

LOCAL LORE.

For advertisements in this column the rate of 15 cents per line will be charged.

—C. H. Miller and family moved Wednesday into their new house on Third street.

—Mrs. Robert Mosby of Cottage Grove attended the Barclay-Buchanan nuptials, Wednesday.

—Miss Stella Payne of Rowland, has been the guest this week of Benton friends.

—Arthur Hawley and family of Bellefontain were Corvallis visitors Thursday.

—There will be preaching by the pastor tomorrow morning and evening at the M. E. church, south.

—Mrs. N. H. Pierce arrived last week from Nebraska for an extended visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Harlan.

—Eggs are soaring these days. Wednesday none was to be had in the market and today they are scarce at 30 cents.

—Amblor & Watters sold this week the Mittlestadt 105 acres 1 1/2 miles south of Philomath to a Mr. Melville of Salem, Oregon, price $2,900.

—A Buffalo man put a rat-trap in his pants pocket. His wife got caught, while attempting to take money and had him arrested, but the court stood in with the husband.

—Rev. H. D. Chambers, General Missioner of the state of Oregon, will preach at both morning and evening services at the Episcopal church Sunday.

—The Corvallis Poultry show which occurs November 30, December 1 and 2. The president of the association is Dr. Bowen Lester and the secretary Gene Simpson.

—Scio's debating society has opened the season with the subject: "Resolved, That woman is superior to man." The affirmative are all women and the negative men. What is to be the sex of the judges?

—The Prince and Princess of Wales started Thursday on a tour of India, for which British people will have to pay $1,000,000. A retinue of two hundred people accompanies them.

—Jacob Heffle and Mrs. Elizabeth Conger Henkle, widow of the late Ichabod Henkle were married at the latter's home near Philomath Thursday. The bride's age is given in the court house records as 71 and the groom's as 80. Both are highly respected residents of the county.

—Robert Johnson has again been doing a stunt as deputy clerk,—that is, since Grover Hedrick got married. Robert was liberal in his offers of free marriage licenses, having had very narrow escape from Kaupisch. It is told that Bob's late return temporarily to private life was because he got wind of the drift of things and got out of the office to avoid taking chances on Hedrick.

—A resident of Dakota says the following are among the big things that occur in that state: A farmer left his plow in the ground in a field, when a wind storm came up and drove the plow fourteen miles, making a furrow the entire distance, which he saw. One day a neighbor's little girl who had gone out to play in the morning could not be found. A hunt was instituted and she was found inside a pea pod. The pea had grown around her during the day, where she had sat down to play in the morning in a pea field.

—C. A. Hyland, the well known Corvallis painter who pounded a hole through the wall of the city jail and escaped Saturday night, is again in trouble. Hyland was locked up on account of drunkenness and after leaving the jail he secured a rig and drove to Albany. On Monday, however, he returned to this city, and after hiding about town for several days, he was re-arrested Wednesday night and placed in the county jail. On Thursday he had a hearing and was fined $50 and sentenced to 25 days' imprisonment in the county bastille.

—There was a pleasant wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Crees, at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, the interested parties being Grover Hedrick, the popular salesman at F. L. Miller's store, and Mrs. Lessa Scrafford. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mark Noble, of the Baptist church, in the presence of a number of intimate friends. Dainty refreshments followed the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Hedrick went at once to their own home in this city. Both are widely known and highly respected, and many friends join in hearty congratulations.

—Mrs. Anna Selkirk Norton is a guest at the M. M. Davis home

—Miss Emmo Sox of Albany, is the guest of Miss Mary Nolan.

—W. Lair Thompson is a candidate for the office of city recorder of Albany.

—Excursions are to run today from Independence and Albany on account of the big football game.

—William Leasure once a resident of Philomath but now at Moscow, Idaho, has been a guest at the Lenger home since Saturday.

—The date in the address on your Times tells the time to which your subscription is paid. How does yours stand?

—Mrs. John Lenger returned Tuesday from a two weeks' visit in Portland. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Linville who will remain for an indefinite period.

—Mrs. Chester Avery and children left Wednesday to join her husband at Klamath Falls. She was accompanied as far as Albany by Mrs. Tyra Smith and Mrs. J. R. Smith.

—At the Times press hour yesterday afternoon a paper was in circulation in which business houses were agreeing to close during the football game this afternoon, and it looked as if everything will be shut up from three to half past four o'clock.

—Albany Democrat:—J. J. Davis has kept a record of the number of sheep killed by dogs around Albany and reports that during the past year 442 sheep have been killed within a radius of five miles of Albany, by dogs. That most of the dogs have been from Albany, and that thirty or forty have bit the dust on account of their depredations. Some farmers have lost all the sheep they had.

—The respective coaches of the two teams that play on OAC field this afternoon were formerly teammates at the University of Michigan. Steckle played right tackle, and Sweely right half, and many a time they went side by side in assaults on opposing teams, and fell side by side in defending the Michigan goal. Both use the swift Michigan offense and in today's game the tactics of the two elevens will not be unlike. The meeting of the two coaches out in this Webfoot town far away from Alma Mater, after several years of separation, and especially under the circumstances, is something of a coincidence.

—Down in Portland a contract for water pipe has been let, and a number of bidders are disgruntled, each because somebody else got the contract. The steel pipe men say favoritism was shown the cast iron pipe dealers, and the latter cite instances to show steel pipe begins to leak in two or three years. The steel pipe men retort with instances where cast iron pipe has leaked in an equally short space of time, all of which with the consequence that before they get through with it they are likely to prove that everybody ought to use wood stave pipe.

WEDDED WEDNESDAY.

Prominent People of Benton—Buchanan-Barclay.

One of the prettiest weddings that has taken place in Benton county in many months was celebrated at the home of Mrs. Mary Barclay of Irish Bend, Wednesday. The bride was Miss Leah, eldest daughter of Mrs. Barclay, and Arthur Buchanan was the groom.

Promptly at 8 o'clock, with Miss Edna Finley at the piano, the young couple attended by Miss Gertrude Barclay and John Buchanan, entered the parlor and took their places under a large bell of white dahlias. They were met by Rev. C. L. McCausland of the M. E. church South, who spoke the sacred words, using the ring ceremony, which is very impressive.

The bride was winsome in a dainty gown of white silk muslin, and she carried a shower bouquet of white bride roses.

The decorations in the parlor were Oregon grape, ivy and dahlias, in the dining room, autumn leaves and Oregon grape were used with pleasing effect.

Following congratulations, a delicious supper was served to the 60 guests, and later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan drove to their pretty country home at Inavale, where they are now at home to friends. Many handsome and costly presents were received consisting of haviland, cutglass and silver.

Both bride and groom are former OAC students, both are from families known and respected throughout the length and breadth of this section, and have large circles of warm friends who wish them all happiness and prosperity.

—Miss Dorothea Nash is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McKellips.

—Official OAC arm bands at Kline's.

—All Corvallis business houses houses are to be closed during the football game this afternoon. The kickoff is at three o'clock.

—Wear one of Kline's official OAC arm bands to the football game today.

Congregational church:—Sunday school, 10 a. m.; sermon, 7:30. Rev. G. H. Feese of the Methodist church, will preach in the morning, and Rev. J. T. Colvin, field worker of the inter-collegiate association, will speak in the evening. There will be special music at this service. You are invited to be present.

ANOTHER SENTENCE.

And Another Verdict of Guilty—Many Woes for Kline, Hooligan & Co.

There has been a fourth conviction of officers of the so-called Corvallis Social and Athletic Club, and a fourth time Mike Kline, proprietor of the place, is to receive sentence for violation of the local option law. A jury in Justice Holgate's court Thursday evening, after being out but seventeen minutes brought in a verdict of guilty, with Kline, Hooligan and the barkeeper as defendants. But one ballot was taken, and according to the statement of more than one of the jurors the verdict might as well have been returned in less time, but that they did not want to show indecent haste. The jury was: W. W. Ashby, W. G. Davis, W. H. Dilly, Alex Campbell, W. Newton and J. E. Cronk. The case is the third trial by jury, making eighteen men who have gone on record without a break, and not even with a dissenting voice in pronouncing the scheme as bogus, the place as a fraud and the men who conduct it as hypocrites and false pretenders. Indeed, it is incomprehensible that men, after hearing the evidence and then simply reading for themselves the local option law, without any comment whatever of court or lawyers, could do anything else than convict.

The convicted men are to be sentenced by Judge Holgate Tuesday morning. The figures of the fines are getting to a point where it would seem to be a matter of considerable interest to their bondsmen. There is not a lawyer in Corvallis but believes firmly that Deputy District Attorney Bryson will win out in the higher courts. There is, for instance, not a decision of the higher courts where a bona fide club, much less such a shebang as Kline conducts, is permitted to operate where a local option law is in effect. This makes it look like the men who are giving bonds right along for the outfit are taking strong chances of being hit hard.

The testimony brought out more clearly than in any past case the real character of Kline's place. One witness swore that he called up the boys and after treating them to the drinks, paid for it, just as he would have done at a saloon. Also that he sometimes got a bottle of beer and paid 25 cents for it, sometimes a bottle of whiskey, paying nearly always for what he got at the time he got it. Another witness swore that they kept his account, that they showed it to him either on a slate or paper, he could not remember which, and that the prices of what he got were all carried out the account being called his "assessment." The evidence reveals transparency of the attempt to cloak a regular traffic in booze under a false pretense of intellectual culture and moral welfare, and showing up the sham to be so hollow and empty that the wonder is that men could be found stupid enough to attempt to palm off such a mockery on an ordinary community. That the real business of the place is to sell liquor is established by the presence of the revenue license, and by the further fact that about 15,000 pounds of beer and 1,800 pounds of stronger booze has been shipped to the concern since it began business.

One noticeable feature in the last trial is the fact that William Broders, one of the saloon men who went out of business when local option went into effect, appears as an active supporter of the cause of the club. A well known citizen said yesterday that Broder's activity and sympathy in behalf of Kline will help to make a majority of 500 or more in Benton county for local option the next time it comes to a vote.

A fifth case against Kline and his satellites was on trial all day yesterday, and will go to the jury some time today.

Thatcher & Johnson

Received car of fancy Steamed Rolled Barley which they are selling at $1.10 per sack.

Copyright 1905 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

Go Anywhere

Wherever you go you'll be dressed well if you're dressed in our Hart, schaffner & Marx clothes.

Here's a Top Coat, but we'll fit you to overcoats suits, what ever you please. All wool no "mercerized cotton" the label is your insurance

Sole agents

S. L. KLINE

ESTABLISHED 1864

THE PEOPLES STORE

CORVALLIS, OREGON.

Our Business

We are here expressly for the purpose of furnishing your home with Furniture and house furnishings. Our store is a scene of bustle and activity from morning till night. Good goods and reasonable prices is our motto. We have no favorites, prices the same to everybody.

A car load of chairs just received. A new line of Dressers, Extension Tables and Stands ready for inspection. Charter Oak, Laurel and Toledo Ranges, best on the market. We sell ranges on installment plan. If you need a stove or range come in and talk with.

HOLLENBERG & CADY.

THE HOUSE FURNISHERS.

Call at Zeirol's for fresh grass seed, timothy, clover, alfalfa, vetch.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by Graham & Wortham.

For Sale.

Choice oats, vetch and cheat seed to be had at reasonable prices, either at the Corvallis or Benton County Flouring Mills. A. W. Fischer.

Seeds.

Red, White, Crimson, Alsike and Alfalfa clovers. Vetch, cheat, Rape, Speltz, English and Italian Rye grass, Orchard grass, Timothy, Black and gray oats. Grab oak wood sawed. Vetch hay. One 4 year old cow fresh in January $16. One 6 year old cow fresh in March $16. One low wheel Phaeton, tongue and shafts nearly as good as new. Cost $260. price $50. Leave orders at Robinson and Stevenson's office or telephone to L. L. Brooks.

For Rent.

A nice little home of 17 acres for one year at $100.

Amblor & Watters.

Reduction in Rates.

Sept. 1, the round trip fare to Portland, account Exposition will be reduced from $3.50 to $2.90 for a 30 day ticket but not good after October 31st. This is a voluntary reduction made by the S. P. R. R. and will be appreciated by the public as the last six weeks of the Fair will be the best part and see the largest crowd.

J. E. Farmer, agt. Corvallis. W. E. Coman, G. F. & P. Agt, Portland.

1905 Fall Goods Ready 1906

Just received—a large assortment of fall and winter dress goods. This shipment includes broad cloths, henriettas, cloenes, cravenettes, waisting and fancy mixtures; wool plaids for ladies waists and childrens dresses

Palmer Garments

Our first shipment of ladies and misses rain-coats and childrens jackets has arrived. Ladies and Misses Empire coats in transit. Style, fit and quality are the essentials in womens garments. The Palmer Garment excels in these three points and more than that, it gives you the money value. Style, fit and quality that are right. You are invited to inspect this line,

F. L. MILLER

First-Class Job Work done on short notice at the most reasonable prices at this office. See us before going elsewhere.