LOCAL GUN CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS AND PREPARES TO SHOOT.

Doctors Perform Two Operations—Suffering with Heart Trouble—O her Local News.

Iva, the thirteen-year-old daughter of Robert Campbell, has been seriously ill for some time, from rheumatism affecting the heart. Monday a consultation of physicians was deemed necessary. Tuesday her condition was more favorable.

Yesterday morning, an abscess was cut away from behind the ear of little Grant Hemphill, aged five years. The operation was performed by Dr. Pernot, assisted by Dr. Cathey. The same physicians Monday removed a tubercular bone from the wrist of Watts Randall, the 15-year-old son of Mrs. Randall, who resides in the north end of town.

THE CORVALLIS GUN CLUB.

Annual Meeting—Officers Elected—The Club is Active.

The Corvallis Gun Club held its annual meeting Monday and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, M. P. Burnett; secretary, Alex Rennie; treasurer, Wm. Currin; captain, W. G. Emery.

A number of new members joined the club, and an invitation is extended to all shooters wishing to join, whether living in town or the country, to send in their names to the secretary. The admission fee is $2, with no dues, so that when a member does not shoot he is at no expense. Members have the free use of the traps and targets are thrown for them at cost. The Club has purchased a new set of expert traps and are anxious to increase the membership so as to be able to put up a shooting stand and store room for traps on permanent grounds to be selected for the purpose adjacent to town. A social shoot, open to all, has been arranged for next Saturday, July 4th, a complete program of which appears elsewhere.

Portland, June 27.—The Oregonian: The troubles of Horace G. McKinley and Marie L. Ware, formerly United States Commissioner at Eugene, have apparently just begun, for at the conclusion of their two days' preliminary examination yesterday afternoon they found themselves tied up to bonds of $2000 each to await further attention by the grand jury, which meets in October. Miss Ware was prepared for the emergency and Dan W. Tarpley, a Eugene notary public, and Al. Walker, a saloon-keeper of the same town, who is also Miss Ware's cousin, were on hand to furnish the necessary bond, while Mr. McKinley, less thoughtful, will be given until tomorrow to supply ways and means for a temporary release.

After the noon recess yesterday the arguments of the opposing counsel were begun, the defendants making no effort to offset the testimony the convincing showing which the government had made against them. The evidence shows that Miss Ware and McKinley were guilty of forgery and fraud in the matter of six separate homestead proofs and the subsequent conveyance by deed of the tracts covered by such proof. The testimony of the citizens of Cottage Grove, where the entrymen and their witnesses claimed to live, that they had never heard of such people and that no such men had ever lived in the country, was recalled.

AN ALBANY MAN'S EXPERIENCE WITH DR. DARRIN.

(Albany Democrat.)

Mr. J. D. Alkire's card to the public will go far to establish the curative properties of electricity and medicines as administered by Dr. Darrin. We are pleased to give space to it as many will be more thoroughly convinced of the doctor's just claims to a new and efficacious mode of treatment for chronic diseases long thought incurable.

TO THE PUBLIC.

For more than 20 years I have been afflicted with kidney troubles, pains in the back, diabetes and inflammation of neck of bladder. I had to relieve my bladder four to six times nightly. I had despaired of relief, having taken many kinds of patent medicines. I am happy to say I have been cured by Dr. Darrin and his new mode of treatment by electricity and medicines, and feel it my duty to give him credit for it, as well as to notify my friends and neighbors where to go for relief. I am 70 years old and consider the cure more remarkable on account of my age. I reside near Knox Butte, seven miles from Albany, Linn county, Ore., and can be referred to.

J. D. ALKIRE.

DISCHARGING AND DEAFNESS CURED.

To the Editor: For 50 years or so I have had a discharging ear and partial deafness. The troubles have given me a world of worry and inconvenience. I have been cured of the discharging ear and am rapidly recovering my hearing, all of which I ascribe to Dr. Darrin's skillful electrical and medical treatment. Refer to me at Woodburn, Oregon. JOHN B. SMITH.

DR. DARRIN'S PLACE OF BUSINESS.

Dr. Darrin can be consulted free at the Hotel Revere, Albany, from 10 to 5 o'clock daily; evening 7 to 8, Sunday 10 to 3.

The Doctor makes a specialty of all diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, catarrh, deafness, bronchitis, la grippe, heart, liver, bladder and kidney diseases or those who suffer from apathy and indifference, also consumption, genitourinary and skin diseases in either sex, such as blood taints, seminal weakness and lost vigor, varicocele and stricture.

All curable chronic diseases treated at $5 a week or in that proportion of time as the case may require. The poor treated free, except medicines, from 10 to 11 daily. No case published except by the permission of the patient. All business relations with Dr. Darrin strictly confidential. Electrical appliances furnished. One visit is desirable, though many cases can be treated by home treatment by writing symptoms. Eyes tested and glasses fitted.

This is the first visit of the head of the Portland firm of Drs. Darrin to this city. The Dr. will remain until August 1st and those wishing treatment will do well to call soon as many require second treatment.

A MOST REMARKABLE CURE OF HEART DISEASE.

(Albany Democrat.)

Perhaps one of the most wonderful results on record is the wonderful cure of Mrs. S. E. Clark by electricity and medicines administered by Dr. Darrin, Revere House, Albany. Mrs. Clark was carried to Dr. Darrin's office in an almost dying condition, afflicted with a complication of diseases. Here are her own words:

Ukiah, Ore.—To the Editor: My health began to fail over a year ago. I gradually fell away until I became very weak. I was suffering from heart, lung and stomach troubles. On the 24th of December, 1897, I went to Pendleton and put myself under Dr. Darrin's treatment by electricity and medicines, and began to improve from the first treatment and continued to improve. At the present time I have good health. My neighbors say they never expected to see me return home from Pendleton, and were greatly surprised at my recovery.

MRS. S. E. CLARK.

SIX YEARS LATER.

Ukiah, Ore.—Dr. Darrin: I am enjoying good health, have gained over 20 pounds in the past six years. I feel entirely cured, and very grateful indeed to have good health, after years of suffering with heart, stomach and lung troubles; also diseases peculiar to women. I cannot praise you too highly.

CLOVER WEDDING.

HAPPENED UNDER THE TREES IN A CLOVER FIELD.

Two Brides and Two Grooms—Former Well known College Students—Stimpson-Thompson Nuptials—Dr. Hill on Oregon—Other Local News.

What might be called a clover wedding took place at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Thompson in the Waldo Hills at noon the last Wednesday in June. On that day two of their daughters were married; Roxana to Dr. D. G. Clark of Silverton, and Orla to Arthur J. Stimpson of Portland. The ceremonies were performed by Rev. Evans of California, and Rev. Zurcher of Salem, under the trees in a field of blossoming clover. The vows were taken under a large four leaf clover suspended from overhanging branches.

Just before the arrival of the bridal party vocal solos were sung, "The Four Leafed Clover" by Miss Leila Cavanaugh, and "Clover Blossoms" by Harris Thompson.

The bridal party marched from the house down an avenue of evergreens and marguerites under an arch of Oregon grape crowned by true lover's knots of white satin ribbon to the rustic altar where it was met by the waiting grooms Miss Josephine Hibbard of Portland, and Miss Edna Pohle of Salem, were bridesmaids for Miss Roxana, and Dr. Clark was attended by Harris Thompson as best man. Miss Orla's bridesmaids were, Miss Gertude Ewing of Portland, and Miss Frances Belknap, of Corvallis. Dr. E. W. Stimpson of Tacoma, acted as best man for his brother.

The brides were gowned alike in white silk, mull in train with filmy veils, carrying bouquets of bride-roses, and looked very winsome as they marched down the avenue to the music of Wagner's wedding march rendered by Miss Leila Cavanaugh. They were preceded by their bridesmaids attired in white over pink, carrying shower bouquets of clover blossoms, while two flower girls, little Mabel Rogers and Elma Hall, scattered rose petals in their path.

After the ceremony and congratulations, a delicious luncheon was served to the assembled friends.

Then the newly wedded couples departed for their future homes. Dr. and Mrs. Clark to Silverton, where they will reside, and Mr. and Mrs. Stimpson to Eastern Oregon where they will remain a short time and then return to Portland.

The brides' bouquets were caught by Miss Leila Cavanaugh and Miss Lida Thompson, and the rings by Miss Ethel Thompson and Miss Lida Thompson.

During the recent session at Los Angeles of the Presbyterian General Assembly, Rev. E. P. Hill of Portland, drew the following contrast between Oregon and California. Addressing the Assembly, Rev. Hill said:

"You must not think for a moment that you have seen the entire Pacific Coast when you have seen only Southern California. If I were to take you out in the country five miles from the luxuriant palm and pepper trees that line these avenues, you might be ready to listen to me sympathetically when I say that the garden spot of this Coast is not in California but yonder to the northward in the Willamette valley. The lordliest river on this continent is the Columbia to the north, and the Presbyterian city of this Coast is not Los Angeles, but Portland, Ore. You Californians must not get mad at me for saying this. Last year in New York, I worked as hard as any of you to get the assembly to the Coast. I told of your orange groves your giant sequoias, and your boundless hospitality, and never said one word about your chapparal bushes, your burning sizzling summer days. I was a Coast man then, but I am an Oregonian tonight, and I want to say to you men from the East that you will get no adequate idea of this Pacific slope until you have seen Oregon and the country to the north."

New York, June 23.—The first shot in an anti-ritual crusade in this country, long the dream of John Kinset, who lost his life in a church riot in England, was fired by the Rev. R. C. Fillingham, vicar of Hexton, England, in a letter to Bishop Potter here yesterday.

The vicar is here arranging for the crusade, which is to begin next February with a series of lectures. In his communication to Bishop Potter he denounces last Sunday's service in the church of St. Mary the Virgin, in this city, as a "scandalous and unlawful proceeding."

In his letter he says: "I was present last Sunday morning at the church of St. Mary the Virgin. The whole service was a flagrant defiance of Protestantism. The church of England was reformed especially to get rid of the mass, but on Sunday morning what was openly and cynically termed 'high mass' was performed. The proceedings culminated in the elevation and adoration of the senseless elements of bread and wine—an act of idolatry, which, as our prayer books say, should be abhorred by all Christian men."

"Sir, the Articles of Religion adopted by the whole Protestant Episcopal church in 1801 describes masses as blasphemous fables and dangerous deceits."

"I call upon you as ruler of the Protestant church to take steps to put an end to these scandalous and idolatrous proceedings."

Butte, Mont., June 27.—A cat with a unique desire to play the part of watchdog gave Detective Buchanan an uncanny fight.

The officer was kept busy for ten minutes defending himself against repeated attacks. Buchanan was going through an alley in Chinatown. He was looking for a suspect at the time, and was investigating dark corners. He stopped in front of a little cabin, sitting back several feet from the alleyway. He started to enter the place. A huge black cat leaped toward his face. He threw his head to one side, and the animal missed him.

Shaken somewhat by the weird attack, Buchanan faced his strange assailant. The cat had regained its feet some distance beyond him. It was creeping toward him.

It sprang again at his head. As it did so Buchanan struck the brute with his open hand, knocking it behind a dry goods box. He turned to go, thinking it was the last of the matter.

But he saw the animal before him, its great eyes glowing like two coals in the darkness. In the dim light Buchanan could just distinguished the outlines of the black arched back.

He rushed toward the uncanny brute and just as it sprang a third time, managed to catch it with his foot. Disabled for a moment by the blow, the cat slunk into the darkness.

This morning Buchanan learned that the cat is regarded by Chinese residents along the alley in the light of a watchdog.

It remains in front of its owner's cabin during the night and attacks any prowlers who threaten intrusion.

NORTH BEACH.

Excursion Steamer T. J. Potter Goes Into Service June 27.

Those who are planning their vacation this year will be interested in knowing that the popular excursion steamer, the T. J. Potter—queen of river boats—goes into service June 27, and that she will leave Portland every day from Tuesday until Saturday inclusive. To see the beauties of the picturesque and mighty Columbia from the decks of the Potter is a treat never to be forgotten. For speed and grace nothing in river or lake service in the entire West equals this side-wheeled beauty. Five hours from Portland, and one from Astoria, through the famous fishing waters of the Columbia, past scores of salmon traps, and nets and as many white-winged fish boats, lands the passengers at Ilwaco, where close connection is made for beach points with trains of the Ilwaco Railway & Navigation Company, whose cars stand on the wharf awaiting steamer. The beach is 27 miles long, two hundred yards wide at low tide and so hard that carriage wheels scarcely leave a mark. It is an ideal place for driving, riding, wheeling or walking, and the surf bathing is unsurpassable. The excellent hotels and boarding houses provide good accommodations ranging from $1 to 3 per day.

The round trip rate from Portland to Astoria is $2.50; to Ocean Beach points $4, good until October 15th. On Saturday during July and August, round trip tickets are sold to beach points at $2.50 good for return leaving beach following Sunday evening.

The Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company has just issued a new summer book, free for the asking, which tells all about the delightful resorts of the valley of the Columbia. This can be obtained from any agent of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company or by writing to A. L. Craig, G. P. A., Portland, Ore.
