—Mrs. Hattie Williams and Mrs. W. W. Smith of Peak county were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Swann.

—Mrs. Helen E. Borst is spending a few days at her home in Centralia, Wash. She expects to return to Corvallis Wednesday.

—A merry party of ten made the ascent of Cardwell Hill Sunday. A splendid time, was the general verdict.

—The delegates returned Thursday from the Congregational association, held at Hubbard. Rev. Green was elected registrar and treasurer.

—J. H. Price, who for over a year has been employed as salesman in the R. M. Wade hardware store, has accepted a position at Fischer's mill, in the office, and began work Monday.

—There will be preaching at the church near the new Vincent house in Job's addition Saturday evening and Sunday morning and evening May 6 and 7th. W. L. Skeels of Washington county will conduct the services.

—C. Custer of Philomath set a gopher trap for the protection of his potato patch, last Thursday. Forgetting to put on the bait, Mr. Custer went to the spot later in the day and attempted to bait the gun while it was set. Two shattered fingers on the right hand tell the rest of the tale. The fore-finger may have to be amputated.

—The will of the late Mrs. Rhoda Taylor has been filed for probate at the clerk's office. It names as heirs, Walter K., Vauce A. and Roy Taylor, who are to share equally the estate. There is personal property of the value of $200, and real estate of the estimated value of $2,500. Walter Taylor is named as executor, to serve without bonds. The appraisers of the estate are W. G. Davis, Caleb Davis, Sr. and S. L. Shedd.

—A Men's Club has recently been organized at the Congregational church in this city and held its first public meeting last Friday evening in the church parlors. Frederick Berchtold gave an address on "John Milton," and outlined his great poem, "Paradise Lost". R. H. Kennedy followed with a paper on "The Influence of Milton on the Thought of the Church." After the literary program, a social hour was enjoyed around the tables, while refreshments were served by the Ladies Society. The object of the club is both intellectual and social. A. B. Cordley is president; Donald Hill, vice-president; Rupert Wall, secretary; R. H. Kennedy, chairman of the program committee; and R. L. Whitehead, chairman of the social committee. The next meeting of the club is scheduled for the evening of May 12th.

—Kelly, the great Columbia University sprinter, will be on O. A. C. field next Saturday, in the fifty, 100 yard and 220 dashes. He is a remarkable man both in the sprints and in the running broad jump. His leap in the latter is one of the prettiest things ever seen in athletics. As a sprinter he has few equals on the Coast. He may win over both the O. A. C. men Saturday, but in college circles, out on the hill, this is denied. They say there, that he cannot do it, and that nobody else in the Northwest can beat Smithson and Williams. In any event, the running next Saturday will be something not likely to be duplicated in college meets this season, for the three men to go against each other are not believed to have peers on the cinder track in the events named. Kelly is a Baker City boy, about 20 years old, fleet beyond compare and graceful as a deer at his work.

—Mrs. John F. Allen arrived Sunday from a visit of several weeks with Portland relatives.

—The "Shirt Waist" party given by the Coffee Club Friday evening was pronounced a decided success by the gentlemen.

Otto Woldt has sold his cleaning and pressing business to Tracy Hollister. Otto expects to go to Portland in a few days to reside.

—William Johnson spent Sunday with his brother Charles, in this city. Mr. Johnson has a position at the Lewis & Clark exposition, and will not return to St. Louis before fall.

—In a fall from a sidewalk John Allen's trousers were wrecked and his leg lamed Saturday night. Injury in neither instance is permanent. The little son carried in John's arms at the time, escaped unhurt.

Albany Democrat: Several weeks ago a woman and her daughter arrived at Eddyville, Lincoln county, the result of a matrimonial advertisement, followed by the marriage of the lady and Prof. Eddy, of that place. Today Mrs. Eddy and daughter arrived on the noon train and left in the afternoon for the East, evidently telling of an unpleasant matrimonial alliance.

—Fifty cents per month for a sixteen-candle power light is what they pay for electric lighting at Brigham City, Utah, the town spoken of in Saturday's TIMES. Each additional sixteen-candle power light is 25 cents per month. Eight candle power lights in that town are 15 cents per month. The information came to several Corvallis citizens in a letter displayed by an engineer from Salt Lake, who was in town last week. As stated, 125 fifty-candle power incandescents and 14 arcs for street lighting, cost the city $170 per month. And there, the city and the consumers, get all the voltage they pay for.

—Prof. J. B. Horner has purchased a number of vacant lots and has a plan for building a number of small houses on them for sale to families who desire to come to Corvallis for educational purposes. The plan is to make the cost of a house and lot so low that families from abroad can afford to buy and own them, if they cannot find houses to rent. Lack of something of this kind has, in the past, kept many students from coming to O. A. C. Houses that could be bought cost more than families could afford to pay for them. As planned Prof. Horner expects to so build them that he can sell six-room cottages to such buyers for $450 or $500, or at other prices low or high enough to suit purchasers.
