Official Paper of Benton County.

CORVALLIS, OREGON,

FRIDAY EVENING NOV. 10, 1905.

PUBLISHER'S NOTICE.

Hereafter the publication day of the TIMES will be Tuesday evening and Friday evening, instead of Wednesday and Saturday mornings. For II years the paper has been actually appearing in the evening, though the following morning was given out as publication day. The change now announced ought to have been made II years ago.

THE ELECTIONS.

Apparently a change has come over the voters of the country. In New York Tuesday, more than tween Salem and Portland. In the 200,000 voters threw aside party lines and supported Hearst for the mayorality on a municipal ownership platform. The alleged illicit relations of Tammany with the ice trust, the gas trust, and other corporations furnished a basis for the ballot revolution that swept Hearst almost into the mayor's chair.

In Pennsylvania the revolt the republican bosses of Philadelphia and the state resulted in an overwhelming victory for Mayor and it is also alleged on the best of Weaver and the reform forces, In Ohio, after a campaign in which er privileges are already selected the batteries of the democrats were directed against bossism and graft of the republican leaders, there resulted a revolution at the polls in which a democratic governor was elected by a big majority, with the legislature heavily democratic in term of 30 years is what will be both houses. Equally or more remarkable is the re-election in New York of District Attorney Jerome, York of District Attorney Jerome, from entering the town. The plan running without the nomination by includes the supplying of power to any party, and solely on his record the Corvallis electric light people, in the office as the uncompromising and to any consumers who should foe of graft in public place. It all means that there is a manifest realization by the people that they have account its appearance in Corvallis been duped through appeals to party prejudice, and that their eyes among voters, the work of Folk in possible exception of that at the Paid city of Corvallis Missouri, of Jerome in New York, sawmill for power of the sort is imand of Weaver in Philadelphia, has largely figured, but the greatest of all influences have been the exposures of the colossal frauds and thievery among the big insurance companies. The corruption that has prevailed in these institutions whose errand was supposed to be the collection and preservation of sacred funds largely of the poor, has opened the eyes of millions of people as to the stupendous swindling prevalent in the name of virtue and finance, A few years ago, these selfsame insurance companies that, stripped of their mask, stand shame-faced and disgraced in their welter of corruption, appeared before the voters in an election campaign, talking about "national honor" and an "honest dollar," They assumed to tell the citizen "how to vote honestly, and how to save the country." The present exposures of their hypocrisy and their rotten financial operations has opened the eyes of many voters, and hence a democratic Ohio, reformed Philadelphia and a demoralized Tammany.

FOR ELECTRIC POWER.

For Commercial Purposes in Corvallis -Big Company Would Come.

There is immediate prospect that electric power for commercial uses will shortly be brought to Corvallis It is expected that a petition for a franchise will be laid before the city council at the regular monthly meeting Monday night. The com-pany is believed to be the same that has purchased the electric light plants in Albany and Salcm, and is understood to be the same that is asking for a franchise for railroad tracks on Front street in the city of Portland. It is the same company that has been much discussed in the Portland newspapers during the past week or two, as bent on building railroad lines through the Willamette Valley, particularly one immediately bemain, the capitalists involved are Philadelphia people, and according to all accounts they have unlimited capital. It is asserted that they paid a sum not a great deal below $100,000 for the Albany light plant including the water ditch. Their plans as so far developed, seem to be an extension south to Corvallis, Eugene and elsewhere of the power lines projected for Salem and A1bany, expecting later on, no doubt, against the known corruption of to follow up the light and power equipment with electric railroad lines. The power, it is said, is to be derived from the Santiam river, authority that the power and watand secured. A further statement by those conversant with the company's plans is, that if Corvallis grants a franchise, the town will be connected up and the line be in operation within four months.

It is understood that a franchise for use of the streets for poles for a asked for Corvallis. It is not to be an exclusive franchise, and would not debar any other company desire to purchase it. The plant would be such that it would supply unlimited horse power, and on that would place the town on an equal clusive. basis with all other towns as to the mensely more economical than is steam power, especially in these times when wood is high priced.

NOT radicals—but the distinctive suits we're showing this season are made for THIS Autumn season.

They're smart as they are handsome.

They are clothes of character and ditinctiveness containing every good point known to experienced tailormen.

Shapely shoulders and lapels—with studied line effects - and added lengths, make features in our clothes which prove interesting to most all modern men of today.

Suits $15 to $35 Overcoats $15 to $50
