

CORVALLIS.

ALMOST CHARMINGLY LOCATED AND PROSPEROUS CITY.

Keeping Step to the Music of Progress—Sketches of her Industries and Mercantile Establishments.

Concluded from First Page.

Corvallis should see to it that their goods are on sale. First, because they are good goods, and second, because it is a business proposition. The more that are consumed, the more men they will employ and the more money will be paid out in wages which will stimulate every branch of business.

J. K. Berry—Bicycles.

The bicycle has become such an important means of conveyance that the city that has not an agency or repair shop for this 20th century vehicle is indeed an exception. Mr. J. K. Berry conducts an up-to-date bicycle store and repair shop and is prepared to give entire satisfaction either in the way of a new wheel, skillful repairing, or in supplying any of its parts.

Occidental Hotel

Good hotel accommodations add as much to the advantages of a town or city as any one thing. "Is there a good hotel in town?" is one of the first questions that a stranger will ask on reaching a city. Answering that question on behalf of Corvallis we say, "Yes the Occidental Hotel is first class in every particular."

Corvallis Steam Laundry.

As cities progress and grow, and as business increases, the old, slow, foggy methods of doing business are supplanted by more modern and perfect means. This reminds us that Corvallis has an up-to-date steam laundry fitted with the latest machinery and prepared to do high class work.

E. B. Horning—Grocer.

The grocery trade is well represented here but a nicer or better place to trade than with E. B. Horning would be hard to find. This gentleman carries a large and complete stock of staple and fancy groceries, queensware, crockery, glassware, flour, feed and provisions.

stock is always fresh and pure, and his prices are as low as is consistent with the quality of the goods offered. Free delivery is made promptly to any part of the city and orders by phone are attended to with dispatch.

Miles Starr—Confectionery

This gentleman is one of our enterprising confectioners, and has been in business here for the past two years. He carries a fine and well selected line of plain and fancy confectionery, much of which he manufactures himself, thus insuring freshness and purity.

All n & Woodward—Druggists.

This pharmacy is one of the oldest in this section of the state and is essentially the headquarters for the medical fraternity of the town. The reason is apparent. Here prescriptions are compounded in a scientific manner from ingredients beyond question pure.

D. D. Berman—Grocer.

Of all kinds of business the grocery is certainly the most important and when a firm in this line carries only first-class goods charges reasonable prices and treats all customers with promptness and courtesy, that is the firm that is certain of success.

C. A. Gerbard—Books.

One of the popular stores of this city is the book and stationery store conducted by Mr. Gerbard. This gentleman began business here about four years ago and carries a most complete line of books, fine stationery, newspapers, periodicals, and makes a specialty of school books, supplies, drawing and office supplies.

Worst of all Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years" she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed.

WON'T BUILD IT

DRAWBRIDGE ACROSS THE LONG TOM AT LIVERPOOL CROSSING.

Petition for it Denied by Benton County Court—Cost of Structure Would be too Great—Graduated at Philomath.

At an adjourned meeting last week, the county court denied the petition of taxpayers in the southern end of the county for construction of a bridge over the Long Tom at Liverpool crossing. The petition was presented to the court a couple of months ago. It was signed by a large number of taxpayers. All the members of the court went out to the scene, taking along Frank Miller of Albany, who is a bridge expert.

A fact that increased the cost of the structure is that it had to be a drawbridge. In his report he refers to the bridge at Bundy crossing, and says it will be found to be useless as a drawbridge if occasion requires its use as such.

THEY GRADUATED.

From Philomath College—The Class Larger Than Usual.

The graduating exercises for Philomath College passed off in a most satisfactory manner. Miss Grace Jolly did honor to the music department, rendering in a highly accomplished manner many of the most difficult selections of classical music. Her recital was unusually excellent.

The decorations throughout the week were of very high order. The class was the largest in years, the commercial department contributing a larger number than ever before in the history of the school. The class address by Rev. Edwin F. Green, of Corvallis, was a masterly effort.

Those comprising the class of '03 were: Grace Jolly, Beulah Henkle, O. G. Marsh, Chas. Loggan, Abbie Coulson, Fred Evans, Bertha Fowells, Maud Decker, Arthur Tongeland, Frank Blackerby, Gertrude Weed and Robert Clark.

Manure to give away at the Brick Stable.

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK and POULTRY MEDICINE

Stock and poultry have few troubles which are not bowel and liver irregularities. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is a bowel and liver remedy for stock. It puts the organs of digestion in a perfect condition.

ROCHELLE, GA., Jan. 30, 1902. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is the best I ever tried. Our stock was looking bad when you sent me the medicine and now they are getting so fine. They are looking 20 per cent better.

S. P. BROOKINGTON.
