EIGHT SHIPS SUNK.

Chefoo, Feb. 15.—A reliable authority says that three Russian torpedo boats have been sunk by guns from the forts. They were mistaken for Japanese vessels.

New York, Feb. 12.—The Japanese troops landed at Gensan are intended to operate with the troops that are now being successfully landed at Pingyang, on the opposite side of the Korean peninsula, says a World dispatch from Kobe, Japan.

A first line of defense has been arranged. It is composed of picked troops, who are lined up along the south bank of the Yalu. It is considered most unlikely that this army will reach its destination in time to intercept the invading Russians.

The second line may fail to hold the invaders, in which case it is expected that a land battle will take place not far from Seoul.

In any case the Japanese preparations are made with a view of closing in on any body of Russian troops that succeeds in forcing its way into the interior of Korea.

San Francisco, Feb. 12.—The Japanese residents in this city have decided to undertake the work of raising a war fund of $5,000,000 for the assistance of their country in the fight against Russia.

About 200 of the most prominent residents of the local Japanese colony attended the meeting.

New York, Feb. 12.—About 200 of the Variag's crew lost their lives when the vessel was destroyed Monday by the Japanese off Chemulpo.

or a fund for the support of widows and orphans of Japanese soldiers killed in the war.

Tokio, Feb. 12.—It is stated on good authority here that 6,000 Japanese troops have been successfully landed in Korea, and are now marching toward Seoul from several points.

Although the Japanese successes during the past week have fired the people with hope with enthusiasm, and victory is being celebrated, there is no inclination to minimize the possibility of war.

Vienna, Feb. 12.—Dispatches from St. Petersburg indicate that in spite of the patriotic demonstrations that have been reported from St. Petersburg and Moscow, there is a lack of enthusiasm among the great masses of peasantry in the interior districts.

All of these conditions, it is believed, influenced the Czar throughout the negotiations with Japan on the side of peace.

Tokio, Feb. 11.—Vice-Admiral Togo's official report of the desperate attack of the Japanese fleet at Port Arthur reached Tokio late this evening.

MORE LIGHT ON DEALINGS OF HYDE AND BENSON.

Tip Money Found on Washstand and in Overcoat—Many Valuable Tracts Were Illegally Secured—Clerk Was Made a Tool.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The Federal grand jury in this city is listening to testimony in the famous Benson-Hyde land fraud case, and from evidence already submitted Secretary Hitchcock is confident that a number of indictments will result.

One of the most important witnesses yet examined is a clerk in the general land office, who admitted he had co-operated with Benson and had furnished him with advance information whenever the department was preparing to create forest reserves.

So great became the demands of Benson for information that this clerk found it necessary to employ a confederate, and it is then believed that Harlan, who was chief of the forestry division at the time, was taken into the scheme.

Proclamation.

Whereas, the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon has notified me in writing that pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled "An act making effective the initiative and referendum provisions of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and regulating elections thereunder, and providing penalties for violations of provisions of this act," approved February 23rd, 1904, the State Prohibition Alliance duly filed in his office on February 5, 1904, an initiative petition containing 58 signatures properly attached thereto and certified in accordance with law, demanding that a proposed law, the tenor of which is hereinafter particularly set forth, providing for election in any county or any precinct therein or any subdivision thereof or any subdivision of a county consisting of any number of entire and contiguous precincts of such county to determine whether the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited in such county or subdivision thereof or any such precinct and for other purposes as hereinafter stated shall be submitted to the legal electors of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular election to be held on the 6th day of June, being the first Monday of June, 1904, and the first Monday of June, 1905.

Now therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore first mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation, by initiative petition, a law, announcing that the said State Prohibition Alliance has filed said initiative petition with the requisite number of signatures thereon attached, demanding that there be submitted to the legal electors of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular election to be held on the 6th day of June, being the first Monday of June, 1904, a proposed law providing for elections in any county or precinct therein or any subdivision thereof or any subdivision of a county consisting of any number of entire and contiguous precincts of such county to determine whether the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited in such county or subdivision thereof, and for other purposes as hereinafter stated, having for its purpose and being briefly of the tenor and effect following, that is to say: All laws, by initiative petition, a law providing for elections in any county or any precinct therein or any subdivision of a county, consisting of any number of entire and contiguous precincts of such county, to determine whether the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited in such county or subdivision thereof or in such precinct, providing for the filing of petitions for such elections and the form and effect thereof, and for notices of such elections and for the time and manner of holding and conducting the same; declaring what shall constitute a subdivision of the county within the meaning of this law; declaring what acts shall and what shall not constitute a violation of this law; declaring the qualifications of voters and of electors at such elections; applying to such elections the provisions of Sections 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, and 1913, of Bellinger & Cotton's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Oregon; providing for printing and distributing ballots for such elections; prescribing the duties of public officers in relation to such elections and in relation to the enforcement of the provisions of this law; providing for the issuance by the County Court of orders prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within certain limits and declaring the duties of retailers in relation thereto; determining the time within which the question of prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors may be submitted to a vote in the several counties; providing penalties and punishment for the violation of any of the provisions of this law; providing for the return of any liquor dealer or other person who is guilty of a violation of any provision of this law to the jurisdiction of the court; and declaring certain rules of evidence applicable to prosecutions under this act.

Done at the Capitol at Salem this 10th day of February, A. D. 1904. GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN, Governor.

By the Governor, F. I. DUNBAR, Secretary of State.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

523 1-2 Congress St. PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902. I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I can testify to it from my own experience. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. My back and sides would ache and my head would spin. I would feel as if I were going to faint and I would feel as if I were going to die. I was so weak that I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I can testify that all suffering women know of its good qualities.

Wilhelmina Snow, Treasurer, Portland Economic League

Periodical headaches tell of female weakness. Wine of Cardui cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui today.
