A HARD BATTLE

REVOLUTIONISTS ATTACK STUDENTS, SLAYING HUNDREDS.

Storm Ends Rioting at the Capital—Fighting Continues at Moscow—Strikers Are Still Out—Other News.

Odessa, Nov. 1.—The day has been a bloody one in Odessa and night finds the situation the worst that it has been at any time. Authorities are doing little to prevent the attacks on students made by workmen, and are actually aiding in the attacks on Jewish quarter. disturbances are reported from all parts of the city and the dead number hundreds. Revolutionists attacking students caused most of the trouble. The students have formed a civil guard and are trying to hold in check the workmen, who attacked them. Dead bodies are lying everywhere in the streets.

The fighting today occurred chiefly in Cathedral Square and Deribassey gardens, in the heart of the city. A mob marched there from the Preobrajenski street quay. The wounded were taken to the municipal hospital. The crowds participating in the riots are composed of the very roughest element in the city. People are blaming the authority for disbanding and disarming the police.

Fighting also took place in the outskirts of the town. The mob, incited by the police, attacked the Jews and hundreds were killed and wounded. Authorities are reticent concerning the riots. A huge crowd marched through the city today. A semi-official report states that 37 were killed and 80 wounded this morning.

Throughout the night indiscriminate shooting took place, bands of roughs parading many quarters, looting and pillaging. The police and military are indignant at the emperor's manifesto and are secretly aiding disorderly elements in order to give an excuse for violence. Last night 50 policemen and a large number of Cossacks disguised as workmen raided a number of shops in Jewish quarter, resulting in the death of many people.

The funeral of the students killed in the recent disturbances took place today. An immense crowd participated in the ceremonies and the bodies were buried with extraordinary marks of honor.

Strike leaders are issuing proclamations calling upon the people to remain firm until amnesty and universal suffrage have been absolutely secured. The people are warned not to place the least faith in the government promises. Scenes of disorder in the capital this morning were ended this afternoon when a driving sleet storm began, which is doing more to keep order than all the soldiers. A reign of terror exists at Odessa and at Moscow, and many people have been ruthlessly shot down by the troops in both cities as well as at Helsinki.

Many fatalities are reported from collisions in various parts of St. Petersburg last night, though no serious rioting. This morning after a conference with commanding generals, General Treppoff issued a proclamation concluding with the following:

"I request the population to maintain order and give warning that all attempts to disturb order will be suppressed with the most peremptory and categorical measures."

Although the people are loud in their clamor for Treppoff's resignation there is no indication that he has stepped out or is likely to.

Last evening while the people were celebrating the achievements of liberty troops fired through a misunderstanding three volleys into the crowds causing 50 casualties. The maddened crowd started a procession headed by a woman carrying in her arms the body of a baby killed by the shots.

It is feared that the strike will continue for some time and will be eventually followed by a recourse to arms.

WILL NOT RESIGN

SENATOR MITCHELL WILL HANG TO HIS OFFICE.

Vindication Before the Supreme Court Is His Only Hope—Trial Drains His Purse. Other News.

Portland, Nov. 2.—The Oregonian says: There will be no democratic United States senator. John H. Mitchell will not resign. While Senator Mitchell will not discuss the matter, and while he declines emphatically to make any statement regarding his future course, there are a few who knew him and were his friends in sunnier days and who will still remain loyal to him, that hint at his intentions and disclaim any idea on his part of relinquishing his hold upon the senatorial chair.

Senator Mitchell is an old man, they say, and is under the cloud of conviction. His political life is a thing of the past, a dream of power. He is a physical wreck, a financial ruin, practically alone, worried and harassed by the ever present memory of his trouble. "The victim of charity in the poorhouse is a happy man compared to him," is the way it is put. And convicted, suffering, impoverished, with no hope for future honors or continued office or quiet age, one hope appears on the waves of trouble which is grasped, as a drowning man grasps a straw—the possible favor of the supreme court of the United States, upon the docket of which his case now rests at bar.

Upon the supreme court the senator hangs a hope of future vindication, and until its voice is heard in judgment he will not abandon his grasp upon public office, unless some condition as yet unforeseen arises to change his mind. There are two men in the United States who can hasten the end of the senator's term of office. One of these is the attorney-general, who can, if he so desires, ask that the senator's case be set ahead on the docket and scheduled for a speedy hearing; the other is ex-Senator John M. Thurston, Senator Mitchell's counsel and attorney. These gentlemen could hasten the end, provided the supreme court should concur with the trial court and bring the cause to a final close.

The voice of the people, united with the expressed opinions of political friends or foes of their petitions, will have no weight with Senator Mitchell, so it is said. Their pleadings have no effect and will have none. If the request, or the suggestion, had come in another way and from another source, it

PIANOS AT SMALL PRICES.

The Eilers way of Selling and why they can do it—A few Figures that illustrate how it can be done—Your Opportunity to get a Piano—No Home Need be Without one.

Cut rates on pianos! You have heard of cut prices on groceries, but cut prices on pianos,—how is it possible you ask. That is just it. Before such a thing could be effected there must have been a combination of very unusual conditions.

In the first place it means buying in large quantities,—getting out of the small way of doing business. It means the cutting out of every useless and unnecessary expense. It means the shipment of pianos without boxes in special cars which saves big sums on freight charges.

That it means the selling of pianos so excellent and satisfactory, that the public demands them.

We have accomplished just these things. We buy for the largest and busiest stores on the Pacific Coast, in Portland, Astoria, Salem, Pendleton and Eugene, Ore.; San Francisco, Stockton and Oakland, Cal.; Spokane, Seattle and Walla Walla, Wash.; Boise and Lewiston, Idaho.

We buy the best pianos that money can secure. If we went all over the world with hundreds of thousands of dollars to spend on pianos, it would be impossible, absolutely impossible to get better pianos than we have to sell, simply because we have the best that money can buy.—Chickering, Weber, Kimball and others, over thirty makes in all.

We have placed the selling of our pianos in the hands of Prof. Taillandier, head of the piano department of the Oregon Agricultural College. Prof. Taillandier's entire reliability and excellent judgment are well known to the people of this vicinity. Piano buyers will doubtless be glad of the opportunity to consult him in regard to their selection of a piano.

He will be more than pleased to give you all the information desired and can be seen at his residence on College Hill on Saturdays and every evening of the week. A telephone call will bring him to your house. Independent 135.
