A DESPERATE NECRO

RESENTS DESTRUCTION OF OF HIS WATERMELON PATCH.

He Empties His weapon into the Crowd Wounding Nine out of Eleven White Men-The Sheriff and Posee in Close Porsuit.

Heflin, Ala., Aug. 17.-News has just reached here that four men were killed and nine wounded in Randolph county by a desperate negro named Sledge. The sheriff and posse are in pursuit, but have not been able to capture the mur-

The trouble started over a difficulty in a watermelon patch. A party of white men were working on the public road, at Beaver Creek, near Lamar. Sledge had a watermelon patch near the road, and when the men finished working they asked permission to eat a few watermelons. Sledge told them to help themselves. As soon as the men entered the patch they began to cut and slash melons in every direction. The negro went after a gun. He emptied the weapon into the crowd, wounding nine out of

After the shooting Sledge fled. A passe headed by the sheriff overtook the negro near the Tallaboosa River, five miles from Wedowee. He was ordered to surrender but replied by firing his shot gun, instantly killing Thomas Ebbitt and Toomas Ford.

Tromley was dissolute and besiles as sulting the marshal one evening, he has threatened others with injury. He has also served two or three times in the city jail for drunkenness. Tromley was wanted on a charge for disturbing the peace, as he had threatened the life of a citizen who was out of town, alleging that he would kill him upon his return. A message was sent to the house at which he lives early in the evening, and Tromley came down town accompanied by the woman. Upon reaching the business part of the town he was arrested, and placed in the city jail.

Leter a crowd broke into the jail builting, and, between ten and twelve, took Tromley out of the jail, took him to the brickyard east of the to vo, stripped bim and applied s liberal cost of tar, after which they made him roll over in a b-d of feithers.
