—Assistant Manager Sam Damon arrived yesterday from Independence, Monmouth and Dallas, where he went to advertise the Eugene game, and to work up a passenger list for the special from those towns to connect with the Corvallis special excursion train to Eugene. Fifty to one hundred people are expected from that vicinity.

—An uncle of Judge McFadden died at Salem Sunday. He was Hon. Galbreath S. McFadden of Moundsville, West Virginia. He was out on a visit to relatives, having expected to reach Corvallis this week for a sojourn at the home of Judge McFadden. He was suddenly stricken with illness and died shortly after midnight Sunday morning. He was twice a state senator in West Virginia, and served two terms as superintendent of the state penitentiary. Though 80 years of age, he was still active in the politics of his state.

—There may yet be coal mines in Benton county. From Charles Henderson of Blodgett, a specimen of coal has been received by the real estate firm of Robinson & Stevenson. The specimen was taken from the well of A. L. Richardson, of Blodgett, 20 feet below the surface of the earth. The thickness of the sample shows the vein to be about two inches thick, and there is slate both above and below the vein. Parties familiar with coal, state that the veins in the sample indicate that there are other veins of the ore nearby.

—Wednesday's Eugene Register:—The assembly hour at the University will be given up this morning to the student body and plans for arousing enthusiasm for the big Corvallis game next Saturday will be discussed. The students are very anxious that there be a large attendance. Corvallis is coming by the train load. Whenever Oregon plays at Corvallis the whole town closes up shop and goes. When Pullman played Corvallis the attendance was 1,750, which compare with the few hundred at the Chemawa game yesterday. The game Saturday promises to be a hot one, and besides it is the last 'Varsity game here this season.

—The annual state convention of the Good Roads Association of Oregon is to meet this year in Corvallis. The date for it has been postponed a week. Originally it was scheduled for three days of sessions about the 15th. That happens to be the time when the excursion of Portland business men through the valley is arranged for, and the executive committee has fixed a later date by one week for the Good Roads meeting. The new date is, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, November 22nd, 23rd and 24th. The programme is being prepared, and it promises to be one of extreme interest, including addresses by many of the leading men of the state.

—J. D. Mann of Salem was a Corvallis business visitor today.

—Walter Wells of Portland, arrived today, and will spend a week with Corvallis relatives and friends.

—Brady Burnett arrived Wednesday from his Southern Oregon mines for a two weeks' visit with relatives.

—Karl Steiwer arrived this afternoon from Jefferson, and will join the Corvallis excursion to Eugene tomorrow.

—E. F. Wiles was doing business in town today. He is now a resident of Albany the removal having transpired last week.

—Miss Maggie Fowells is the possessor of a new Hobart & Cable piano. It was purchased through Prof. Taillandier.

—Mrs. Tressa Devine, formerly Miss Oleman of Corvallis, is slowly recovering from a serious surgical operation, performed recently in a Salem hospital.

—Mrs. S. N. Wilkins gave a birthday dinner last Sunday in honor of the birthdays of her husband, S. N. Wilkins, and J. H. Harris, whose birthday is on the same date as Mr. Wilkins'. The affair was very enjoyable.

—"Did you see that 'personal' that Magruder was writing?" "I couldn't help seeing it." "Well, what does he mean by saying, 'Return at once and all will be forgiven and forgotten.' Has his wife left him?" "No, his cook."

—The Study Whist club is to be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bryson tonight. The members are: Miss Gatch, Miss Holgate, Dr. Lester, Mr. and Mrs. Bryson Mr. and Mrs. Cordley and Mr. and Mrs. McKellips.

—The Willamette Valley Development League meets tomorrow at McMinnville. The principal subject to be discussed is the movement to secure the building of a railroad from the Willamette Valley to Coos Bay. Governor Chamberlain, James Withycombe and Judge Hewitt are among the speakers.

—A dispatch from Washington D. C. in Thursday's Portland Journal says: "H. L. Holgate of Corvallis, Oregon, a member of the legal department of the reclamation service and for sometime engaged in perfecting the organization of Waterusers in the Klamath basin, has resigned to enter upon private practice in Oregon. Holgate has made an excellent record in the service."

—In chapel at the State University the other day, Prof. Glenn, among others, gave a talk. According to the Register, he mentioned "that S. L. Kline, an enterprising merchant in Corvallis, had offered a fine college pillow to the first Farmer who would make a touchdown against Oregon. The professor thought that the pillow would still be seen in the aforesaid Kline's window after the game. It would be a fitting emblem, and should have "at rest" worked in the cover after the game."

THE EUGENE GAME.

Both Sides are Ready for the Play— Big Demonstration Tonight in Both Camps.

Except the shouting, it will all be over within a few hours. This afternoon, the coaches will finish their work, and tonight in the rival camps, there are to be monster rallies of the supporters of each eleven. Early in the morning the Independence-Monmouth-Dallas special will arrive with a quota of excursionists who will go with the Corvallis and Albany people on the Corvallis special. Four hundred and upward is the number of excursionists that Manager Stimson figures will pull out of Corvallis. Tickets both for the C. & E. and S. P. lines will be sold at the C. & E. station, where those who have already bought tickets should exchange them for the regular railroad tickets. The tickets already purchased, are not for use on the train, but only for exchange for the regular railroad tickets at the station. Because of the great rush, all who can should provide themselves with the regular tickets this afternoon or early tomorrow morning. The special will pull out at nine o'clock sharp, as Dr. Steckle is anxious to get his team to Eugene by 11 o'clock.

The game is attracting more attention than ever before. The statement is that 200 to 300 people will go up from Albany on the Corvallis special, while old University men and old College men from all parts of the state are flocking Eugeneward.

All the men in Steckle's bunch are in the best of condition. The wells about town have been kept closed and the firearms been kept out of reach, and the precaution has borne fruit. When the roll is called for the kickoff every player will be all there and at his very best. All OAC students pick the defenders of the Orange for winners.

SHIPPING APPLES.

From Benton County to Defiance, Ohio —Carload Goes Next Week.

A plan is afoot for the shipment of a carload of apples from Benton county to Defiance, Ohio. Henry Mangas, who recently returned to Corvallis from a visit there, says the markets are bare of apples, and none is to be had. He is arranging to secure enough for a carload, if possible, and to forward them by refrigerator car to friends of his at Defiance, who have requested him to supply them with Oregon apples. He is offering 75 cents per bushel for first class apples, and it costs about 90 cents to ship them. With $1.65 per bushel as the cost to dealers at Defiance, it may be seen that fruit is dear to the Ohioans, this season.

Incidentally Mr. Mangas will also send in the car, about 3,000 pounds of Benton county dried prunes to be sold at retail in his old home town.

Choice oats, vetch and chest seed to be had at reasonable prices, either at the Corvallis or Benton County Flourin Mills. A. W. Fischer.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by Graham & Wortham.

Butter.

Try a roll of that Maple Fron Creamery Butter, the sweetest, cleanest and best. At Thatcher & Johnson's.

For Sale.

Phonograph records in first class condition—twenty cents each. G. W. Denman, Corvallis.
