—For the many kindnesses rendered by friends and neighbors during the recent illness and death of their infant daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wells wish to extend to all their heartfelt thanks.

—The seniors of OAC were excused Wednesday from further studies. The reason for the action was that the teachers felt that the members of the class need a rest before the excitement of commencement sets in.

—Walter Locke was in town on crutches Thursday. While engaged in breaking a colt, on the farm north of town, Wednesday, the animal displayed unusually activity with his heels. The bone in Mr. Locke's ankle is thought to be crached.

—The restaurant on South Main street has a new partner in the business. Miss Louise Oleman has disposed of her half interest to Mr. Beck from Portland. The deal was made by White & Stone. The other partner is Jim Sing.

—The caps and gowns to be used by the senior girls at commencement have arrived and are being inspected by the prospective wearers. The gentlemen of the class of '04, are not to wear the gowns and caps this year.

—Eugene R. Skipworth, a former resident of this city, died Sunday at Eugene of consumption at the age of 47. He practiced law in Independence, Corvallis and Eugene. He ran for state senator in 1892, against Dr. Driver, being defeated. He was a member of the A. O. U. W.

—Miss Edith Alderson, who was a teacher two years ago in the Corvallis public school, and who was re-elected to the position last year but resigned to accept a position at Baker City, has just been re-elected to fill the same position in the school at that place. She fills the second grade, and is a very popular teacher.

—Miss Isabel Wright and Miss Georgia Herbert returned a few days ago from Capitola, California, where they were sent as delegates from OAC to the Pacific Coast conference of the Young Womens Christian Association. They report the meetings as having been very successful as well as enjoyable.

—Mrs. Fred Hall, who left Corvallis last Sunday night for Stockton, California, arrived at her destination safely and she is much pleased with the country. In a letter to her parents in this city, she states that the weather at Stockton is very similar to that of Corvallis and vicinity when she left here, the days neither too warm nor too cold with cool, pleasant evenings.

—Jay Turley, an OAC freshman of 1895, has the honor of submitting the most feasible plans yet suggested for irrigation and reclamation of a large portion of Arizona. The Santa Fe New Mexican recently published a paper prepared by Mr. Turley for the New Mexico Irrigation commission, which report occupies a large part of three pages. Recent developments have divulged the fact that of all the reports submitted by civil engineers from all parts of the United States, Mr. Turley's is most likely to be adopted.

THE ADVENTISTS.

SOME OF THE FEATURES OF THE CAMPMEETING NOW IN PROGRESS IN CORVALLIS.

Many Good Speakers Present, and Many Interesting Addresses Given—The Affair Highly Successful.

People are daily arriving at the Seventh Day Adventist camp ground in Job's addition. Fully three hundred people are now encamped in the little Cotton city, and the time each day from 5:30 o'clock a. m. to nine o'clock at night is taken up in praise and devotional meetings, sessions of the Conference, preaching and revival services. The preaching services have been full of interest, as prominent ministers set forth the distinctive points of doctrine which have made the Seventh Day Advents church a separate body from other religious sects.

On Monday night W. A. Spicer, of Washington, D. C., in a stirring address, pictured the realities of the great Armageddon. Showing the interest of many public men in the pending crisis. The theme on Tuesday evening in the sermon by W. B. White, President of the Pacific Union Conference, was the "Eastern Question," the speaker clearly showing by his exegesis of the eleventh and twelfth chapters of the Book of Daniel that when the great world Powers withdraw support from the Turkish Empire, and the "sick man of the east" is forced to retire from European soil to the Sultan's possessions in Asia, the last great event but one before earth's history closes will be past; and the next thing to look for is the clash of arms in the battle of Armageddon.

The "Signs of the Times" was dwelt upon in a forceful manner by W. J. Burden on Wednesday evening.

These themes of thrilling interest will be discoursed upon each evening during the campmeeting. A subject of special interest "Last-day Tokens," is announced for Saturday evening. Elder J. N. Loughborough, the first minister ever ordained to the Seventh Day Advents ministry, will deliver this discourse. The charts used in connection with this subject will make the sermon of more than ordinary interest.

The interest has increased from the beginning of the campmeeting, both among the campers and with the people attending from the town. Resulting from the revival efforts each day many persons old and young, have been converted and songs of praise and victory are heard.

The business sessions of the Conference have been characterized by unanimity of sentiment among the delegates, and not a word of discord has been heard in the discussion of the many items of business which have come before the body.

The officers elected for the Western Oregon Conference are as follows: President, F. M. Burg, Portland, Oregon; Secretary and Treasurer, W. C. Raley, Portland, Oregon; Missionary and Field Educational Secretary, G. W. Pettit, Montavilla, Oregon; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Edith Starbuck, Mt. Tabor, Oregon; Executive Committee, F. M. Burg, W. R. Simmons, D. W. Emmerson, J. E. Graham, G. W. Pettit and H. J. Dirksen.

At the session of the Conference held at nine o'clock, Thursday, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved that we extend a vote of thanks to the S. P. R. R., the C. & E. R. R. and the O. R. & N. T. Co. for favors extended to our Conference in the reduction of fare to the campmeeting, and also a like expression to Mr. Wilkins for the free use of the grounds upon which our camp is located; and to the city and citizens of Corvallis for courtesies extended to us while among them.

The campmeeting will continue till Sunday evening, June 5th.

LIVER TROUBLES

"I find Thedford's Black-Draught a good medicine for liver disease. It cured my son after he had spent $100 with doctors. It is all the medicine I take."—MRS. CAROLINE MARTIN, Parkersburg, W. Va.

If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Thedford's Black-Draught and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine frees the constipated bowels, stirs up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.

Thedford's Black-Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Thedford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.

"I used Thedford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney complaints and found nothing to excel it."—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Marblehead, Ill.
