At the regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Coffee Club Monday afternoon it was decided to give a card party Saturday night, December 2nd.

A new rectory is being built at Peoria by the people of the M. E. church, South. The paper and carpet go from the Blackledge furniture store.

Basket social at Plymouth church on the evening of Thanksgiving day, Thursday of this week. You are invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Lize Skipton have been in Portland for the past week. Mr. Skipton has placed himself in care of a physician in that city and may remain for some time.

"The Sunny Side of Life," at the First Methodist church Friday night, will be a holiday lecture, humorous in character and of great merit. The speaker is Dr. Short, of Portland.

The work of improvement on the Congregational church is nearing an end. The interior has been re-papered and re-painted, the pulpit has been extended and a new carpet will be laid. Later, a furnace is to be put in.

Eggs are now selling at 35 cents a dozen, in the local market. One dealer states that he remembers only one time when they were higher. About fifteen years ago they reached forty cents.

A penny candy store has been opened in the building formerly occupied by the steam laundry. It is conducted by Mrs. Charles Young and her son Harvey, and will no doubt be largely patronized by the youthful population of Corvallis.

The new men's furnishing goods store of A. K. Russ is now open to the public in the building formerly occupied by the Greffoz jewelry store. Mr. Russ is among the new business men of Corvallis, and will no doubt receive a welcome from the public.

Members of the Ellsworth Relief Corps No. 7 of this city are making up a fund for the furnishing of a cottage of the Old Soldier's Home at Roseburg. They will give an entertainment soon to which the public is invited. Don't forget the old soldier who carried the musket in '62.

Five dozen China pheasants left Corvallis this afternoon for the state of Kansas, where an attempt will be made to propagate them and stock the state with game. They were ordered of Gene M. Simpson by the state game warden of Kansas, and were shipped to the latter's address. Most of the birds were grown in the yards of Samuel Bane who closed out his entire stock to Mr. Simpson for the Kansas deal. The sum paid for the shipment in Corvallis was $145.

The fire alarm at 11.45 yesterday called out the department and caused a stir among pedestrians who were on their way home to dinner. The blaze caught from the flue and was on the roof of the dwelling formerly occupied by Guy Seeley, two doors south of the Catholic church. The fire was out before the department had fairly arrived on the scene. No damage resulted.

Mrs. H. W. Kaupisch visited Albany Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Gilbert, were Salem, were guests of Corvallis relatives Saturday.

Mrs. L. F. Wilson entertains the Afternoon Whist Club next Monday instead of Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon will be a farewell to Mrs. A. L. Knisely.

Lizzie King, a former Corvallis boy now of Portland has been appointed a mail clerk on the run between Corvallis and Portland. Old time friends are glad to see Mr. King on this line.

Miss Florence Wicks entertained number of friends at a card party Saturday evening, Miss Muriel Grissen of McMinnville, winning first honors, and C. S. Benson of Roseburg, the booby. A dainty lunch was served.

A recent musical function of unusual interest was a recital given by the new vocal pupils of Mrs. E. F. Green. The affair took place in the college chapel at 5 p. m. and the audience consisted of the choral class of Mrs. Green, numbering 75 members. A few friends were also present and the event is said to have been very enjoyable.

The W. R. C. ladies are preparing to give a social in their hall on the evening of December 15th. There will be a fine program, refreshments and a good time for all for 15 cents. The money is to be sent to Roseburg, to assist in furnishing cottages for indigent soldiers and their wives. Chances on a doll have been sold by the ladies and the lucky number will be announced at the social Dec 15th. The public is invited.

It is probable that more distinguished people attended the O. A. C.-Willamette football game than ever attended a football game in the interior of the Valley. Among those present were, Ex-Governor Geer, ex-Mayor Bishop of Salem, Judge P. H. D'Arcy, Salem, State Treasurer Moore, Judge John H. Scott, Salem, Prof. W. C. Hawley, prominently mentioned for Congress, W. N. Gatens, private secretary to Governor Chamberlain, A. N. Moores, Salem, and many other notable people from various parts of the valley.

NEW JURORS DRAWN.

Some were Excused—They will Hear the Liquor Cases—The New men.

Yesterday afternoon, four new jurors were drawn for the term of adjourned court to convene Monday December 18th. An equal number of the late venire were excused by Judge Harris, the most if not all of them having legal reasons. One was J. P. Hummer who was excused on the ground that he is a minister of the gospel. Another is Louis Hartley, absent most of the time at his mines in the Bohemia district, and not available for jury duty in Benton. A third is L. A. Brush, who is a non-resident, having removed from Benton county to Portland about a year ago. The fourth is Frank Dinges, who was excused from jury duty on account of sickness in his family.

The names of the men drawn in to fill out the jury list are, H. M. Flemming, farmer, Corvallis; Ed Buxton, carpenter, Corvallis; J. W. Buster, farmer, Alesia; and W. A. Bates, accountant, Corvallis. So far as known the only trials to come before the jury at the coming term will be the Corvallis liquor cases. There are no civil cases requiring a jury on the docket, and nothing is known of matters to come before the grand jury or district attorney aside from the cases growing out of the operation of Mike Kline's establishment.

WAS A VICTORY

For OAC—Bested Willamette Twenty-Eight to Naught—Great Game.

In play more brilliant than any ever put up by a team of the institution, the OAC men visited disaster upon the powerful Willamette University eleven at football last Friday. The game was on college field, and the score 28 to 0, in the favor of Steckle's men. Two touchdowns in the first, and three in the second, with three goals kicked by Cooper are the story of the game. The formations delivered by the OAC men fell with telling effect on the Salem line and ends from the very first and the advantage was followed up with such vigor that Bishop's men never got a chance to rally. The Steckle tactics of sweeping the enemy from their feet and of showering plays on them with increasing energy were administered with flawless accuracy and marvellous power, with the result that Willamette was completely outclassed and was never actually in the play.

Salem never made the five yards necessary to carry the ball beyond a third down. Her attempted advance of the ball during the game was probably less than half a dozen yards. Steckle's men carried the ball a sheer 440 yards, requiring 155 yards for the first touchdown, 77 for the second, 27 for the third, 75 for the fourth and 108 for the fifth. O A C fumbled the ball but once, Cherry's passing of the oval being remarkable in view of the fact that he was for the first time playing in a regulation eleven. Salem profited by the fumble, and this with twice that she held O A C for downs and once that Rinehart punted on a first down was the only time she had the ball save on O A C's single kickoff.

In the game, Steckle's men executed 79 plays in their 440 yards of advance. Captain Root took the ball 22 times and in all advanced it 134 yards. Dolan carried the ball 17 times and netted gains of 109 yards. Abraham was given the oval 16 times and earned 66 yards, Walker 13 times and advanced 64 yards, Griffith, nine times and netted gains of 59 yards, Rinehart carried it twice and gained 8 yards.

A great factor in the victory was the behavior of the Agric line. When the Salem men hurled themselves against it, they nearly always bounced back from the impact netting a loss instead of a gain. Eq-Captain Long of the Willamettes, who helped to tear the Eugene line in fragments at Salem, said, after the game, that no aggregation on the Coast could have smashed the OAC line as it played that day.

A factor in the offense was Walker and Dolan at tackles. Both were used freely in attacks, both as interference and carrying the ball and their great weight with that of the heavy backs told with tremendous effect on the defense of the Salemites. The lineup was as follows:

Table with 3 columns: O. A. C., Position, W. U. Rows include Cherry, Nelson, Bundy, Little, Marker, Dolan, Pollard, Cooper, Henkle, Dunlap, Philbrook, Walker, Kellar, Emily, Rose, Coleman, Rinehart, Patton, Griffith, Sweek, Nace, Lounbury, Root, R. H., Loug, Abraham, F., Rader.

Have you ever tried to figure out why J. M. Nolan & Son's news paper announcements sound so convincing and why people respond almost immediately from all parts of the city and suburbs? It isn't the advertisements themselves so much as the reputation back of the advertisements. You never heard of any one being being disappointed in their special Friday Economy Sales of ours, did you? You never heard of any one who did not get precisely what was promised; of course you haven't—and you never will; that's why their advertising and their Friday Sales are so splendidly successful.
