WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

In spite of the ante-convention predictions that Mr. Bryan would bolt the nominees of the St. Louis convention, he announces that he will support them heartily, and gives his reasons for it.

Mr. Bryan's support of the St. Louis nominees will add much impetus to their candidacy. It is a return of the support Judge Parker gave Mr. Bryan in 1896 and in 1900.

Kruger, ex-champion long distance footracer of Germany and Holland writes, October 27, 1901: "During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism."

MUST CONNECT.

With Sewers if Proposed Legislation is Adopted by City Council.

A movement is on foot for all property owners in blocks served with laterals to make complete and proper sewer connections. With this purpose in view, an ordinance will be reported for consideration at the next meeting of the city council.

"We have examined such water closets, etc, and find a deplorable condition of affairs along this line in the city. In many blocks adjacent to sewers there are no sewer connections whatever and in some places only one or two connections along an entire sewer.

W. R. HANSELL, W. G. EMERY, TAYLOR PORTER.

The report of the committee was adopted, and the city attorney was instructed to prepare an ordinance carrying out the recommendations of the committee. In the discussion of the report, it developed that a large number of the councilmen are in favor of requiring universal connections with the sewers in property served by laterals and water.

Change of Creed.

Evangelical church circles of the city, are stirred, says the Portland Journal, over the resignation of Rev. L. M. Boozer, pastor of the First United Evangelical church of this city, from the Evangelical denomination. Mr. Boozer will join the Presbyterian church.

A prominent member of Mr. Boozer's former church said this morning:

"Mr. Boozer resigned his pastorate in April at the annual session of conference, but he wished to keep the matter very quiet and, in fact he wished to withdraw without the consent of his congregation.

"He is now in Union, Oregon, occupying the pulpit of a Presbyterian church, while the regular pastor is absent.

"Mr. Boozer was a very bright, ambitious young man. We have not yet found anyone to fill his place.

"I don't know what he intends to do, but I hardly think his plans are to stay in this city. I do not know when he will return."

Mr. Boozer was called from Chicago to accept the pastorate of the First church.
