrs. Baker's body, killing her.

Fowke grabbed a revolver and turned it on Nihall, but did not shoot, as Nihall was pointing his weapon at his own head. He fired one shot, but the injury is not a serious one. He expressed gratification that he had killed the woman.

Olympia, Wash., April 21.— Christ Benson, the murderer of David Morrell, the Thurston county jailer, was found guilty of manslaughter last night, the jury returning a verdict after several hours spent in the jury room. The court room was crowded when at 9:30 the jury filed in and the verdict was read. Benson was extremely nervous as he was waiting for the reading of the verdict, and when his attorney informed him that his neck had been saved, he buried his face in his hands and sobbed for joy.
Neither Benson nor his attorney had hoped for an acquittal, and the verdict was good news to the defendant. Benson will have to serve his term of one year for larceny before entering upon his sentence for his greater crime. It is the opinion that he will get the full extent of the law and receive a sentence of 20 years in the penitentiary.

New York, April 21.—The Interstate Commerce Commission sat in this city today to consider the complaint of William R. Hearst that certain coal-carrying roads are violating the interstate commerce law.
The defendant roads are the Philadelphia and Reading, the Lehigh Valley, the Central of New Jersey, the New York, Susquehanna and Western, the Erie, the Ontario & Western, the Delaware and Hudson, the Pennsylvania and the Baltimore & Ohio.

The specific complaints of Mr.
Hearst are that the roads charge unreasonable rates, and they unjustly discriminate in favor of the bituminous against the anthracite coal companies, and that they have contrived, in violation of the anti-pooling sections of the interstate commerce law, to discriminate against the independent coal-mining companies in favor of the companies controlled by the railroads.

The commission is also to consider while here the old case of the complaint of the Texas Cattle-raisers' Association and the Chicago Live Stock Association against the Chicago local transfer tax, which calls for the payment of $2 per car for cattle transferred from the termini of the Western railroads in Chicago to the Union Stockyards. At the first hearing on that subject the commissioners ordered a reduction of the tax from $2 to $1 per car.
That ruling was submitted to the United States supreme court, which sent the whole case back to the Interstate Commerce Commission for more evidence.

None of the roads were represented when the commission convened.

Frankfort, Ky., April 21.—Henry Youtsey was today recalled for further cross-examination in the trial of James Howard. Responding to questions as to negotiations with Dr. Johnson to kill Goebel, Youtsey said he went to see Senator Deboe and told him Johnson and others were willing to do it.
Senator Deboe, according to witness, replied that enough democrats were going to vote with Taylor to retain him in office and it would not be necessary to kill Goebel. Deboe said it must not be done.

Witness went back and told Johnson what Deboe said. Johnson told him not to pay any attention to De-boe, but to go and see what Governor Taylor said about it. He went to see Taylor and told him what Johnson said and Taylor raised no objection to the plan of shooting from Secretary Power's office.

Olympia, Wash., April 22.—
With a smile on his otherwise expressionless face, Christ Benson, slayer of Deputy Sheriff Morrell, walked out of the court room and prepared to serve a 20-year sentence in the state prison.

In passing sentence, Judge Linn stated that the prisoner had been lucky to get off with a verdict so light as was rendered against him.
The judge said he believed Benson had a fair and impartial trial. Prior to the passing of judgment the attorneys on both sides argued concerning the extent of the punishment. The defense asked for a light sentence, which was refused.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP.

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, Editor of the Enterprise Shortsville N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration but the pains were far less severe and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by Allen and Woodward.

Philadelphia, April 19.—Rev Dr.
Francis A. Horton, well known in the Presbyterian church, and pastor of the Temple Presbyterian church in this city, was stricken with apoplexy while preaching tonight, and died shortly after being removed from the pulpit. Dr. Horton was delivering a special sermon to young men and had been speaking about ten minutes, when his words became incoherent and he tottered. Several worshippers went to his assistance and he was removed to his home, where he died without regaining consciousness.
Dr. Horton was 56 years of age and before coming to this city, had held a charge at Oakland, Cal.

AT DUSTY.

WHAT THE TEACHERS AND PAR-ENTS DID AND SAID

Large Crowd in Attendance—The Discussions Were Interesting—Corvallisites Were There—Big Dinner and a Good Time.

The following program was rendered at the Bellefontaine parent's meeting by enthusiastic participants and listened to by a highly interested and representative audience from that district and several neighboring ones:

Two songs, sung by audience.
Mrs. M. M. Waltz, organist: Recitation, Master Harry Tozier.
Quartet, E. H. Belknap, Wilbur Starr, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H.
Edwards.

"Danger Signals," discussed by J. Fred Yates, sounded a timely warning; was patriotic in sentiment and presented with great ability.

Song, Elvin and Mamie Witham of Monroe.

A sumptuous dinner, such as can be spread by Grange's only, was partaken of by the jolly yet hungry crowd. The afternoon program was then called to order:

Concert recitation, pupils from district number 96.

Song, Carrol and Hazel Edwards Duet, Mrs. Starr and E. H. Belknap.

Recitations by Neoma Humphrey and Ralph Banton.

"Does State Course of Study Meet Present Conditions in the Country Schools?" Miss Nellie Foshay answered and proceeded to defend her position. Supt. Denman argued wisely and showed plainly the need of a reduction of work in the state course of study but in as much as it is the only available plan he recommended a cooperation in carrying out the plans.

"Should a Child be encouraged to Tell Stories out of School?" Mrs.
Julia M. du Moulin said our little ones should not be ignored but through that source learn how when and where, to give necessary moral training. Miss Mary Dunlap made it plain why stories should not be told out of school.

L. N. Edwards, a parent, contrasted the telling of facts and interesting features of school life against mere tales, and would encourage the former but forever banish the latter from the home.
H. T. Bristow advised the discussion of ennobling impressions received at school but none others.
Mr. Waltz, Mr. Belknap and Rev.
Skidmore gave wise suggestions on the subject.

Recitation, Edith Larkin, Lilly
Bain and Ida Humphrey.

Solo, Mr. Pruitt.

"Our Duty. When Troubles Arise in the School." Mr. Edwards among many other suggestions, said, train a child to obey those in authority and you will obviate trouble in the home, the school and the state. Earl Brown continued the discussion by reading a paper.
Robert Kyle said, if the parent gives the proper instruction at home there will be very little trouble at school. Mr. Starr concluded by saying, stand by the
