CAUGHT FROM HORSE

BRIDE OF A WEEK DIED FROM AN ATTACK OF GLANDERS

While Her Pet Horse Was Suffering From the Deease, She Rode It to Town to Purchase Her Wedding Outfit-Other News.

Bridgeport, Conn., Dec. 3.—Mrs Richard F. Mueller, bride of a week, died of glanders last night. She caught the dread disease, always fatal to humans, from her pet horse, which she drove to this city while preparing her trousseau. Her symptoms were obscure, but an expert who was called in positively declares that she suffered from glanders or farcy, which, as most people know, is communicable to man from horses and mules which are primarily off cted with it.

M s. Mueller was Emma Richell, daughter of Frederick Richell, who lives near Bridgeport. Whenever she drove to town, she herself her-nessed, unharnessed and tended her horse, which lately showed unmis-takable signs of glanders. About the middle of last month she drove too for her wedding outfit. On Nov. 21 she fell ill. Dr. A. A. Holmes was summoned and found his patient suffering from acute rheumstism apparently. Her joints were red and swollen, she suffered considerable pain and her temperature ran up to the dangerous point, 104

Dr. Holmes treated her for rheum-3 00 atism, and in four days all her symptoms but the fever subsided. Every one believed she would soon recover and she was married to Mr. Mueller in her father's house on Thank-giving day.

4 50 Last night she died after a return 2 25 of her original symptoms. When 6 oo her young husband learned there was no hope for her his grief was overwhelming. Today the health officer quarantined her father's residence and its inmates.
