

LOCAL LORE.

For advertisements in this column the rate of 15 cents per line will be charged.

—Dr. Lowe the optician will be en Corvallis Oct. the 5th and 6th.

—Have you been to the new Reading Room.

—Ernest Miller has returned from a few days' stay in Albany.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nolan left Sunday for a week's visit at the Fair.

—James Bier returned Sunday from a week at the Fair.

—Wanted, Hay and oats. I. D. Bodine. Phone 290.

—J. D. Wells returned Sunday evening from a visit to the Fair.

—Miss Maud McBee returned Saturday evening from a week's visit in Portland.

—Mrs. Philip Phile returned Sunday from a week's visit with Portland friends and relatives.

—Any good books or magazines will be thankfully received at the new Reading Room.

—Drs. Ainslie and McConnell of Portland arrived Saturday and were guests over Sunday at the John Smith home.

—Mrs. George Bowers left Tuesday for her home in Victoria, B. C., after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bier.

—Mrs. J. J. Flett and Misses Bessie Yates and Lura Flett left Monday for a visit at the Exposition.

—Ernest Stewart, a lineman for the Independent Telephone Company, left Monday for San Francisco.

—Lieutenant and Mrs. Quinlan new occupy the new cottage next door south of the Reuben Kiger residence.

—Mr. Graves and family of Independence now occupy the A. F. Peterson property on railroad street.

—Tyra Smith and family, Mrs. J. R. Smith and daughter, and Mrs. Chester Avery are to leave today for a visit to the Exposition.

—Richard Scott, one of Benton's enterprising young farmers, returned Monday from a visit to the Exposition.

—An adjourned meeting of the county court was held yesterday for the disposal of various items of business.

—The W. C. T. U. will meet in their Reading Room on Thursday at 3 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

—A handsome new home is being erected on the Gus Harding farm, to replace the structure recently destroyed by fire. It is to cost about $1,700. Charles Heckert has the contract.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Misner, and D. M. Prince, of Edison, Nebraska, arrived Saturday for a week's visit with F. O. Gray. They will visit Southern California before returning home.

—There was an apportionment made by Superintendent Denman Monday of county school funds. Something over $13,000 was disbursed, which is a neat sum for Benton.

—Mrs. William Jenks passed through Corvallis Monday enroute to her home at Tangent. She had been at Yaquina, at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Sidney Trask, who is recovering from a very critical illness.

—Charles M. Smith, residing three miles west of town, sustained a stroke of paralysis yesterday morning. The attack is the second within the past six or eight months. The left side is affected, the organs of speech being more or less involved. The recovery from the first attack was sufficient to enable Mr. Smith to get about, but not to do hard work.

—Two lots belonging to S. E. Young south of the college campus were recently purchased by Truman W. Jones, recently arrived from Kansas. The new owner will begin at once the erection of a new house on the property. The price paid for the lots was $210. The sale was made by Robinson and Stevenson.

—The early morning train Monday, and the same train on Tuesday was loaded to the guards with Fair-bound passengers. In these last two weeks of the big show, a vast tide of travel will flow to and from Portland. What an immense amount of money has been drained out of the interior of the state and dumped into Portland by the Exposition. This drain upon the interior is a shock to financial conditions in a far greater degree than results from the shortened crop.

—Wheat 62. Oats 33 to 35.

—August Fischer and family went to Portland yesterday.

—The Misses Lough of Ashland have opened dressmaking parlors over the Blackledge furniture store.

—Mrs. Maud Gilmore of Riddles, Southern Oregon, was the guest Saturday of Dr. and Mrs. Cathey.

—Dr. Connell and Messrs Honeyman of Portland hunted pheasants on the McBee farm Sunday and Monday.

—Letters received in this city relate that Frank Spagle is playing end on the Whitman college football team at Walla Walla.

—Dr. Lowe the optician will be at Hotel Corvallis Thursday and Friday of this week. Have him test your eyes for glasses.

—M. H. Bell, a former well known Corvallisite, now of Prineville, spent Sunday with relatives in Corvallis. Mr. Bell is a brother-in-law of W. A. Wells.

—Mrs. William Lynch of Harrisburg was the guest over Sunday of E. B. Horning and family. Mrs. Lynch was enroute to visit relatives in Polk county.

—M. M. Farrell and family moved Monday into the Woodcock house on Fourth street, known as the Mackay property. Mr. Farrell comes from near Portland.

—The Ladies Coffee club is to give a dancing party Saturday evening. The music is to be furnished by Fechter's orchestra of Albany and a good time is assured.

—J. G. Leverett and Miss Ena Leverett, brother and sister of Miss Ammee Leverett, arrived last week from Arkansas, and are attending O. A. C.

—Wheat advanced in the local market Monday from 61 to 62 cents. A firmer market in the East and a better demand for flour in the Orient is ascribed as the reason for the rise.

—Remember Dr. Lowe does nothing but fit glasses. Been at it exclusively for over 18 years. A man cannot be good at everything, but Dr. Lowe is certainly a good optician.

—Good grass for the fall and winter seems assured by the late rains. Lower prices for hay and better prices for livestock are likely to be the sequel. Sheep are reported advancing in price with sales of stock sheep at $3 and owners holding for four.

—A meeting will begin in the New church in Jobs addition Saturday evening at 7.30, conducted by Elder W. A. Prosser of Scholle, Oregon. Mr. Prosser is a very able man and fluent speaker. Everybody invited to come and hear him.

—It is reported that two Carlisle Indians are among the players on the Chemawa football eleven that is to play on O. A. C. field next Saturday. The Carlisle team is one of the great elevens of the country, and if ex-warriors from that aggregation show up on college field Saturday there will be interesting sights to see.

—Monday's Portland Telegram says: "J. T. Murphy of Corvallis aged 68 years, lost his way while going from the home of W. D. Fenton, 110 East Sixteenth street to the Perkins Hotel, Saturday, and has not been seen since. The police have his description." If the missing man hails from Corvallis, he is not very well known. The postoffice people know nothing of him.

—Dow Walker and Will Abraham, All Northwest center and tackle last year, John Allen, crack tackle from the Baker City high school, J. B. McKinnan, 190 pound guard on O. A. C. second team last year, and Frank Pendergrass, tackle and end from Fort Stevens are a few of the football notables who have enlisted at O. A. C. in the last day or two.

WHEN CHEMAWA PLAYS

College Lads Will Have to Hustle—Big Game Next Saturday.

Next Saturday is programmed for a football game on O. A. C. field in which Steckle's men will go against Chemawa. The latter team is strong with veteran warriors like Reuben Saunders in the lineup. Saunders is one of the fiercest players that ever dived into a scrimmage, and interest is already keen locally over the question of what he can do to the new O. A. C. forwards. Some say his rushes will penetrate it, and others that Sanders is not man enough to drive his way through the sturdy college lads who make up the heavy O. A. C. line. Besides Sanders and his spectacular playing, there are other men of spirit and strength in the Chemawa line-up and a mighty interesting game is expected. By that time, the lineup of the home lads will be more systematized, and some of the lightning dash that characterized the team last season, may be expected to be seen in their onslaught on the Chemawa lads. In any event, the game will give everybody a line on the new eleven, and for that reason, as well as for the expectation that the Indians will put up a whirlwind game, the kickoff is looked forward to with much anticipation, and a big crowd is expected to be present.

DELINQUENT NOW.

Penalty and Interest Must be Paid on all Unpaid Taxes. Two Paid Penalties.

There has been strenuous tax paying at the sheriff's office for a week past. Monday was the day for unpaid taxes to become delinquent and the day after which penalty and 10 per cent interest is added. Last spring a large number paid only half, leaving the other half of their taxes to be paid this fall. It was the rush to avoid the penalty and interest that made strenuous hours for the sheriff until the office closed Monday on what at that moment became the delinquent roll. In spite of repeated notice and six months time, a considerable number failed to make the final payment.

Two of the latter came in to settle Tuesday. They thought penalty and interest ought not to be added. Sheriff Burnett told them he had no alternative but to collect both penalty and interest, whereupon each of the citizens was wroth. They said one day of grace ought to be allowed, to which the sheriff rejoined that if one day be given more and more days and weeks if not months of time would be wanted, and that he could not on any account or for anybody break the law.

TO PIANO BUYERS.

An Authorized Representative of Eilers Piano House a Resident of Corvallis.

There is probably not a finer judge of musical tone and general construction of pianos, than the head of the piano department of Oregon Agricultural College, Prof. Taillandier. He is a man of fine musical attainment and broad experience in the musical field and his judgment may be entirely relied upon.

We have arranged with Prof. Taillandier to represent us in Corvallis and vicinity. Do not select your piano until you see him. We can explain to you why you can buy of us to much greater advantage to yourself in both price and payment and also the superior merit of the pianos carried by us, and will render you every assistance in securing a piano exactly suited to your needs and taste. The House of Eilers is known throughout the Northwest as the most liberal and reliable of piano dealers.

Old instruments are accepted in part payment for new ones at a liberal valuation. And every instrument we sell fully guaranteed by both ourselves and manufacturers. Prof. Taillandier can be consulted every evening at his residence on College Hill, or anytime on Saturdays. A telephone call will bring him to your house. Independent 185.
