Wheat 61. Wanted, Hay and oats I. D. Bodine. Phone 290. Corvallis Grange meets Saturday at 3 p. m. in Agricultural Hall. Mrs. Philip Phile left Monday for a week's visit at the Fair. Mrs. Alice Wicks leaves today for a visit with Portland and Astoria relatives. Mrs. B. W. Johnson returned Saturday from a month's vacation spent at Long Beach and Portland. Mrs. P. Avery and sons returned Sunday from a visit to the Exposition. Mrs. Hewitt nee Kate Tiedemann, has arrived from Portland, for a visit with Corvallis relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ireland returned home Monday after a few days visit at the Fair. Benjamin H. Greenhaw arrived Sunday to resume his studies at O. A. C. Mrs. James Barrett of the Benton County Lumber Co., was the guest of Corvallis friends the first of the week. Officer Dave Osburn arrived last night from an extended vacation, spent east of the Cascades, and is to resume his duties as night watch. The picking of the last crop of peaches in the John Kiger orchard begins today. The variety is late Crawford and the crop is said to be excellent, both in quality and yield. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Kline, who have been for a couple of weeks in Chicago are due to arrive in San Francisco the first of this week. Walter Kline left yesterday evening to join them there. H. B. Evans, assistant draftsman with the O. R. & N. in Portland, spent Sunday in Corvallis visiting friends. Mr. Evans is an O. A. C. student originally from Lane county. A rate of $2.60 for a round trip ticket from Corvallis to Portland has been made by the Southern Pacific. The tickets will be on sale September 28 and 29 and are good for ten days from date of sale. The conference in session at Albany last week, returned Rev. G. H. Feese to the pulpit of the Corvallis Methodist church. It is understood that the return was unanimously desired by the congregation. Contracts are shortly to be let by the postoffice department for carrying the mail on the Albany-Corvallis and Monroe-Corvallis star mail routes. The advertisement is now displayed at the window of the local postoffice, where also blanks for bidding can be secured. Bids are to be opened on December 5th at Washington, D. C. and the contract is to go into effect the first day of July next year. J. E. Michael has resigned as county ferryman, and left Friday with his family to reside at Portland. He was more than three years in the county employ and during the time was but a few days off duty. Sundays included. He resigned to accept a better position. The removal of himself and family to other fields is much regretted by Corvallis friends. Another ferryman will be elected when the county court meets. The seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Bicknell who was so severely burned by an explosion of powder last week is recovering. Though still confined in bed, the pain is largely gone and the eyesight is restored. The little fellow was playing at home while the family were at the Al Bicknell sale half a mile distant. With a match he touched off a big charge of powder with the effect that his face was severely burned. After that, though in great pain, he ran the distance to Al Bicknell's, his uncle's, where he received treatment. The enrollment at college up to Tuesday noon was 530. Miss Gertrude McBee returned Sunday from a few days' visit in Portland. George and Mollie Kiger of Seattle are the guests of their cousin, Mrs. Frances Isbell. Robert Gellatly was on the streets Tuesday. He has discarded crutches and now uses his injured limb with the aid of a cane. At a regular meeting of the Coffee club Monday afternoon a motion was adopted by which the dancing parties given by the club will hereafter occur monthly. The wheat market is said by local millers to have a firmer tone with a good export demand. Oats is 33 to 35 in the local market. The market is firmer. Harold Strong of Corvallis is University Chess Champion at Stanford. He won the title last year, when he was best man in a team of seven that played a tie game with a similar team from the University of California. A late issue of the "Daily Palo Alto" contains the following: Next semester the members of the team will hold a tournament to determine the personnel of the team that will contest with the University of California. This team consists of seven men, and the winner is given the title of University Chess Champion. Last year this title was held by H. W. Strong, '06. All members of the team will receive the regulation chess pins from the student body. An arrival, welcomed by the students was the appearance yesterday of Joel Emily, better known to student friends as "Smiley." He is bigger by eight pounds than last year and will be more than that much fiercer in tearing up interference as a crack end in the coming football games. No boy ever leaped from second team end into a position of prominence in the Northwest with as signal brevity as did he. It happened at the Eugene game last year, where he went late in the first half to substitute end, and quickly made his presence known and dreaded by tearing up formations with a consistency and certainty that soon put an end to attacks on his position. At the TIMES press hour yesterday afternoon the trial of the first of the cases against officers of the Kline-Hooligan Geer shebang was in progress. The defendants were Mike Kline, and Jack Milne, the barkeeper. Much time was consumed in selecting a jury, many jurors being excused before a final selection was made. The jury as drawn was, J. R. Smith, O. V. Hurt, A. W. Herbert, G. H. Carl, Wm. Bogue and W. T. Small. The hearing took place in the circuit court room because the county court room was too small to accommodate the crowd. At last account the taking of testimony was in progress. Card of Thanks. Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Gilbert wish to express their sincere thanks to those who so kindly assisted them during the illness and death of their daughter. Millinery Opening At Miss Johnson's, Thursday and Friday, Sept 28 and 29. Fine display of pattern and Gage hats. Wanted. An experienced girl or woman to do general housework. WARRIORS COMING BACK.

To Line-up Against New Soldiers— Alumni Game Saturday—"Pap Haysseed" Expected. Things will be doing on OAC field next Saturday. It will be the first football game of the season, and interest will be great in seeing how the new team will behave under fire. The opposing team will be the old veterans of the alumni, and as at present understood, will consist largely of the 1897 team. Efforts to have "Pap Haysseed" play center are afoot, and it is believed they will be successful. It is eight years now since "Pap" did famous center stunts on college field, and there are many old timers who are thinking how pleasant it would be to see the tall figure plunging here and there as it used to, along the scrimmage line. It was a figure that nobody ever saw shrink from diving into the fiercest formation, or falter when the fight was coming discouragingly. It was a figure that went from the scrimmage line on the gridiron to the skirmish line in Uncle Sam's armies and fought there with the same undaunted spirit that was characteristic of the football days. Since he left Corvallis to go to war, old "Pap" has never been back, and that is why the boys want him to play in Saturday's game, where hundreds would gladly go to see him. His other name is Harvey L. McAllister, but half the people who knew him, could not for their lives recall his real name. Of other of the old boys expected Saturday, are Gyp Thurston, Fred Walters, Horace McBride, Harvey Bodine, Grant Elgin, Fred Edwards, "Crimney" Johnson, "the Terrible Swede," Fred Kruse, John Gault, B. U. Burnett, Rod Nash, Harley Hall, "Happy" Ward, Karl Steiwer, Louis Burnough, and various other oldtime warriors bold. Opposed to the old men will be some new ones that the public will want to see. Foremost among these is Willie Laurence, whose doings on the field have made his name familiar to every "Freshie" on the college campus. There is Sam Dolan, who is apparently billeted to fill Bert Bower's shoes in the line, and there will be interest of the first magnitude in seeing how he will behave. Then there are warriors left over from last year who are bigger and fiercer than ever, with George Root, a kicker now, and Floyd Williams at their head, and with Dunlap, Bundy, Rinehart, Cooper, Walker, Emily, Rumbaugh, and a score of new men in the mixing. It will be a time and a game to call everybody into the grandstand, and with an enthusiastic opening of the football season.

TO PIANO BUYERS.

An Authorized Representative of Eilers Piano House a Resident of Corvallis. There is probably not a finer judge of musical tone and general construction of pianos, than the head of the piano department of Oregon Agricultural College, Prof. Taillandier. He is a man of fine musical attainment and broad experience in the musical field and his judgment may be entirely relied upon. We have arranged with Prof. Taillandier to represent us in Corvallis and vicinity. Do not select your piano until you see him. We can explain to you why you can buy of us to much greater advantage to yourself in both price and payment and also the superior merit of the pianos carried by us, and will render you every assistance in securing a piano exactly suited to your needs and taste. The House of Eilers is known throughout the Northwest as the most liberal and reliable of piano dealers. Old instruments are accepted in part payment for new ones at a liberal valuation. And every instrument we sell fully guaranteed by both ourselves and manufacturers. Prof. Taillandier can be consulted every evening at his residence on College Hill, or anytime on Saturdays.
