NEWS OF CORVALLIS AND VICINITY TOLD IN BRIEF.

The Comings and Goings of People Social Gossip, Personal Mention and Other Items of Public Interest.

—Frank Hurt is down from Seattle for a week's visit.

—George A. Houck was in town Thursday to sell his mohair comprising about 1,200 pounds.

—W. R. Hansell has purchased a gasoline engine and is to engage again in the woodsaw business.

—Miss Emma Crawford returned Wednesday from a visit with Albany friends.

—A large awning was placed above F. L. Miller's store doorway Thursday afternoon.

—After a week's visit with her daughters, Mrs. M. Mason and Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. S. A. Kisor returned to her home at Philomath Thursday.

—Miss Elston was to arrive yesterday from Petroleum, Indiana, for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. M. Elston Lee.

—The statement of Henry Stone is that prune orchards across the Willamette have not been at all injured by the cold rains and that a full crop is assured.

—The regular services will be held at the M. E. Church, South, by the Pastor, tomorrow morning and evening. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. All cordially invited.

—Mrs. Ed Andrews, who is taking treatment in Portland is reported to be steadily improving. News which will be pleasing to her many friends in Corvallis.

—Ira Bodine, accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. Martha Bodine, went to Portland Thursday. Mrs. Bodine is enroute to her home in New York, and Mr. Bodine may go on to Washington on business before his return.

—F. O. Gray expects to have his new house in the Irwin block ready for occupancy by the 15th inst. Wood pulp plastering is used on the inside, and there has been delay on this account, because a supply of the plaster was not available at once, due to the extreme demand for it in Portland and elsewhere.

—"The Easter King" is the title of a cantata that is in preparation by the Presbyterian choir for presentation the evening of Easter Sunday. Among the singers to take part are, Prof. Fulton, Mr. Herse, Miss Spangler, Mrs. Lake, Mrs. Miller, Miss Holgate, Miss Williams, B. W. Johnson, Mr. Bouquet, Mr. Bauer, Mr. Pruett and others, making fourteen voices in all.

—A bitter assault on football recently appeared in one of the magazines and President Gatch, after having the article read in chapel offered a reward of $5 for the best answer to it, written by a student of the college. A number of articles were handed in, and Wednesday, the judges awarded the prize to Hallie Wilkins.

—Preparation of the site for the new livery stable to be built on Main street has begun. The contract for construction is to be awarded today. The plans provide for a structure 75 by 100 feet, and equipped with every convenience. About 30 to 35 days will be required to complete it. It will stand on lots east across the street from the Farmers Hotel.

—A spark from the kitchen stove lighted a blaze in the roof of the Hemphill house Thursday forenoon. The fire was between the roof and ceiling, but was discovered before it had gained much headway. The fireman responded promptly to the alarm, but a bucket of water had extinguished the flames before they reached the scene.

—There has been a general fear at college that this year's track team would be marred by lack of weight men. Dow Walker sent these gloomy anticipations glimmering the other day by tossing the sixteen pound hammer 112 feet, tying the college record, held by Grant Elgin. So great a distance so early in the season, and after only a little practice in an event in which he is only a novice makes it sure that Walker has it in him to be great in the hammer throw. Prof. Trine thinks Walker's possibilities with the hammer are almost limitless. Another new weight man, though an old student, is Stout, who puts the shot at 36 and the discus 106.

—M. M. Davis left Wednesday for a brief visit at Eugene.

—Homer Lilly arrived yesterday from a business trip of several days at Salem.

—Miss Mae Pollock, elocutionist of Dallas college, is to give a recital in the Methodist church this evening.

—Mrs. Sarah Elgin and family occupy the Trask house near the Christian church.

—William Steusloff, a leading butcher of Salem, purchased beef cattle in this vicinity early in the week.

—Mrs. Carter Allingham, of Halsey, was called to the bedside, Thursday, of Mrs. McMan, who is quite seriously ill.

—Mrs. Dier, of Ontario, after a short visit with her daughter, Miss Susie, who is attending college, returned to her home last Monday.

—Karl Steiwer attended the funeral at Jefferson Thursday, of his grandmother, Mrs. Susan Steiwer, who died at her home in Salem Tuesday.

—O. De Haven and family have removed to a farm six miles across the Willamette in Linn county. The removal occurred Monday.

—Mr. Marietta and family, recently arrived from Iowa, have taken rooms for the present at the Fowells home.

—Presbyterian church, Rev. M. S. Bush. Bible school 10 a. m., worship 11 a. m., subject, "Half Sight." C. E. meeting 6:30; evening services 7:30, subject, "The Delayed Confession."

—The prune crop in the big orchard is not injured, and there is prospect of a great crop. This is the announcement made by Manager Johnson, after the examination of the orchard Thursday afternoon. It tallies with the statements of other orchardists of the vicinity.

—The preparations for the cantata which is to be given for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. Building Fund are progressing very satisfactorily. The first rehearsal was attended by 37 persons. The next rehearsal will take place next Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the college chapel.

—The sale of the Sheasgreen interests in the Central Planing mill has miscarried. Mr. Harlan, the purchaser, after the contract had been fully made and $150 had been paid fully thereon, changed his mind, and with the consent of Mr. Sheasgreen withdrew from the deal. Of the sum paid on the purchase price, $100 was returned by Mr. Sheasgreen to Mr. Harlan.

—But W. Johnson, president of the Citizens League, requests the Times to announce that the League is to be made a working factor in the affairs of Corvallis. An adjourned business meeting is to take place in City Hall next Tuesday evening. Every business man in town is expected to be present to personally observe the plans and purposes that the revived League will present.

—The O. A. C. Camera Club was organized last Tuesday evening with Sherman Brown, of Klamath Falls, as president and H. A. Sikes of Athena, as secretary. The purpose of the organization is to study nature with the camera. Among the members are several professors. The place of meeting for the present is at Agricultural Hall.

—A big time was in prospect out on College Hill when the Times went to press last evening. At seven o'clock a debate, the third in the series for the Gatch cup was announced for college chapel. At 8:30 was to begin in college Armory, a band concert, a wrestling and boxing bout, and championship game of baseball—the whole bill for an admission fee of 25 cents. The prospect was that every body was going to see, first the debate and then the big athletic bill at the armory.
