—Services at the Catholic church tomorrow at 8 a. m.

—Services both morning and evening at the Episcopal church tomorrow.

—Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Cherry of Astoria, are guests until Monday, of their son who is attending OAC.

—Mrs. Edith Howard-Zurcher has arrived from Enterprise, for commencement.

—Miss Lura Small has arrived from Portland, and is the guest of friends.

—Miss Mary Jones returned from Eastern Oregon, Wednesday, where she has been teaching school.

—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Porter is seriously ill at the home in this city.

—Mrs. Jay Bowerman nee Lizzie Hoover left yesterday for her home at Condon, after a brief visit with former student friends.

—Mrs. Hannah McFeron of Halsey, arrived Wednesday, for an extended visit her daughter, Mrs. B. A. Cathey.

—Miss Bessie Irvine has retired from the telephone office. Her place has been filled by Miss Maybell Sheasgreen.

—Miss Ida Hubbard of Suver, came up Wednesday to officiate as nurse at the bedside of Mrs. J. L. Jones, who is very ill with typhoid fever at her home in Job's addition.

—Miss Berta Grier and Charles Lyon were married last Saturday, at Ashland. Both are former residents of Corvallis, and have the good wishes of many friends here.

—Mrs. Will McCullom, nee Miss Bertha Henkle, is expected to arrive tomorrow for a visit with her parents in this city. Her home is at Athena, Eastern Oregon.

—Richard Dunn has been appointed guardian of the three minor heirs of the late James Dunn. His bond has been fixed at $11,600 with P. Avery and John Rickard as sureties.

—Sarah A. Wilkinson has been appointed administratrix of the estate of James A. Wilkinson with bond fixed at $10,000. J. S. Ireland, William Park and Manly Currier are the appraisers.

—The Corvallis brick yard will begin operations for the season on Tuesday next, weather permitting. W. C. Corbett is in charge, and the output of brick will probably be in the neighborhood of 300,000, and of tile, 50,000.

—Those who attend the recital given by the department of instrumental music at College chapel this evening June 4th, will be well repaid for their time. This will be the last recital given by this department this year, and a program of unusual interest has been prepared. There will be an opening number by the college orchestra, followed by some splendid selections for violin and piano. These recitals are free to the public and a general invitation is hereby issued. Doors will close at 8:15 instead of 8 as heretofore announced.

—A magnificent silk flag has been placed on exhibition at the store of Nolan & Callahan, and is attracting general attention. The flag is worth $100, and is to be given away by the merchants of Corvallis. The plan is, that with each 25-cent purchase at any store that is participating in the affair, a vote is given the purchaser and he or she may write on the vote the name of the organization that he wishes to have the flag. At the end of each week the ballots are counted at the various stores, and the result announced. One may vote for OAC, the public schools, or any lodge or organization. The final count of votes takes place August 31st, and the organization that has the greatest number of ballots will be awarded the flag. Everyone should take an interest in the matter and help out the plan, so that some worthy organization may be made the proud owner of one of the handsomest flags in town.

Resolutions.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Oregon State Grange. In part they are:

Whereas, the thirty-first annual convention of the Oregon State Grange has been one of the most enjoyable and profitable in the history of the order, in the state of Oregon, therefore be it

Resolved, that the officers and delegates attending hereby express our high appreciation of our satisfaction upon the generous treatment we have received at the hands of those who have had our welfare in charge during the past week.

We are not unmindful of the many favors shown us on every side and most particularly wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the various transportation companies. Also we most earnestly thank the board of regents, officials, faculty and students of the Oregon Agricultural College, for without their aid and assistance our pleasures and enjoyments would have been greatly lessened.

To the citizens of Corvallis we also owe a share of our thankfulness for the generous spirit of hospitality during our stay here, and to them is due one of our deepest debts of gratitude. To the Oregonian and other papers of Oregon we also extend thanks for courtesies extended and we realize that the newspapers have awakened to the great importance of the grange, as an educational and social factor among our people.

Also to all others who may have been instrumental in contributing to our welfare and happiness during the session of the Oregon State Grange are tendered our most sincere expressions of gratitude, realizing as we do that our interests have been foremost in the minds of all during the past, and that they only high regard for our work in the future.

Respectfully Submitted,
EUGENE L. THORP,
A. C. DAVIS,
J. C. SCHULMEIC,
MRS. E. D. PALMER.

A POSITIVE NECESSITY.

Having to lay upon my bed for 14 days from a severely bruised leg, I only found relief when I used a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I can cheerfully recommend it as the best medicine for bruises ever sent to the afflicted. It has now become a positive necessity upon myself. D. R. HONORED LIVING HEROES.

On the Morning of Decoration Day—At Philomath College.

On the morning of Decoration day, the faculty and students of Philomath College conceived the unique idea of breaking a crusade of spikenard on the heads of our living heroes while so many would be decorating the graves and embalming the names of our loved and honored dead.

A program was hastily extemporized, posts were dispatched to the veterans of the city, Messrs Archibald, Boies, Henkle, Hummer, Jackson, Lewis, Canady, Seton, Sheak, Dexter, and Sheak, and summoned to the college campus.

The veterans were seated on chairs on the veranda of the college. A concourse of citizens thronged the campus. The battalion of cadets commanded by Lieutenant Stillwell of the second Oregon, paraded the campus and executed with skill and precision many graceful military evolutions culminating with "present arms" to the veterans. The ladies, always conspicuous in every beneficent seance, appeared upon the stage, and wreathed each veteran with garlands of roses and ivy. President Emerick then addressed the heroes paying them the highest tribute of honor. The battalion then fired a salute of three volleys. Capt Lewis, being too feeble to attend, it was decided to march to the residence of the veteran of the Mexican and civil wars and honor him in his home. Comrade Boles on his tricycle, headed the procession, followed by the veterans in command of Prof. White, then came the cadets and a mass of citizens. Captain Lewis was crowned, the salute was fired and the white-haired was moved to tears with the demonstrations of honor and the eloquent and touching address of Pres. Emerick.

The veterans, cadets and citizens marched back through the streets of the city to the college campus where Lieutenant Stillwell, the hero of Manila, was honored with a wreath, and a "hip hip hurrah, Stillwell," which closed the occasion of honoring living heroes.

We Sell Sorosis PETTICOATS

The Sorosis Petticoat

Sorosis Sights are visions of sightliness. No mere word-jingle that, but the expression of stylish-loving women every where. And its truth will impress you startlingly when you let your eyes gladden at the sight we've assembled for today.

Such style of cut—every latest effect with shapely yoke and proper flare—the straight front without a wrinkle.

Such quality of material! The rustling richness of silk itself is in this mercerized sateen.

Such frillful fancies in the trimmings, ruffles and tucks, sherrigs and plaits, render irresistible the daintiness of Sorosis.

But it's the price that makes this sale significant to the thriftiest among you.

Isn't this economy figuring? Prices $1, 1.25, 1.50, 2, 2.50 up to 5.
