OUR "MORAL WELFARE" CLUB.

The Corporation recently organized in our city, with life perpetual, is suggestive of the fact, that this age is very progressive. Bodies corporate, largely take and occupy a field according to the standard of its official heads. Few persons comprehend the great sacrifice made by the philanthropic gentlemen, who thus devote their time and means to the social, moral and athletic upbuilding of the community. The world is indeed slow, to appreciate true greatness. The social, moral, financial and intellectual standing of the presiding officers of this new corporation, is a sure guarantee of its intrinsic worth. With such men at its head, no better endorsement could be given to the city, of its real merits and durability. The social horizon will be clear as noonday, and the moral wave at its zenith, when the club is anchored on Pisgah's holy heights, by its official heads. Horab's rock will soon be smitten by the wand of President Geer, intellectual and moral warmth will be focalized on society by "Happy Hooligan" as keeper of the seal, while "Mike Kline" sitting as Master of the exchequer, will generate a flow of sociability, truly life giving. No higher tests of the perpetuity and stability of the body corporate could be given. From no constellation could three brighter stars have been selected; and with their names emblazoned in golden letters on the escutcheon of the club, absolute fruition is insured. The organization is to be congratulated on the personnel of its heads—men who in their own persons represent so much of social, moral and intellectual worth. The sign in black letters, "members admitted only," is too much suggestive of "close communion," and seemingly too restrictive, while, "trespassers handled according to law" is a stunner. Is a poor "trespasser" in sore need of moral and social development to be deprived the ministrations of the corporation? Is it possible, by pure oversight in the "Articles," no chair of "Morals" was established, nor chair for the "Dissemination of Ethics"? That the corporation may fully attain to the objects of its inception, why not file Supplemental Articles and establish the Chairs omitted by the oversight?

Deacon McGee has thoroughly established himself, and could well fill the chair of Morals, with indirect powers as class and devotional leader; while person Blumberg in the chair of Ethics with full power as dispenser would clothe the club for aggressive work in this world of sin! To emphasize the athletic objects of the corporation, why would it not be in order to have Happy Hooligan appear on River street next Sunday at 2 p. m. in equestrian form as "Buffalo Bill" with Mike Kline, astride the trick donkey called "Club of Diamonds" with McGee and Blumberg, in sacerdotal vestments bearing the archives of the corporation?

The S. P. is selling round trip tickets between Corvallis and Portland for $3 good going Saturdays or Sundays and returning Sunday or Monday following, either on East or West side, but good only on afternoon train from Albany to Portland on Saturdays if East side is taken. Passengers to pay local fare between Corvallis and Albany.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Allen & Wood-ward. Price 50 cents.

AFTER FIFTY YEARS.

They Were Re-wedded on Their Golden Anniversary—A Social Celebration.

Sunday, August 5th, at their home near Bellefontaine, Mr. and Mrs. William Rees celebrated their golden wedding.

They were married in Jasper county Iowa in 1855, and in 1863, answering the call of the West, came by prairie schooner to Oregon, where they settled in Union county. After a stay of six years in Union county they moved to their present home where they have resided for 36 years.

Seven children were born to them six of whom are living, one being buried at the cemetery near Bellefontaine. There are also ten grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Many presents were given, chief among which was a gold watch and chain presented to the bride by the groom. The bride was attired much in the fashion of olden time, her hair being dressed the same as when, a blushing young bride, she went to the altar.

Mrs. Lee Henkle of this city is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rees.

But Not a Has Been—Hoofed it seven Miles for Hunter's License.
There are sundry persons here-about who consider themselves thoroughbred Nimrods. Not one of them, however, is in a class with Reuben Gant of Philomath, who is 87 years of age, and who journeyed afoot from Philomath to Corvallis Monday to take out a hunter's license. The distance is seven miles, and the thermometer that day rose to 95, which two facts, coupled with that other statement that Mr. Gant is, to be exact, 87 years and three months old, and also that he did the stunt to get a hunter's license, makes the performance one which the ordinary Nimrod may well contemplate with astonishment. Where for instance, will Burnett, Rennie, Callahan, Huston, Kiger, Wilson and Bryson be when each is aged 87 years and three months? True enough, the temperature at that place where they may then be wayfarers might be 95 degrees or even more, but not one of the bunch will be hoofing it seven miles to get a hunter's license. As a Nimrod, Mr. Gant is in a class strictly by himself, and all the other sportsmen about town should doff their hats to him.

COMES THIS WEEK.

Engineer Miller to Make More Surveys of Rock Creek Pipe Line.

A letter to the Water Board relates that Engineer Miller left Athena yesterday for Seattle, and that he will reach Corvallis the latter part of the current week. A re-survey of the route for the pipe line, particularly that portion nearest the proposed intake on Rock Creek, will probably be undertaken at once. It is hoped that by going further up the creek, the pipe line may yet be gotten over the ridge into the Woods Creek water shed, with a resultant shortening of the line and a lower estimated cost of the undertaking. It is the hope of the engineer and the belief of the board that a good working margin may yet be obtained between the estimated cost of the work and the limit of expenditure authorized, so that the final operations may be undertaken with perfect safety. As soon as it becomes apparent that there is such a margin, operations will be pushed to the uttermost.

The regular meeting of the water board occurred Monday night. The report of the special committee, consisting of F. L. Miller, S. L. Kline and J. R. Smith, which made the contract for the services of Engineer Miller, was read and adopted. The report of the election for authorizing bonds was made by Clerk Kline.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by Graham & Wortham.

WITH WASHINGTON.

At Seattle—O. A. C. Football Team's Thanksgiving Game This Season.

O. A. C. will play the Thanksgiving game of football this year at Seattle, and with the University of Washington team. Thanksgiving day falls on the 30th of November. It was the turn of the Washington men to come to Corvallis, as O. A. C. went to Seattle last year; but the Washington men offered him so large a figure to come to Seattle, that Manager Fred Stimson felt compelled to accept. The Seattle trip and the California trip, including as they do, a journey through more than two-thirds of the Coast, will give members of the team a lot of sight-seeing and in part repay them for the trouble of training.

Very few dates in the schedule have yet been closed and but little is as yet known as to what the final program of games will be. A contract was signed Saturday for a game at Corvallis October 7th, with Chemawa. An application has been received from Pullman for a game at Corvallis. Manager Stimson is endeavoring to arrange the financial end of the proposition so the Washingtonians can be programmed. They played in Corvallis two years ago, and were defeated by a score of five to naught. That is the only occasion on which the two teams have met.

WOMAN AND MAN.

Which the Most Consistent—The Situation From one View Point.

Man? Why, of course, he is inconsistent, a bunch, in fact of inconsistencies. But what of her, amiable, lovely woman! At the Woman's Christian Convention, she made the neatest, sweetest little speech about the sinfulness of tale-bearing and gossip and, at the afternoon tea the next day she dispensed to the company more gossip about the neighbors than did all the rest of the assembly put together.

She belonged to a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, but she made the poor dressmaker work day and night to get her ball dress ready on time, and then forgot to pay the dressmaker for week and weeks.

She belonged to the society for the amelioration of humankind, but she was keen on hunting bargains that were made possible by the toil and sufferings of her sisters in noisome sweat shops.

She reprimanded a small boy who threw a stone at a cat, yet she drove a pair of horses with docked tails.

She wrote a beautiful article for the local paper advocating organization of Audubon societies among boys and girls, then donned a hat containing three stuffed birds and gaily went to an editor's sanctum to submit the article.

She was chairman of the committee on social science at the club, and gave the servant girl a cheerless garret with broken and marred furniture.

She was prominent in her church kensington and read a paper deploring the fact that the poor do not attend church more, and while reading it she wore silks and satins enough to defray the living expenses of the average workingman's family for six months.

Something about the inconsistency of the men might be added to this, but space is too limited to make even a start on this subject.

TOTAL FAILURE THERE.

Crops in Arkansas—Season so wet Farmers Couldn't Work their Land.

A private letter to Captain George A. Robinson from B. F. Butcher, a nephew, tells of unfortunate crop conditions in Arkansas. It says: "We have made a complete failure in almost everything this year, in our part of the country. There will not be over one-fifth of the usual cotton crop. Fifty to seventy-five per cent of the land is lying out, and 25 per cent of what has been planted the crop could not be worked. I have not ploughed three days on my farm in six weeks. It rained much in April, nearly all of May and has rained so incessantly since that the working of the land was impossible. I can count five farms south of me lying on the prairie on Garland's Creek that made last year about 175 bales of cotton that will not make five this year. Farmers are very despondent, and it is needless to say that merchants are correspondingly blue. Perhaps enough will be produced for the people to live on, but there will be nothing to pay debts with. It is hard to see what the just what the result will be. It rained so incessantly through the spring and summer that some did work, but by actual count get to work but four days. It stopped raining the last week in May, and after three weeks began again and has continued until four days ago. Nothing like it has ever happened here in the memory of our oldest people. The waters have been higher and more washouts on the railroads than ever before. Everything is very high and money so scarce that it can scarcely be had at all."

Oregon's shortened crop is a disappointment to Oregonians, but it is abundant compared to the conditions described above.
