PETER RICKARD.

It is always a matter of pleasure to be able to say of a citizen, there is a man who is, indeed a man. There are men, and there are men; but in the genuine, unalloyed article, there are always the four essentials of integrity, sobriety, prudence and goodness. Measured by this standard, there is one man in Benton county of whom not one who knows him will hesitate to say, "He is, indeed, a man." That one is Peter Rickard, ex-sheriff and ex-commissioner. Known from border to border of the county, respected and honored by his political opponents, idolized by his own partisans and esteemed always and everywhere, Peter Rickard, is before the voters for election to the office of commissioner. For four years, he served the people in that position, a most difficult position to satisfactorily fill, and yet it is true of him that his honesty of purpose and sincerity of motive is such that not one word of criticism was ever uttered against him as a result of his administration of the office. On the contrary, he was called from the commissionership to the sheriff's office, and there for four years he served the people of the county with that same steady goodness and sincerity that made the man and his name respected and esteemed in every home in the county.

Peter Rickard did not seek the nomination for commissioner. It is a case of the office seeking the man, because universally and everywhere in the county, there is a feeling that he is the man for the position. Conservative in all things, determined when necessary, just and honest in every act, a man of affairs, successful in his own business, Peter Rickard is essentially and distinctively the man whom the people want for the place.

PUSHING HIS CAMPAIGN.

Horace Locke is making an aggressive campaign for the office of county recorder. He is a thoroughly honest and straightforward boy, ready to help himself and energetic in the effort to do so. He is himself, and always has been of the plain people, and his candidacy appeals strongly to them. Wherever he has gone, through the country, he has been warmly received, and a strength has developed that will be far stronger by election day.

A MATTER OF BUSINESS.

The candidacy of Victor Moses for clerk is on his merits as an official. He has been tried in the place, and the result is fully known. No county in Oregon ever had a better clerk, and few have had as good a one. As excellent in their work as were the late B. W. Wilson and Virgil Watters, it is no injustice to say that in some respects Mr. Moses is even superior to them. He is an expert as a typewriter and since their time a typewriting machine has been evolved that can be used in making county records. Its use puts perhaps three times as much matter on a page and the expense for purchase of record books is correspondingly saved. Copying can be done three times as fast with it as can be done by hand, which results in a great saving of time. In addition, typewritten records are up-to-date, modern, and the only proper way for keeping public records. Incidentally, Mr. Moses has purchased his own machine, and has placed it at the disposal of the county. Thus, the question of Victor Moses re-election, becomes not what are his party affiliations, but a cold business proposition so plain that it cannot be dodged, denied or evaded. He ought to be re-elected to a second term in the office because he is the best man in the county for the place, because it is economy for the taxpayers to do so, and because there should be recognition and reward for a man so prompt, so faithful, so capable and so obliging in the discharge of his duty.

BILLY BUCHANAN.

The proper and only place for the county treasurer's office is at the court house, and that is where Billy Buchanan has always kept it. When a man receives his county warrant in the clerk's office, it is convenient for him to cross the hall to the treasurer's office and there have his warrant either endorsed or cashed. In the room provided for the treasurer, there is a fire proof vault, where valuable books and papers are intended to be, and always should be kept. Ever since Billy Buchanan has been treasurer the latch string has always hung out on his office door at the court house, and it will continue to hang there just the same at all times—if Mr. Buchanan is re-elected.

AT THE COLLEGE.

Movements of Students—Base Ball Among Cauthorn Hall men.

Mr. Allen spent Saturday and Sunday at his home at Derry, returning to Corvallis Sunday.

Mr. Jones visited his friends in Oregon City during the short vacation from Friday to Monday.

Mr. H. C. Hennessy spent Sunday with his friends at Philomath.

The class field meet is again postponed until Saturday on account of the track not being fixed. During the week the canvas cover will be taken down and the track fixed.

The third floor boys of Cauthorn Hall recently challenged the boys of the second floor to a friendly game of base ball which was to be the first of a series of three games. The second floor boys immediately called a meeting and if they should accept the challenge to choose a captain and team. After thoughtful consideration the challenge was accepted and F. C. Stimpson was chosen captain. In the acceptance of the challenge, the second floor boys accepted on condition that there be but six innings also that Max Hinrich of the third floor be barred out. The game was played Saturday afternoon on the ball ground near the carriage factory. The second floor team was first in the field. When the third floor had finished their sixth inning the score stood ten to five in favor of the second floor. The game closed with that score. The two teams were as follows: Second floor, pitcher, Stimpson; catcher, R. Shepard; first base, Chapman, second base, Shrader; third base, Childers; right field, Witmore; left field, Engle; center, Bolton. Third floor pitcher, Jordon; catcher, Groves; first base, Bartmess; second base, Forrest, third base, Foresythe; right field Rawson; left field, Stepenger; center field Kanous.

Sunday morning when the fire bell rang the boys of the hall became very much excited. Wheels were hastily brought into use, some began running toward town on foot, while a few were content to stay in their rooms and stick their heads out of the windows.

Harold Rumbaugh has left school for the remainder of the year.

The warm days have come again, so have the large straw hats.

HIS BURIAL TODAY.

Alonzo J. Locke—He Died of Pneumonia Monday Afternoon.

The funeral of Alonzo J. Locke, well known in Benton county, is to occur from the home four miles across the Willamette in Linn County, at 10 o'clock this, Wednesday morning. The interment will be at Locke cemetery.

Mr. Locke died at one o'clock Monday afternoon after an illness of less than a week. His malady was pneumonia, and at the time of his death, three other members of the family, were and still are, suffering with the disease. Mrs. Locke was the first to be stricken, and several days thereafter Mr. Locke was seized with the malady. Last Sunday the little daughter Grace, aged five fell ill with it, and the following day her younger sister, aged two became violently ill with what is supposed to be the same disease. As this article is written, Mrs. Locke's condition is critical and the question of recovery more or less uncertain. The family reside on the Joseph Yates farm, four miles east of Corvallis.

Alonzo J. Locke was born on the well known Locke donation claim five miles north of Corvallis. His father was Nelson Locke who crossed the plains to Oregon and settled in Benton county in 1847. It was a year after the arrival on what is now the old homestead, or September 23, 1858 that Alonzo was born. His boyhood was spent on the farm and in attendance at the public schools of the vicinity. In due time he entered the Agricultural College, and was graduated from that institution with the class of 1875. June 20, 1879 he was married to Miss Nancy Holman, a niece of Wiley Holman, of northern Benton. For several years he was engaged in teaching school and later on was elected county surveyor. Most of his life was spent in farming, all of it until four years ago, in Benton County. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. lodge at Corvallis, and held a policy for $2,000 in the order. He was also a member of the Corvallis, lodge A. F. & A. M., under the auspices of which the funeral will be conducted. The surviving members of the family are a wife and six children. The funeral sermon will be by Rev. Frank L. Moore.

Something New.

REGISTERED 1904 CROUSE & BRANDEE, UTICA, N. Y.

"Less" things are stylish just now. The Horseless carriage started the hobby, wireless telegraphy put further zest into it, and now we have the seamless back. It's a good idea, too. Did you ever look closely at the back of your coat and see how the seam breaks up the pattern of the cloth? Do it now for the fun of the thing, and you'll catch the idea. The whole back is the latest wrinkle of custom tailoring, and Crouse & Brandegee, the manufacturing tailors of Utica, New York, with their usual progressiveness, have incorporated this in two or three of their new season's styles. Their idea is to meet the wishes of all classes of patrons. Nothing new is attempted in the tailoring line or is offered by the custom tailors that is not put forward by Crouse & Brandegee in their ready-made service.
