A fine programme has been arranged for the occasion. -L. Hollenberg and family are expected to arrive tomorrow or Monday from Stuttgart, Arkansas. They are home-seekers. Mr. Hollenberg is a man of large means. -Miss Rena Garrett arrived Tuesday from Moscow, Idaho, where she has been engaged in teaching school. She is to spend the summer with relatives in Benton, and will return to Idaho in the autumn. -At Hoquiam, Wash., Mrs. Wellsher, mother of T. H. Wellsher, lies very ill. The ailment is cancer of the stomach, and a summons to her bedside is daily expected by the anxious son, in this city. -Mrs. W. A. Wells and Mrs. Lafferty have been chosen delegates to the Women's Missionary Society of the local Presbyterian church to attend a meeting of the Presbytery of the church to be held in Albany next week. -On the 16th inst, Mrs. Helen Gatch of Salem, grand matron of the order, is to pay an official visit to the Eastern Star lodge of this city. The local lodge is making preparations for a proper observance of the occasion. Mrs. Gatch is the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Gatch of this city. -Ray Applegate, the son of J. I. Applegate for many years a resident of Benton, but living now on the Bogie place, died Thursday of pneumonia, after a brief illness. The burial is to take place in the Albany cemetery today. The deceased was aged about 18 years. The family has the deep sympathy of many Benton county friends. -Extensive improvements are in progress at the O. R. & N. dock. In the south portion of the structure, including the approach, the decking was laid flat on the ground, and had become badly decayed. Two feet of earth throughout the section was dug away, and a frame of heavy timbers put in. To this a new decking, and a new and safe railing around the entire structure have been added. -News has been received in this city of the death of A. J. Burroughs, whose studentship of more than two years in O. A. C. ended with his departure from Corvallis during the holiday vacation. Death occurred Saturday in consequence of an attack of appendicitis. The funeral took place Monday. The sad news was received with deep regret by many friends and classmates of the young man at O. A. C. -Fire destroyed the Suver warehouse, once operated by Alexander Samuels, formerly of Corvallis. The building, together with 12,000 bushels of wheat and 2,000 bushels of oats, is a total loss. The Corvallis Flouring Mills was a part owner in the grain, the rest being held by the Portland Flouring Mills Company. The losses are covered in part by insurance. The fire occurred at midnight, and is supposed to have been caught by a spark from a passing locomotive. -T. D. Campbell has taken charge of the Benton County Lumber yard near the S. P. depot. Will furnish building material. See Mr. Campbell before you buy. -Joe Teabo, the baseball player from Chemawa, who caught for the victorious Raglans throughout the season last year, has signed with an Indian team from Oklahoma, and will be one of the attractions in baseball during the Worlds Fair at St. Louis. Sam Morris, the Raglan pitcher, left several weeks ago for Oklahoma to join the same team, and prevailed on the management to sign Joe Teabo as the only man he would be satisfied to pitch for. Teabo left Wednesday for Oklahoma City, and expects to be gone about eight months. -This is Oregon law—"No child under the age of 14 years shall be employed in any work or form for wages or other compensation to whomsoever payable, during the hours when the public schools of the town, district or city in which he or she resides is in session." Section 256 says, "Attendance at school shall be compulsory upon a child under 14 years during the whole of the school term in the city or town in which the child resides. Attendance at school shall be compulsory upon a child under 14 years of age who is not employed in any lawful work. -Sheriff Burnett has received inquiry from Miss Emma H. Gelston of Washington, D. C., concerning her missing brother, who disappeared from Sturgis, South Dakota, recently. The brother is about 30 years of age, is a veterinary surgeon, and the inquirer, who signs her letter, "His heart broken sister," has fears that he may be wandering in a demented condition, unable to tell his name or the address of relatives. The brother's name is Samuel Gelston and he is of light complexion, blue eyes, five feet seven or eight and weighed about 145.

the valley. He expects to greatly improve the mill by the coming spring by removing the old style bolts and putting in the new process. John Graham, Jim Chambers and Sam Eddy, of O. A. C., spent Sunday at home. Cattle are dying. Want of feed and shelter is the cause. Some farmers are plowing although the ground is generally too wet yet. Jim Plunkett arrived home last week from the soldiers' home in California. He is in very poor health. UNO. Arlington, Or., March 20.—Through the windows most of the audience left the Baptist church at Condon Monday night. Those who could not get through the windows came out through the entrance, and brought the door with them. The haste of the people to leave was caused by an explosion of the acetyle mechanism used in an illustrated lecture. The DeMoss family, a traveling musical troupe, from Sherman county, was giving an entertainment in the church. During a portion of the programme the lights were extinguished and stereopticon views were thrown on a screen. Suddenly there was a sharp report from the picture machine, followed by a blinding glare. The terrified audience escaped not on the order of going, but fled by the most available avenues. Clothing was torn and bruises and scratches inflicted as the thoroughly frightened men, women and children fought for a path to the outside and safety. Nine windows and one door were demolished; but no serious injury was received by any person. The picture man stuck to his post and when the gas in the machine burned out, those who had been so eager to leave a few moments before trooped back to see the remainder of the show and get their money's worth. San Francisco, March 29.—Ida Mooney, a girl of 18 years, has been shanghai'd and shipped away to Australia, according to charges made by J. S. Burke, owner of an O'Farrell street restaurant, and Mrs. Osborne, of 715 Post street. The strong and long arm of the American law is to be reached out to take her from the steamship Sonoma at Honolulu and bring her back. Captain Martin and Detective Bailey, of the police department, are accused of taking an active part in the work of shanghaiing the girl, and if the charges are true, and Miss Mooney was sent away on the steamer against her will, the officers and all others concerned in the case may find themselves in serious trouble. Attorney Averil states that he is preparing to have habeas corpus papers served when the Sonoma arrives at the island port. Miss Mooney is an orphan who was brought from Australia about ten months ago by Mrs. Trotman, formerly matron of the asylum in which the girl was brought up. With the Trotmans she lived at 715 Post street, where Mrs. Osborne is the manager of a lodging house, and she worked at Burke's restaurant, 128 O'Farrell street. Mrs. Osborne and Mrs. Burke took an interest in the girl. They assert that she gave her earnings to Mrs. Trotman; that she was harshly treated by Mrs. Trotman; and that when she finally rebelled and refused to any longer give up her wages, she was arrested by Detective Bailey at the instance of Mrs. Trotman and shipped away on the Sonoma, in spite of her own protestations and the attempt of Mrs. Osborne and Mr. Burke to prevent the abduction. Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Immediately relieves hoarse, croupy cough, oppressed, rattling, rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Sterns, Druggists, Shullsburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1901: "I have been selling Ballard's Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c, 1.00. Sold by Graham & Wortham. Baker City, Or., March 29.—Paul Delaney, a reporter on the Herald, of this city, and Bert Small a mining man, engaged in an altercation in the Geiser Grand hotel at an early hour this morning. The origin of the trouble is not known. The two men met, exchanged a few words, and Delaney struck Small over the head with a printer's iron shooting stick which he had in his possession. Small's scalp was cut open for six inches, and his skull slightly fractured. Both men were placed under arrest by the police. Small was discharged today, and Delaney was turned over to the state authorities.

E. E. WHITE REAL ESTATE CO. I am so happy and so glad I do not now feel blue and sad I laugh and talk and take my ease I come and go just as I please I tell you what I sold my home so I listed it for more than a year When I listed it with White & Stone. I was feeling very blue and sad My wife she made me almost mad She did not want on the farm to stay She wanted to sell it and move away so I listed it for more than a year And still I found myself right here. The agents they took my place in hand They were so sure they could sell the land I sometimes think they did not try For they never brought a man to buy. They gave a wink with a knowing smile And 'fied to fool me all the while. With that knowing smile and wink They could not fool me don't you think I saw they would not sell my home so I listed it with White & Stone. You bet I found them just and true They will do your work all right for you. They will always help if they can They deal with you as man with man. They are always ready with good advice And they are not afraid to advertise. Sell you would buy or sell a home Just have a talk with White & Stone.

MRS. CECILIA STOWE, Orator, Entre Nous Club. 176 Warren Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22, 1902. For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being. CECILIA STOWE Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weakness and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui. WINE OF CARDUI
