Official Paper of Benton County.

CORVALLIS, OREGON, NOV 26, 1904.

C. G. HINDS OF CALIFORNIA.

Noted Poultry Judge—Is to Score at Coming Corvallis Poultry Show.

The accompanying picture is that of C. G. Hinds of Alameda county, California, whom the committee has secured to judge at the poultry show to be held in Corvallis in the near future. Concerning the show, he writes the local secretary, under date of November 20th:

Gene M. Simpson,
Corvallis, Oregon.
Dear Sir:—

Yours of the 17th at hand and has my attention. The Premium Lists were also received this a. m. and I must certainly congratulate you on the issue. It is as neat as one usually sees from the largest shows. You surely have a band of hustlers and if the show isn't the banner one of Oregon it will not be your fault.

Fraternally yours,
C. G. Hinds.

A Rare Treat.

The Ladies of the 1st. M. E. Church have secured the Adams Sisters for one of their unique entertainments which will be given at the Church Tuesday evening November 29th.

The Little Ladies come very highly recommended by both press and pulpit and the fact that they are only 46 and 47 inches tall adds very much to their attraction. Don't forget the date "Tuesday, November 29th."

Admission 25 cents. Tickets at Graham & Wells Drug Store.

IS MUCH IMPROVED

And Probably at Her Home at Clem—Miss Carrie Danneman.

It is expected that, by this time, Miss Carrie Danneman, injured some time ago in an accident near Condon, has been moved to her own home at Clem. A late letter from Miss Lulu Spangler related that Miss Danneman was playing the piano while the former wrote, and that it was expected that she would be able to make the trip home in a few days. In the accident Miss Danneman was thrown backward against a telephone pole in such a manner that her back doubled around the pole. That she escaped instant death is regarded by those familiar with the facts as almost miraculous.

Contrary to first reports the horse did not run away. He was struck a sudden blow with the whip and the increase of speed made Miss Danneman's companion think he was about to run away. She reached for the reins and got hold of but one. This one she pulled violently, the horse turned swiftly from the road, and both ladies were thrown out.

THINGS THEY SAID.

Grangers Talked About the Willamette Valley.

Many a nice thing was said about the Willamette Valley and Oregon by the National Grangers, as they stood in a group at the west end of Madison street Tuesday, waiting for the arrival of the train that was to carry them down the East-side. "The pretty green fields and the charming scenery we have seen today have been a source of great surprise and pleasure to us," said a Wisconsin lady. "Your valley is by long odds the finest stretch of country we have seen on the trip," said a tall Kentuckian. "We have heard much about Oregon and its beauty, but were unprepared for what we have seen in the Willamette Valley," said a man from West Virginia. "We had a most delightful lunch and a most pleasurable time at your college, and our visit here will be one of the delightful incidents that we shall have to tell about on our return home," said a lady from Illinois.

The excursion party numbered 243. Regents O'Neil, Apperson, Leedy and Weatherford accompanied the party on the trip.

CURED CONSUMPTION.

Mrs. W. B. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago. Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Graham & Wortham.

THEY WERE WED.

Thanksgiving Marriage at Well Known Country Home—Miss Newton.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Newton, four miles west of Corvallis, at 10 o'clock a. m. on Thanksgiving day, occurred the wedding of Miss Janie Newton of this county, to Mr. Robert Brown of Oakesdale, Washington.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. H. Feese of the M. E. church of this city, in the presence of a few invited friends and relatives.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the dining room, where a bountiful dinner awaited them. The decorations were pink and white chrysanthemums in the parlor and dining room.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk trimmed with lace chiffon.

Miss Newton is a member of the graduating class of '97 of O. A. C. and is a highly esteemed young lady of Benton county. Mr. Brown is a wealthy farmer of Eastern Washington. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Etta Smith.

Those present were, Mr and Mrs G. G. Newton, Mr and Mrs Cooper, Mr and Mrs E. J. Newton, Mr and Mrs N. P. Newton, Mrs Cynthia Johnson, Mrs Janet Smith, Misses Alva Newton, Etta Smith, Cora Newton, Robena Smith, Belle Millican, Thia Johnson, Ella Johnson, Charles Wood, James Wheeler, Milton Wyatt.

Mr and Mrs Brown left on the afternoon train, for their home at Oakesdale, Wash.
