-Indian Head linen at Kluge's. -Wanted-Hay and Oats. I. D. Bodine, Phone 290.

-John M. Osdorn, on account of a recurrence of asthmatic trouble has gone to The Dalles.

-Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Day of San Francisco are guests of Corvallis and Benton relatives. They arrived Tuesday.

-P. Avery and Prof. Fulton arrived Tuesday from a two weeks' fishing trip. They were on the head waters of the Calipooia.

-Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Belt have arrived from Newport and for the present, are at Hotel Corvallis. They are to occupy a house next door south of Mrs. Sarah Caution's.

-The new residence of W. H. McBee on his farm south of town, is nearing completion. It is now ready for the plasterers. Charles Heckert is building it.

-Mrs. Adolph Peterson, who recently underwent a surgical operation in Portland, is expected to be able to leave the hospital in about a week.

-Postmaster Johnson arrived Tuesday night from a week at the Fair. The Fair, according to Mr. Johnson, is great, and always called greater by those who have seen it most.

-Re-building of the waste race bridge near Fischer's mill is now in progress. It is to have cement piers and in all appointments will be constructed with a view to durability. The work is under the direction of R. M. Gilbert.

-The Adolph Peterson residence property on Ninth street changed hands Wednesday. The purchaser is E. B. Graves, late of Polk county. The price paid was $1,700. The property comprises a house and three lots. The deal was made by Amblar & Watters.

-Roy Raber is up for a few days from Portland to gather new samples for the Benton county exhibit. Many Eastern people are already at the Fair, but Mr. Raber says the big crowd will reach there next month, which will be after harvest and give the Western farmers a chance to view the exposition sights.

-A train this week carried away the Job's addition wife who was severely beaten by her husband recently. The husband left to days ago seeking a new location. The husband's excuse for the beating was that the wife had been buggy riding with another man. There was talk among the neighbors for a while of tar and feathers for the third party.

-Two horses, dead from some unknown disease, is a condition out at the Tunison farm, a mile south of town. Each animal was ill three or four days, and many remedies were vainly applied in the effort to save. Most of the horse experts were also called in but without effect. Indigestion is the cause most generally assigned.

-There is to be a fire drill this Saturday, evening at eight o'clock. One of the features will be a test of the new chemicals involving a race from the engine house to the fire and the determination of how much time it will take to make the run and put out the blaze. The fire engine is also to be hauled out and put in action, preparatory to having it ready for use in case these dry days should cause it to be needed.

-Butter fat is soaring skyward at the local creamery. A few days ago it was only 22 1-2. Thursday it rose to 25. Yesterday it jumped again, landing at 27 1-2, where it now stands. Inability of the local concern to fill orders from present supplies of raw material is the occasion for the advances. Present prices in connection with the fact that butter fat was below 19 cents but a few days this season, constitute a record of value with reference to the dairy industry.

-They are guessing about town as to who are the girls referred to in a dispatch from Albany to Tuesday's Portland Journal. The dispatch says the girls recently arrived from Corvallis. The story runs thus:—Will Schmidt of this city was yesterday sent to jail for 30 days upon being convicted of disorderly conduct. Will Crawford, a companion of Schmidt, will have his trial this afternoon on the same charge, and Leo Egan is to be tried tomorrow on that charge. The three young men were in a mix-up on Saturday night in the alley in the rear of the Egan restaurant, and some women recently arrived here from Corvallis were supposed to be the cause of the difficulty.

-Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson are spending a week at the Fair.

-Miss Frances Belknap is the guest this week of Miss Ivy Burton in Independence.

-F. O. Gray and family have been visiting at Newport since Tuesday.

-Roy Mattley is lying critically ill at the family home in this city. His ailment is consumption.

-Mrs. A. L. Knisely entertained 16 ladies Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Greenberg.

-Mrs. Wait and two children have arrived from Nebraska for a visit with W. G. Davis and family.

-Mrs. C. A. Danneman and daughter, Miss Mary, left Thursday for a visit at the bay.

-Miss Ethel Pierce of Hillsboro is the guest, this week, of Miss Gladys Moore.

-Miss Rena Spencer has arrived from The Dalles for a two months' visit with relatives in Corvallis.

-Mrs. Greenberg left this week for her home in San Francisco after an extended visit at the Jacobs home.

-Miss Maud Hurt is to go to Seattle tomorrow, for a visit with her brother, Frank, who is employed in that city.

-Mrs. Mary Bryson has been in Corvallis this week, for a visit with relatives. She returns to Eugene in a few days.

-Andrew P. Wymore, sheriff of Clay county, Missouri, paid a visit to the Benton county officials, Wednesday.

-Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Horning returned Thursday from a brief outing at Newport. They report salmon trolling in progress there.

-Mrs. Delilah Kester returned Thursday to her home at Harlan, after a seven weeks' visit in this city.

-George Claxton, representing the Oregon Daily Journal of Portland, was a business visitor in Corvallis Wednesday and Thursday.

-Miss Julia Fuller is clerking for Wellsher and Gray this week, during the absence of Mr. Gray who is at the coast.

-Mrs. John Smith, gave an afternoon Friday to about 18 ladies. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Greenderg, of San Francisco, and was of a very enjoyable occasion.

-Married Wednesday at the home of the bride in this city, W. F. Haef and Henrietta Broady. The knot was tied by S. M. Wood, and this city is to be their future home.

-Eastern Oregon, like the rest of the coast, is dry. Mountain springs never known to go dry have failed and stockmen ranging in the mountains are getting anxious about the water supply for their herds.

-The base ball game between Siletz and Corvallis last Saturday was too much one sided to be interesting. The score being 8 to 3 in favor of Corvallis. Sunday's game at Toledo with that team resulted in a score of 7 to 3 in favor of Toledo.

-At the United Evangelical Church next Sunday services as usual. Morning subject, A Mount Carmel Prayer, Evening subject, The Mission of Jesus Christ to Women. C. T. Hurd, Pastor.

-A person in town this week from The Dalles reports the family of C. C. Chipman, now in the restaurant business in that city, as prospering, and states that they are highly pleased with the city and country in general.

-The W. C. T. U. social on the court house lawn Wednesday evening was a successful affair. About $28 was taken in and those who attended had an enjoyable time. The proceeds go towards fitting up the new free reading room.

-Wheat is 70 cents in the local market. It is arriving now in considerable quantities at the mills. The kernels are shrunken, showing that the crop was launched for a 30 bushel yield until the bugs and heat struck it.

-A team belonging to Sam. King took a turn up Main street on their own account early Thursday morning. The animals were hitched to a load of lumber, but after making a run of several blocks they were stopped near the electric light plant, with no damage to the outfit.

-Things have been doing this week over at the office of Superintendent Denman. Thirty-two applicants, mostly ladies, have been taking the mid-summer teachers' examination, for county papers. A few made application for state papers. The examinations closed last night having been in progress since Wednesday morning.

-Experts, say every added excessively hot day shortens the hop crop.

-Mrs. Fannie Purdy and daughter Esther are home from a month visit with Portland relatives.

-Miss Clara Fisher and Miss Webber left Friday for a ten days sojourn at Newport.

-J. K. Berry and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vidito are to leave tomorrow for an outing at Yachats.

-Misses Minnie and Elsie Hein are expected from Hubbard, Iowa, for a visit with their uncle, Lewis Hollenberg.

-The date for the annual game of football between O A C and U. of O. has been settled, by Managers Stimson and Steiwer. Friday November 24th is the date, and Eugene the place for the game, which has come to be the greatest of all the football games in Oregon, so far as state-wide interest is concerned.

BOUND FOR YACHATS.

To Move in Three Divisions—Mema-loose Mowitch Copa Skookum Chuck.

It will be picturesque—the caravan that leaves tomorrow morning for the coast. Councilman Rennie will be advance guard, Lawyer Ed Wilson will command the left flank, Postmaster Johnson the right wing, and Telephone DeVarney will conduct a rear guard action to protect the front guard from any attempted enveloping movement. The destination is Yachats and neighboring territory, and the object, mowitch—hi-yu mowitch; tenas man ketch 'em siyah copa skookum chuck; shootem forty seven times, maybe no ketch 'em.

The caravan is garrisoned, pro-endered, armed, ammunitioned and pernaured for an indefinite period. The wardrobe of each generalissimo contains a photo of his wife, a bowie knife wrapped in the national colors, a jewsharp, a can of yellow fever anti-toxine, a lock of hair, a box of pills, four bottles of anti-fat, three decks of cards and a volume of rag time melodies. The appliances for convenience and comfort comprise anything from a desk telephone, a bath tub, or an R. F. D. route to a ready made last will and testament in blank with only the name to be filled in. A very small corner of the marching hippodrome is devoted to bedding, and all the rest is given up to grub boxes and "anti-dry," a newly discovered and extremely effective preventive for snake bite, a very happy forethought, for snakes are heinously vicious along the beach.

Tomorrow's caravan is to be followed by two more. The first will be Mayor Johnson, who leaves Tuesday, and who by traveling incognito, hopes to reach the first army before the peruna gives out. The second consists of Dick Kiger, M. M. Davis and Thomas Peter Callahan and is to depart a week from Sunday, carrying derricks, capstans, donkey engines and material for a temporary line of railroad, for use in moving the devastated and defunct mowitch from the skookum illihee to market. Heap shoot 'em, no kill 'em; hi-yu cuss-em.
