

FUGITIVE IS CAUGHT

BURKE, A DESPERATE MAN, CAPTURED NEAR VANCOUVER.

E. S. Beisacher Tracks Him to His Brother's Cabin—Shot Twice by the Sheriff While Making a Bolt for Liberty.

Portland, Sept. 27.—Portland Oregonian: J. H. Burke, the desperate prisoner from the Hillsboro jail, was shot twice by sheriff E. S. Beisacher and captured last evening, at his brother's cabin, six miles north of Vancouver. The sheriff got the drop on Burke while the fugitive's guns and ammunition were laid aside. Despite the fact that he was looking down the yawning muzzle of the officer's six-shooter, Burke uttered a curse and bolted for liberty. A ball was set ploughing through his left arm and another through his right thigh. Even in this unhappy plight he struggled pitifully against capture.

His final display of desperation was characteristic of the man's demeanor since his capture for forgery and his subsequent escape from jail. Had he got hold of a gun or been warned of the sheriff's approach, there is little doubt but that a pitched battle would have ensued.

Sheriff Beisacher learned several days ago that the fugitive's real name is F. C. Hamlin, instead of Burke, and that he has a brother living in the woods, six miles from Vancouver. Thinking it probable that the man would make for his brother's home for shelter and food, the sheriff made his way to the place yesterday afternoon, accompanied by a deputy. The two men hid in the woods until dark and then advanced cautiously to where a faint candle light showed through a window over which a ragged curtain was drawn.

Tip-toeing carefully to the window the sheriff could hear men talking. He listened with his ear close against the window and heard the voice of the fugitive describing graphically to his brother how he had given the sheriff the slip, and fought a deputy and taken his weapons away from him, and had defied all the officers of the country he had passed through.

"They ain't going to take me as long as I have got a cartridge or a bit of light left in me," came in braggadocio tones from behind the drawn curtain.

Just at this moment the sheriff discovered that a pane of glass was out the window. With a quick jerk he tore the curtain down and showed his gun through the opening and brought it to bear on the escaped man's anatomy.

Pomona, California, Sept. 20.—After a fast begun on Aug. 5 and lasting 45 days, during which he suffered agony that nearly drove him insane, Frank Richards, aged fifty five, fell into a swoon today and died within an hour.

He was warned a few days ago that a longer continuance of his fast would probably result in death, but he declared his faith that the Lord was with him and would not let him die in any event.

About August 1 Richards announced that an angel of the Lord had appeared to him and told him that he could not have salvation unless he purged himself by abstaining from food for at least 67 days.

Henry Bruer Cured

Another Demonstration of Dr. Darrin's Skill.

Mr. Henry Bruer, well known to many of our readers, and now an employee in the Reform School, has been cured by Dr. Darrin of deafness and discharging ears of ten years' standing.

Every day the doctor performs marvelous cures in his office in Albany, and many of his patients are men and women of prominence, with names well known throughout the state. Judges, lawyers, ministers of the Gospel, prominent officials and others all bear witness as to his knowledge of nature's great but little understood force, electricity. Dr. Darrin's many remarkable cures fully demonstrate the fact that he has mastered the secrets of electricity in the treatment of disease, and that he possesses an exceptional knowledge of the curative properties of medicines.

The fact that he has successfully treated a well-known resident of this section, will influence other ailing persons hereabouts in the doctor's favor.—Stayton Mail.

DYNAMITED A BUGGY.

ONE MAN KILLED INSTANTLY AND ANOTHER BLOWN TWO HUNDRED FEET.

Robbers Pat Dynamite in the Road—Satchel Containing $3,600 Missing—Electric Battery Is Used—Other News.

Washington, Sept. 25.—A murder and robbery occurred this afternoon on the Middleton road about 15 miles from here. Samuel T. Ferguson, of the Ferguson Construction Company, of Pittsburg, was instantly killed and S. Martin, of Cincinnati, fatally injured. The two men were driving along the road in a buggy, carrying $3,600 in cash with which to pay some of their men employed on construction work along the line of the Wash road when suddenly an explosion of dynamite in the roadway literally tore the rig to pieces, killing Ferguson outright and threw Martin 200 feet, tearing his left arm almost from the socket.

It has been learned that two men supposed to be P. I.'s, placed the dynamite in the road for the purpose of killing Ferguson and had arranged to explode it by means of an electric battery. The satchel containing the money is missing. Two suspects are under arrest.

Cynthiana, Ky., Sept. 25.—Curtis Jett was brought into court today, when Judge Osborn decided that he be "hanged between sunrise and sunset, December 18, for killing James Cockrell at Jackson, Ky. July 21, 1902."

When Judge Osborn said he would send the prisoner to another jail Jett pleaded earnestly not to be returned to Lexington.

Judge Blanton filed papers giving his grounds for a new trial, preparatory to carrying the case to the court of appeals at Frankfort.

Panama, Colombia, Sept. 20.—Senator Obaldia today took over the functions of governor of Panama.

The event was the occasion for great popular demonstrations by all parties.

His appointment apparently is part of a general plan the result of which will be the election of Gen. Reys to the presidency and the approval of a canal treaty satisfactory to the United States.

In reply to Dr. Florentine Goena, president of the high court of justice, Governor Obaldia said:

"I consider that the interests of the world urgently demand the construction of a canal, and they have a right to ask our co-operation. The concessions, the object of which is to serve these interests, though they may imply a sacrifice of sovereignty, are not against the national dignity. We cannot deny civilization what it requires from us—to continue its victorious march."

All the speeches today, not only by Isthmians, but by the natives of the rest of the republic, demonstrated that all the inhabitants of Panama are in favor of the treaty.

MRS. CECILIA STOWE, Organizer, Entre Nous Club.

178 Warren Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22, 1902.

For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a desolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.

Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weakness and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.

DUST TO DUST.

Berry Ingram Passes Away at his Home After Long Suffering.

Sunday morning September 27th Berry Ingram succumbed to the inroads of an affliction which secured a firm hold upon his constitution many months ago, and which baffled the best medical skill. While the physicians were not fully agreed as to the character of the ailment, it is generally understood that it was cancer of the stomach.

Mr. Ingram owned and resided on a farm located at the Dusty-Monroe wagon road crossing of Muddy creek, and there he reared a family of six children. He had lived there 22 years which was the length of time he had been in Benton county. At the time of his death Mr. Ingram was 66 years of age. He leaves a wife, three sons, Olive, William and Charley, all residents of this valley; three daughters, Mrs. T. H. Welsler of Corvallis, Mrs. Sylvester Leach of Harrisburg and Miss Ethel, who is at home; one sister, three brothers, Wash, Loyd and Green, and mother, who resides with the last named brother.

Berry Ingram was a man of excellent character. He was respected in manner, but cordial, and was regarded as one of Benton county's best citizens. In this state he has many relatives and friends who will learn of his death with unfeigned sorrow and regret.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's cough remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years during which time many millions of bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturer in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take and many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Graham & Wortham.
