—An operation on Miss Whitby in Portland today was not satisfactory.

—Moses Kline returned Sunday to Portland, after a brief visit with his sister, Miss Pauline.

—C. H. Barnell and family departed for Portland Sunday, to reside.

—Born, at The Dalles November 9, to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chipman, a son.

—Burl Calloway of Brownsville visited relatives in this city Saturday and Sunday.

—The date in the address on your Times shows the time to which your subscription is paid.

—Mrs. Linnie Linville of Portland is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lenger, in this city.

—Charles Everett left today for Portland to resume work after a few days' visit with his family in this city.

—Miss Mae Smith, a former O. A. C. student, now a teacher in the public school of Peoria, spent Sunday in Corvallis with friends.

—Mrs. Sadie Hawley went to Portland Saturday to hear the reading of her deceased father's will. She returned Monday.

—If Eugene beat Willamette 11 to 6 and beat O. A. C. 6 to 0, what ought the score between Willamette and O. A. C. be?

—Miss Ruth Lilly, who has been spending a month near Roseburg, returned to Corvallis Saturday night after witnessing the football game at Eugene.

—Among former O. A. C. students attending the game at Eugene Saturday, were: Harry and Don Holgate, Harvey Bodine, Brady Burnett, Gyp Thurston, Alton Coates, James Zurcher.

—Revival service meetings are in progress at the United Evangelical church, with preaching every night by the pastor, Rev. Hurd. They were in progress all last week, and are to continue throughout this week. There is a growing interest in the services.

—The erection of a new residence on lots at the northeast corner of Adams and Ninth was begun yesterday morning. The site embraces two lots, purchased a few ago of W. A. Wells by George Brown at a cost of $400. The new dwelling is to be the home of Mr. Brown and family, their former home having been recently sold to B. G. Seely.

—It pays to buy at home, always. The things at home are as nice as those elsewhere. They are all made in the same factories, by the same hands and of the same materials. When you deal elsewhere you give your money to strangers and help to build up the town they live in, instead of the town you live in. The way to make a good town is to do business with your own townspeople.

—Among those who journeyed to Eugene to see the big football game were Harry and Don Holgate. They came all the way from Klamath Falls for the purpose, and so great was Don's disappointment that he returned home without coming to Corvallis. Don was a member of the O. A. C. team that defeated Eugene several years ago, 26 to 5. Harry came to Corvallis with the excursion after the game, but is to leave in a day or two for Klamath Falls, where he is engaged in the practice of law.

—Fred Stimson, Floyd Williams and Karl Steiwer, all of last year's graduating class at O. A. C. have been recommended by Lieut. Quinlan for lieutenantcies in the Philippine Constabulary. The appointing power rests with Brigadier General Allan in command of the Constabulary, who has recently arrived in this country from the Islands. To be eligible to the position, the appointee must be a graduate of one of nine military colleges of the country, one of which is O. A. C. Each college is entitled to three and it is probable each of the O. A. C. men named will get the position.

—H. R. Linville of Portland was a Corvallis visitor from Saturday until Monday.

—W. D. Jamieson left Monday for his home in Portland after spending a few days with friends.

—Born, in Albany Nov. 10th, to Mr. and Mrs. Alfrd C. Schmitt, a son.

—Miss Lessa Bush of O. A. C. spent Sunday in King's Valley with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bush.

—The Commercial restaurant changed hands again Friday. The new proprietor is Mr. Law, a recent arrival from Michigan.

—Miss Lottie Gray arrived yesterday from Tidewater to enter the Corvallis public school.

—Mrs. Joseph Wilson and children left yesterday for San Francisco to join Mr. Wilson, and the family will hereafter reside in that city.

—Attend the Hindoo entertainment at the college chapel Friday evening. There will be much that is instructive as well as entertaining.

—Arrangements are progressing for the reception of the Portland business men in Corvallis. They arrive at noon Friday and will be in town for an hour or two.

—The Samaritan Hospital has been opened in Salem with Miss O'Keefe as superintendent. Miss Anna Stout, formerly a resident of this city, is assistant superintendent.

—The Corvallis Water Company is digging trenches for water mains from the church west to Eighth, and then south on Eighth a distance of several blocks.

—The ladies of the Coffee club will give a dance tomorrow night at the City Hall. Fechter's orchestra of Albany will furnish the music.

—At a meeting of the city council last night, Councilman Emery resigned, and Walter Wiles was elected to the vacancy. Mr. Emery has removed from the tower into the upper ward, and the change of residence was the occasion for his resignation.

—Ed Jackson went to Portland Saturday and returned Monday with his wife, who has been in a hospital there for some time. Mrs. Jackson is much improved in health.

—Miss Isabel Whitby left Monday for Portland where she entered St. Vincent's hospital. She underwent a surgical operation this morning with Dr. Giesy and Dr. Farra as surgeons. Miss Whitby was accompanied by her mother.

—The programme of the Oregon Good Roads convention, to be held in Corvallis next week, appears in another column. Addresses are to be made by prominent men from all over the State. Governor Chamberlain has one of the addresses at the evening session on the second day.

—Oscar Gustafson has begun the erection of a new residence on his 30-acre tract west of town. The building when completed will cost about $1,200 and will include all modern conveniences. The building operations are under the direction of Will Holgate.

—Those who remember Jessie Shirley and Sam T. Shaw, and attended the production of "Broken Hearts" last night, saw two familiar faces in the persons of Mr. Frank B. Clayton and wife. Mr. Clayton took the part of Dave Russell and Mrs. Clayton, as Elsie Gresham, played Marcel. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton were married last summer in Salt Lake City while filling an engagement there.

—A hack load of Corvallisites drove over to Albany Saturday night. They were members of the Order of Washingtons, and they went on a surprise, which, however, was on the Corvallisites, as on their arrival they found the lodge not in session, and had to return home, more surprised than surprising.

...Several weeks ago a Nebraska farmer ordered a threshing machine from Gaar, Scott, & Co. A day or two ago the company received a letter from the Nebraskan saying his wife had brought suit for a divorce from him because he had taken steps to purchase a threshing outfit against her wishes. He asked to be released from the contract saying that if the firm would do this he thought that his wife would withdraw the suit for divorce. The firm wired the farmer the following message: "What God hath joined together, let no threshing machine put asunder. We will cancel your order. Have your wife withdraw her divorce suit."

—Big Millinery sale at Miss Johnson's Friday and Saturday, Nov. 17 and 18. Everything in the store reduced half price.

—Parties wishing to enter the printing office at this season of the year should be governed by the following rules: Advance to the inner door, give three distinct raps and the devil will attend to your alarm. You will give him your name, post-office address and number of years you are owing for the paper. He will admit you. You will advance to the center of the room, address the editor with the following countersign: Extend the right hand about two feet from the body, with the thumb and index finger clasping a $10 bill which drop into the extended hand of the editor, at the same time saying: "Were you looking for me?" The editor will say, "You bet!" After giving him the news, you will be permitted to retire with a receipt for an obligation properly discharged.

WHAT IS DOING.

In Water Works Construction—Dam Site Located—More Head.

Contractor H. Mitchell whose camp is now a mile and half below the intake on Rock Creek was in town yesterday for supplies. The contract for clearing the right of way, Mr. Mitchell has sublet to the Allen boys of Philomath, and operations are now in progress. Engineer Miller and party are working near the source of supply, and have already located the site for the dam. The latter is 1,000 feet further up the stream than was originally proposed, and besides giving an increased head of 30 feet, it avoids a 300 foot tunnel and results in a saving of several hundred dollars.

The Water Board meets every Monday evening now, and will continue so to do during construction operations. Last night J. E. Henkle of Philomath, met with the board and there is every prospect of a satisfactory arrangement between Mr. Henkle and the board with reference to the Henkle sawmill and its water rights.

FOR THREE NIGHTS.

Empire Theatre Company's Engagement at Opera House—Bill Tonight.

The Empire Theatrical Company opened a three night's engagement at the Corvallis Opera House last night. The offering was "A Broken Heart," and it held the attention of a fair-sized audience. The story deals with the entanglement of a prosperous miner with a scheming adventuress, and the situations resulting are full of pathetic interest. The work of the entire cast was highly creditable. Mr. Clayton, as the miner, Mr. Brooks as "Jack" the Shakespearean tramp, and Miss Gresham as the adventuress perhaps deserving special mention.

Tonight, at the Opera House, The Empire Theatre company will present the five act comedy drama, entitled, "The Diamond Necklace Robbery." This play tells a very pretty love story, one which appeals to the heart's best feelings and shows the great sacrifices often made in real life, by a true and devoted heart for the object of its affection. The comedy element is very strong, which makes a well balanced play, and one which always pleases.

"The Pride of Blue Canyon," a four act comedy drama, will be the offering of the company tomorrow night. This play was written more with a view to creating laughter, than to dramatic technique. The first three acts are set in the famous Blue Canyon, the last in New York City. Those who enjoy farce comedy, will be well repaid for attending.

HAVE YOU SEEN THEM?

Unless you have seen the new Fall Styles in "La Vogue" Ladies' Coats we have on display, you do not know how splendidly ready-to-wear garments can be made.

There is such splendid style and dressy tone to them, and they are so well sewed and finished that you'll be surprised.

They fit gracefully to the natural lines of the figure and the woman they would not become would be hard to fit.

Better see them before too many are sold

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by Graham & Wortham.
