AFTER THE CZAR

DYNAMITE FOUND HIDDEN IN THE PALACE.

Police Were in the Plot—Twelve Members Are placed in Dungeon—Imperial Court in Panic on Learning That Terrorists Have Corrupted Police.

St. Petersburg, April 6.—At last the terrorists have succeeded in penetrating the cordon of guards about the czar, and in smuggling high explosives into the palace itself, and as a result there is a feeling of apprehension among all of the high officials and the guards about his majesty have been troubled.

Late yesterday afternoon, as the guard at the palace was being changed, Lieutenant-Colonel Shirapinski, who was in command, noticed that one of the Cossacks who had been posted at the main door was wearing the sword of an infantry officer, and not the sabre of a Cossack. He thereupon called a corporal and placed the man under arrest. He was at once searched and incriminating documents were found on his person.

Search of the police revealed two packages of dynamite, placed against the main door of the imperial suite, in a dark corner, where they were not likely to be noticed. A searching inquiry was at once instituted, with the result that twelve secret police agents were arrested as accomplices, and all were hurried to the Peter and Paul fortress, where they were interviewed by General Trepoff.

The fact that the terrorists have succeeded in corrupting members of the secret police and soldiers has caused much alarm, and another attempt against a high official is looked for.

Warsaw, April 6.—In anticipation of the funeral of a girl who died of wounds received in the fighting on Sunday, the workmen of all the factories in the northern part of the city left their work yesterday afternoon and crowded the streets. The police fearing a hostile demonstration, forbade the funeral and summoned Cossacks, who, using their knouts and swords freely, finally succeeded in dispersing the gathering.

Owing to the closing of the university of Warsaw, 1600 students were dismissed yesterday. All students whose conscription were postponed during their university year will be compelled to serve now.

A nonstriking woman at the gas works, whom the strikers had condemned to death, was shot and seriously wounded yesterday by a woman who escaped.

The police and military made a further house-to-house visit in the suburbs of Wola Tuesday night, where they arrested 14 prisoners and discovered great quantities of revolutionary proclamations.

Vienna, April 6.—A dispatch from Vilna states that all the able-bodied men in the district having been sent to war by the czar, the women and children invaded the imperial forest and began to cut the dead timber, arguing that, as their protectors were away in the service of the emperor, there would be no harm in securing fuel to warm themselves from the deadfalls in the woods. The foresters drove them away and beat a number of them cruelly.

The next day the women, armed with clubs and axes, returned and attacked the foresters. They burned the house of the chief forester and so badly injured him and three of his assistants that all are expected to die.

St. Petersburg, April 6.—Official advices report continued disorders in the Caucasus. Within the past week peasants have looted and burned public offices in many villages in the Gore district, sacked schools and private estates, cutting down trees and threatening to kill the police if they interfered, and forced priests to go with them and take an oath of solidarity with their cause. Similar but less serious disorders are reported to have taken place in the Tiflis district. At Kishinev Wednesday night an unsuccessful attempt was made to assassinate Police Commissioner Kirrighil.

St. Petersburg, April 25.—General Linievitch has forwarded to War Minister Sackharoff the report of General Gouchkoff of the Red Cross service, who has arrived at Russian headquarters with the medical staff left in care of the wounded at Mukden. General Gouchkoff reports that the wounded who remained behind at Mukden included General Gannefeld, 37 officers and 1645 men, most of whom were brought in from the field after the evacuation of the city.

Twenty Russian Sisters of Mercy, 30 doctors and 150 men of the medical corps have been sent by the Japanese to Chefoo, whence they will be shipped to Russia. General Gouchkoff pays tribute to the Japanese treatment of the Russian wounded, Sisters of Mercy and doctors.

Denver, April 4.—A democratic landslide struck Colorado, where municipal elections were held today in all cities and towns excepting Denver. In Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Leadville, normally republican, the democratic tickets were successful, in the latter case for the first time in 20 years.

John T. West, democrat, was elected Mayor of Pueblo by at least 300 majority. The rest of the democratic ticket was victorious by large majorities.

At Leadville the republicans elected only two aldermen, less than a majority, the balance of the offices going to the democrats.

St. Louis, April 4.—At 2:15 A. M., 312 precincts out of a total of 495 gave Mayor Wells, dem., a plurality of 1565.

HOPE IN HER BOATS

RUSSIA EXPECTS ROJESTVENSKY TO TURN MIDE WITH HIS FLEET.

No Thought of Ending War—McCormick Says Naval Victory Is Expected—Linievitch Said to Be in Straits.

St. Petersburg, April 5.—General Linievitch's has altered for the worse. The general staff fears that the Japanese will be in Harbin within a month.

New York, April 4.—Robert S. McCormick, newly appointed American ambassador to France, just arrived in Paris from St. Petersburg, says he is surprised at the reports that there was a desire to conclude peace at any price manifested in official circles, cables the Paris correspondent of the Herald. According to Ambassador McCormick no such desire exists in St. Petersburg.

"On the contrary, in official circles, there is," he said, "a general desire to continue the war to the bitter end, and there are great hopes that Admiral Rojestvensky will meet the Japanese fleet and gain a victory which may, in one day, change the entire aspect of the war. All the hopes of Russia are now centered in that fleet, and its encounter with the Japanese squadron is looked forward to with confidence."

"Reports of an intervention in the matter are without the slightest foundation."

Warsaw, April 5.—A strong body of Police, aided by two companies of infantry, Wednesday night made a thorough search of Wola, a suburb of this city, chiefly inhabited by criminals, revolutionaries and suspected persons. The police seized quantities of revolutionary pamphlets and manifestos and revolvers and cartridges and arrested 63 persons. The search occupied the whole of the night.

Mussoree, India, April 4.—Several earthquake shocks were experienced here today, commencing at 6:10 A. M. The first was the most severe and continued for three minutes. Eleven shocks were distinctly felt.

Considerable damage was done to property. The left wing of the Savoy Hotel entirely collapsed, the new Catholic church was wrecked, and every house in the place was more or less damaged. Several homes were hurriedly vacated. There were many small landslides. The mall cracked in five places.

Several casualties are reported. One woman was killed and many natives were seriously injured.

Reports from the Debra Dun and Rajbur districts show that extensive damage has been done.

Lahore, April 4.—Shortly after 6 this morning a succession of severe earthquake shocks were felt here. The damage was extensive. It is feared that there was much loss of life in the city, where many tall old houses in the city collapsed and parts of lofty buildings crashed on small adjacent dwellings.

The towers of the Gold Mosque are reported to have fallen and Wazir Khan's Mosque was badly cracked.

London, April 4.—A dispatch to a news agency from Lahore, British India, says: A violent earthquake has occurred here, accompanied by serious loss of life and great damage to public and other buildings. The town hall is almost razed, and the cathedral and Juma Masjid, one of the finest mosques in India, are seriously injured. Other big buildings are cracked and fissured. Many houses in the native quarter collapsed.

San Francisco, April 6.—The headless, legless trunk of a young man was found late last night on Vallejo street, near Powell. It was still warm and the flesh was quivering when picked up. The body was wrapped in an old blanket, tied up with fisherman's twine. A man was seen to throw the bundle away by a passerby, who pursued him, but failed to overtake him. So far there is no clue to the identity of the murdered man or his murderer.

ty of the murdered man or his murderer.

Chicago, April 4.—A political tornado today overwhelmed one of the most ruggedly unique leaders in the country. Incidentally, the republican party met defeat in a memorable effort to capture the mayoralty of Chicago. As a direct result, the city is officially committed to the policy of the quickest possible cessation of private franchises for public utilities. Municipal ownership is especially threatening street-car lines valued high up in the millions.

After winning successively four remarkable biennial fights of independents against the republican organization here, John Maynard Harlan, son of Associate Justice Harlan, of the supreme court of the United States, was a loser for republican candidate for mayor. The defeat is attributed to an extraordinary whirl of causes, starting with political revenge and taking in a wide sweep, embracing the most up-to-date socialism as a factor. The victor is Judge Edward F. Danne, democrat.

Seldom, if ever, has Chicago witnessed a more lively picturesque contest. Today the city was hideous with the ringing of cowbells and the roar of cannon crackers.

The republican candidate suffered heavily from campaign attacks charging that he was a political assassin. Alleged unworthy leaders of his own party who had been thrust from office and power largely through Harlan's aggressiveness in previous campaigns were conspicuously absent from his support. Districts where republican majorities had seemed constant and time-honored as the seasons were ominously reported today as "slow."

Appeals to fear of domination by corporate wealth appeared to sway many voters, and perhaps more than any other influence were incorrectly gauged by the republicans. Harlan has been savagely harassed during the campaign as the reputed representative of Wall-street interests intent on fastening burdensome franchise grants upon the city. The republicans, however, had figured that the voters susceptible to appeals of this kind would support the socialist candidate, Collins, and that losses, if any, to the republicans would be more than made up by Harlan's old-time admirers among independent voters. Estimates however, of 50,000 votes as the total for Collins (socialist) fell woefully short.

Calculations upon colored voters were another source of error in republican expectations. An unmistakable defection, suddenly manifested to day in districts where Afro-Americans are numerous, gave a severe jolt to republican campaign managers. The most plausible explanation was that Judge Danne from the bench in years had shown an unexampled spirit of fairness toward colored men and women in exigencies where freedom from race prejudice, was sorely needed.

One of the amusing features that tonight is recalled as tending to center good natured feeling in Judge Danne's behalf is his record as a father. He is the happy parent of thirteen children. This phase of the campaign was snared by "Pap" Anson, who has an almost equally meritorious record in family matters. Anson, the old-time hero of baseball, was the democratic candidate for city clerk. His popularity personally was beyond a doubt a potent help to the democrats, who seem to hug-ly appreciate his campaign statistics, designed to prove that the democrats, at least in Chicago, are the original and genuine opponents to race suicide.

The plurality for Danne, dem., was 24,248 votes over Harlan. In the city election two years ago Harrison, dem.; defeated Stewart, rep., by 7760 plurality.
