New fall styles of Hart Shaffner and Marx clothing at Kline's

Remember the flag contest will close Aug 31st.

A visitor this week at the home of Marshall Miller is Frank Miller. of Rickreall, Polk county

Ed Collins, of Columbia county, and his little son were visitors last week of Corvallis friends.

S. L. Kline, who is at present in San Francisco, has purchased a new cash carrier to take the place of the one which has done service in his store for the past fourteen years.

'Doc' Jackson and family left Monday for a three weeks' outing at the bay. They were accompanied by Miss Ida Locke.

Among the business visitors in Corvallis Monday was B. Bady, of near Albany. He was looking for hop pickers for his yard in that vicinity.

Work is being rushed in tearing down the three old buildings on Main street to make room for the Henderson brick. The lumber taken out has been purchased by M. C. Miller, and will be re-built into a large barn on property belonging to Mr. Miller, in Job's Addition.

Everyone who comes will have a good time. All are invited. The place is the reading room parlor, the hour three o'clock, and the day Thursday. It is the regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U., and features of special interest have been prepared.

The ordinary estimate of threshing machine men is that the fall sown wheat this season is only about 10 per cent. of the usual yield. On many farms the yield at threshing time exceeded expectations of the owners.

The contract has been awarded Charles Heckert for important improvements to be made to the dwelling of Mrs. Ann Smith two miles south of town. New foundation, new roof, a large porch and new windows throughout are features of the plans. Work is to begin in a day or two Report has it that the contract has been awarded for important improvements to be made to the buildings occupied by Hustons hardware store and the Graham & Wells drug store, and owned by M. S. Woodcock. The plans contemplate new floors, raised ceilings and modern fronts for each building.

His friends who are not informed have been wondering for the past three days what has happened to George Lilly. His countenance wears a perpetual grin, and if he were a candidate for office he could not grasp more cordially the hand of everyone who passes the time of day with him. It is a son, born Sunday.

A runaway team was a sight on Main street early yesterday morning. The horses started at the Wheeler wagon shop, ran down Main street and on north to the Walter Taylor residence, where they were stopped by Mr. Taylor. The outfit belonged to Ed Smith, deliveryman for J. R. Smith and company. No damage was done.

Chittim is five cents in Alsea and five and a quarter in Corvallis. Forty tons of the Alsea bark has been sold at prevailing prices. The total product of the Valley this year will be in the neighborhood of 250 tons, or about 20 car loads, and the statement is that a large portion of it will be sold. An equal amount of the bark will not be peeled this year, awaiting a future season and a better figure.

News from him is to the effect that Bey Rickard, who recently underwent a surgical operation in the Good Samaritan hospital of Portland, is not doing as well as had been hoped for. Just what the reason is for his slow recovery is not stated, although it is probably due to the fact that Mr. Rickard suffers much from stomach trouble, for which an operation may yet be necessary.

Recent real estate transfers on record at the recorder's office are: Scott King and wife to Richard Wilde two acres land store at Wren, $700. The purchaser is a recent arrival from the east. Martha F. Smith and husband to James M. Lambley, house and lot in Corvallis, $1,600. Miss Clara Fisher to S. L. Henderson, wall right, $300. J. R. Wyatt to C. S. Cooper and wife, 100 acres in Kings Valley, $500.

An easterner arrived in Corvallis Monday from Iowa. He was Mr. Jones, a brother of J. W. Jones of Inavale, Benton county. The new arrival will be followed in a few days by Mr. Hullroy, who is another Iowa man, and who is en route to Corvallis with the car load of household goods and live stock that belongs to the two gentlemen named. Mrs. Hullroy has been with Corvallis friends for some months. The families will make their homes in Benton.

Work is being pushed on the new independent telephone line that runs to Monroe. Two instruments had been placed in position up to Saturday, and conversations were carried on between there and town. The phones are on in the Casper Zierolf and the Julian McFadden homes. Three rural lines, one to Mt. View, one to Monroe and the other to Philomath, are now connected with the new switchboard and are in perfect working order.

RHEUMATISM.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop. Sullivan House E. Reno, O. T., writes, June 6, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief. 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Graham & Wortham."

For Sale.

Two registered Oxford Down rams and four halfbreds. Peter Whitaker.

For Sale.

Work Wanted.

I desire to do plain sewing, nursing, sweeping and cleaning. Apply at residence on Ninth street near Gardner's gallery. Phone 714. Mrs. George Dickey.

HERBINE.

Restores the bile more fluid and thus helps the blood to flow; it affords prompt relief from biliousness, indigestion, sick and nervous headaches, and the over-indulgence in food and drink. Herbine acts quickly, a dose after meals will bring the patient into a good condition after a few days. G. L. Caldwell, Agt. M. K. and T. R. R., Checotah, Ind. Ter., writes April 18, 1903: "I was sick with enlargement of the liver and spleen. The doctors did me no good and I had given up all hope of being cured, when my druggist advised me to use Herbine. It has made me sound and well." 50c. Sold by Graham & Wortham.

For Sale Cheap.

Two pianos, in perfect tune and good condition, at Blackledge's.

For Sale.

Fresh vetch and cheat seed at my place five miles north of Corvallis. T. A. Logsdon.

Chittim Peelers.

Pool your bark; advertise it to be sold at a certain date with the privilege of rejecting all bids. This will enable buyers to buy at less expense. The money they would have to pay their agents can be paid you, and you will yet realize your 20 cents per pound. Chittim will soon be gone and there is nothing to take its place. Nothing as cheap as Cascara at 25 cents per pound. Don't be afraid to pool with one who knows.

Removal Notice.

On account of building brick, at old stand, Turner's grocery has moved one door north of Hollenberg & Cady's second hand store opposite Farmer's hotel. Store open every evening until 9 a. m.

For Sale.

Team of horses 6 and 7 years old. Price $125. S. H. Moore

Those Inquisitive Youngsters, "Papa, you took the scientific course in college, didn't you?" "Yes, dear; I spent two years on science."

"When you look in a mirror the left side of your face appears to be the right side, and the right side seems to be the left. The looking glass reverses it, doesn't it?"

Beet Salad, or Chopped Beets. Cold boiled or baked beets, chopped quite fine but not minced, make a nice salad when served with a dressing of lemon-juice and whipped cream in the proportion of three table-spoonsful of lemon-juice to one-half cup of whipped cream, and salt if desired.—Good House-keeping.
