Union Evangelistic Services.

Continuing the Union evangelistic services now being conducted by Rev. Ray Palmer D. D. in the Baptist church, Rev. W. J. Harsha D. D. of Denver, Colo. under the auspices of the Presbyterian general assembly committee on evangelistic work will be here next Wednesday Feb. 1, to conduct a two weeks series of union meetings in the Presbyterian church. Rev. D. S. Palmer and Harsha come from a very successful series of meetings at Albany. Dr. Palmer is well known to the people of Oregon and will be most welcome to Corvallis. Rev. Dr. Harsha is a man of national reputation. This fall he had the honor of holding a series of services in Rev. Dr. N. D. Hill's church, of Brooklyn N. Y. This is the first series of services held in that church since the death of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher D. D. Later at a series of meetings under his charge in Fort Worth, Texas over 500 decided for Christ. He is a strong preacher of quiet spiritual mind, and not sensational. To know Rev. Dr. Harsha is to love him, and we speak for him an earnest hearing and a hearty welcome.

Mahara's Minstrels.

One of the big novelties in Minstrelsy this season and a leading feature with Mahara's Minstrels is the appearance in the first part of twelve handsomely costumed lady vocalists. This double sextette of ladies are graduates of the famous Dunavin Musical College, where all high grade colored musicians are educated. It is an acknowledgment that the singing features of this organization compares favorably with the finest operatic companies in existence and surpass in excellence of harmony all so-called Minstrel vocalists. It has always been the endeavor of Mahara Brothers to excel in singing features and these ladies aided by twenty male voices in grand chorus certainly prove that the management has struck the key note which pleases and also invigorates the life of minstrelsy.

CUT IT OUT.

That's What Will Happen to Bellfountain Postoffice—Other Local Postal Matters.

Postmaster Johnson of this city, is in receipt of information from the department to the effect that the postoffice at Bellfountain is to be discontinued on and after February 15th. This action will come as a surprise to all not thoroughly acquainted with the methods of the department, as it is known that the office for many years has served a large number of patrons.

The discontinuance of the office was brought about by the inauguration of a rural delivery route from Monroe into the territory served by the Bellfountain office. The department holds the view that a community can better be served by a rural service than by a postoffice in the vicinity. If residents will place boxes along the delivery route, they are in no instance required to go for their mail a greater distance than formerly.

The establishment of the rural route from Monroe and the discontinuance of the Bellfountain office necessitates a change also in the star route from Corvallis to Bellfountain via Inavale. That portion of the route from Inavale to Bellfountain is to be abandoned and a new contract let for carrying the mail between Corvallis and Inavale. The necessary notice calling for bids on the short route has been posted in the postoffice at Corvallis and interested parties can obtain particulars from such notice. A bond of $1,200 is required to be given. The schedule provides for a daily service, and that the mail shall leave Inavale at 8:45 a. m. and arrive at Corvallis at 11:45. It is to leave Corvallis at 12:45 and arrive at Inavale at 3:45.

TIME TO DIG UP.

Tax-Collecting Begins Next Monday — Segregation of Taxes for 1904.

Tax-collecting time has come again and property owners will soon begin to make their annual deposits for the purpose of keeping the wheels of government in motion. Thursday extension of the Benton county tax roll was completed by County Clerk Moses. During five consecutive years in the past, the Benton county clerk has been the first in the state to complete his work, and turn over to the sheriff the tax roll. Clerk Watters accomplished this in each of the last three years of his term in office. Clerk Moses did the same in two past, and this year he has been equally prompt. On Monday morning next Sheriff Burnett will be ready to receive taxes for the year 1904. If property-owners pay the entire amount of their taxes before March 15th, a rebate of three per cent is allowed, but they can pay one half before April 4th and one-half October 2nd. If at least one half is not paid before April 4th there will be ten per cent penalty and twelve per cent interest added.

The levy for county, state and state school is 13.2 mill, and for county road fund 2 mills. In addition Corvallis will pay a seven mill tax including road and a two mill tax for school district No. 9, making a total tax on Corvallis property of 22.2 mills. Philomath will pay county, etc, 13.2 mills, city 7 mills, including road, school district No 17, 4 mills, total, 24.2 mills. Monroe will pay county, state and road, 15.2 mills, special school, 1.5, and special road district 6, making a total of 22.7 mills on the dollar. It is not convenient to give levies for special purposes in other school and road districts, but the following table is a showing of the amounts to be raised from the special levies in the various road and school districts as well as from the regular levy:
