For advertisements in this column the rate of 15 cents per line will be charged.

—Mark McAllister, of Marion county, was up for an over-Sunday visit this week.

—Maillard Long spent Thanksgiving with friends in Independence.

—Tom Nolan returned home Sunday night from Seattle and Portland.

—Donald Graham arrived Monday morning from Grants Pass and is a guest at the home of Dr. Farra.

—Ben L. Eddy, formerly of Corvallis but now a Tillamook lawyer, has been named by the president as registrar of the Roseburg land office.

—Chester Henkle, who is attending college in Salem, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, who reside at Philomath.

—R. E. Gibson of Portland has been a Corvallis visitor on business the past week.

—The Sophomores had a party in Miss Snell's room at the college Friday evening. It was well attended and a highly enjoyable event.

—Mrs. A. L. Knisely and children leave tomorrow for Battle Creek, Michigan. Mr. Knisely is to accompany them as far as Portland.

—Albany Democrat: The OAC boys covered themselves with glory by beating Washington 15 to 0. They are the best team in the North west.

—Mrs. Ed Andrews has since Friday been at the bedside of a brother in a Portland hospital. Late reports are to the effect that Mrs. Andrews expects to enter a hospital tomorrow and undergo an operation for appendicitis.

—Otto Hathaway and Maillard Long have established a shooting gallery in connection with the Long bicycle store. The gallery began business yesterday morning.

—Logan Hays, for many years the popular Western Union operator in this city, has been in Corvallis for several days on a visit to his mother. Mr. Hays was recently the assistant cashier in the Oregon Savings Bank of Portland. He has, however, resigned his position to engage in other business in Portland.

—Fred Kerr gave a party Thursday evening to about 20 young friends. Light refreshments, and games were the features, and all had a good time. On Saturday evening about 30 of the O. A. C. sophomores gathered at the Kerr home and held a second party, and all report a jolly time.

—Two weeks ago, Mr. McAllister, aged 80 and residing a few miles beyond the Willamette, figured in a runaway accident, and the net result was one shoulder broken, one shoulder dislocated and five ribs broken, besides other injuries. In spite of his years, he is already out of most of his bandages.

—The football men arrived home Saturday. Aside from the bruises incident to a hard game, all are in good condition, except Kenneth Cooper, who has a knee sprain that slightly lames him. All accounts agree that the game was the hardest the boys have encountered this season, save that played in California. The men began training yesterday afternoon for the big game with Multnomah next Saturday, which there is every reason to believe the college boys ought to win.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian church have decided to hold their annual Christmas sale during the afternoon and evening of Wednesday December 6th at the Farmers Hotel. They will also have on sale home made candies and popcorn crisps and will also serve sandwiches and coffee. They will have a special booth for the sale of good things to eat, such as home made bread, cakes, pies, doughnuts and other digestibles. Beginning at 5 o'clock they will serve a light supper for 20 cents consisting of ham sandwiches, pickles, potato salad, cake and coffee.

—Among those at Seattle to see the Washington-OAC game was Prof. Hayward, formerly of the college, now in an electrical establishment at Victoria, B. C. He made the eight-hour trip to see the game, and was one of the heartiest of the Oregon men's supporters. Another was Tom McFadden, former coach of the OAC team, and like Prof. Hayward, he was an enthusiastic supporter and more than delighted with the Oregon victory. Frank Groves was on hand with a band of rooters from the Bremerton Navy Yard, so that the OAC boys, with the crowd they took along had plenty of music along the side lines.

—Mrs. Horgan of Salem arrived Monday, and is a guest at the Mangas home.

—Mr. and Mrs. Gus Harding expect to move into their new residence this week.

—J. H. Harris returned today from a business trip to Portland. He left Sunday.

—Walter Sheasgreen, Western Union operator at Albany, spent Sunday with his mother in this city.

—J. W. Ingle is in Walla Walla, on a visit to his daughter. He left Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ninez Francisco were Portland visitors Sunday and Monday.

—Miss Thia Johnson is the guest for a week of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Price in Kings Valley. She left Saturday.

—Prof. E. F. Pernot has been confined to his home since Thursday with an attack of pleurisy. He is recovering very slowly.

—Willard Ireland, of Independence, is now a Corvallis business man. He is a brother of Clarence Ireland, and is a gentlemanly and deserving young man. He has purchased the D. D. Berman grocery establishment, and is now in charge, though this morning the invoicing was still in progress. The consideration in the deal is understood to be about $2,500. The trade was engineered by Robinson & Stevenson.

—At the regular meeting of Friendship lodge, A. O. U. W., on last Friday, the following were elected as officers for the following year: John Allen, M. W.; E. Holgate, F.; Roy Woodcock, recorder; S. L. Kline, receiver; J. F. Porter, guide; F. G. Clark, inside watch; W. B. Lacy, outside watch; Jesse Spencer, trustee for three years; G. R. Farra and H. S. Pernot, medical examiners; W. C. Corbett, P. M. W.

—The following musical numbers will be given by the choir at the Congregational church at their annual praise service Sunday evening: Anthem, "Let the People Praise Thee." Trio, "Lo, my Shepherd is Divine," Miss Allen, J. C. Knapp and Ed Hughes. Solo, "The Way of the Cross," Mrs. C. E. Peterson. Chant by male quartette. Response, Choir. Solo and chorus, "The Heavenly Song," Mrs. Berchtold and Cadies Chorus. Anthem, "But the Lord is Mindful of his own," Duet, "Love Divine" Miss Allen and Mr. Knapp.

—The first boat of the season arrived Sunday afternoon. The Willamette is now at good boating stage, and hereafter boats will run on schedule making three round trips per week between Corvallis and Port and. The leaving days will be Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and the arriving days Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The hour for departure is six o'clock a. m. J. B. Irvine has been appointed local agent of the company, and the office at the dock is open regularly for receipt and delivery of freight. The steamer Pomona is on the regular run.

—They had a city election at Philomath yesterday. In the second ward, the vote resulted in a tie on two of the candidates for councilmen, Stanley Watkins and Mr. Caldwell receiving the same number of ballots. The election resulted, mayor, J. G. Becker; recorder, W. T. Bowles; treasurer, J. E. Henkle; councilmen 1st ward, Guy Frink and R. E. Pugh; 2nd ward, C. B. Davis and a tie as to Mr. Watkins and Mr. Caldwell; 3rd George Bennett and M. V. Leeper. The vote on the question of whether or not cows should be allowed to run at large within the city limits resulted against restriction of the liberties and privileges of the bovine.

—Except Miss Harriet and Miss Mabel, Mrs. Sheasgreen and family left today to join Mr. Sheasgreen in Portland, where they are hereafter to reside. Many Corvallis friends regret their departure. Mrs. Sheasgreen has been a factor in the Degree of Honor lodge, of which she is a past chief of honor, and in which she has from time immemorial held official position. She has also been a leading spirit in the Catholic church, of both town and county, having served since May 1892 as organist of the local church during which long period she was absent but twice, a record of faithful attendance seldom if ever duplicated. Many gatherings of a farewell character have been held in honor of the departure of the family, notably one by the Degree of Honor lodge at which Mrs. Sheasgreen was presented with a handsome token of esteem. The latter was an elegant emblem of a past chief of honor of the order. The family left for Portland today. Misses Harriet and Mabel Sheasgreen will remain in this city.

—Born, yesterday morning, to Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Beach, a son.

—Prof. and Mrs. Coote spent Thanksgiving at Newport. They returned Monday.

—Mrs. E. T. Simpson left for Portland Tuesday to be absent a few days.

—Lou Southworth, the well known "colored gentleman" of Alsea, was in Corvallis Saturday, shaking hands with old acquaintances.

—Rev. John E. H. Simpson of St. Mark's church Portland will be the preacher at the Episcopal church Friday evening at 7-30.

—Hugh Taylor returned to Monmouth after a few days visit at home. His sister, Miss Nettie, also left Monday to re-enter the Albany college.

—Miss Laura Persinger returned to Monmouth Monday to resume her studies at the State Normal. She was a guest over Thanksgiving of her parents at Bellefontaine.

—The Order of Washington had a pleasant social time at their hall last night. Each member was requested to invite one friend, and the result was a large attendance. The report is that the event was very enjoyable.

—The chorus which is being instructed by Mr. Herse met as usual Monday evening in College chapel. After the practice, refreshments were served by several of the ladies and a social time enjoyed.

—The Ladies Aid Societies of the United Evangelical church are preparing for a sale to be given on the 15th and 16th of this month. Place and particulars to be announced later.

—Yesterday was "pension day" at the clerk's office and before noon 35 old soldiers had been in to have their papers signed. These days are busy ones for Clerk Moses, considerable writing being necessary on each set of papers presented.

—C. D. Abbott and family now occupy the property recently purchased by them, just west of the D. D. Berman home. The place vacated by them is now occupied by M. L. Ernest and family.

—Jack Milne and Carl Pressly have opened a cigar store in the old Rose building next door north of Kline's. A complete stock of the best brands of cigars will be carried. The back room is to be fitted up for pool and billiards. The place has been christened "The Gem." It is expected to have the place open for business tomorrow night.

—Rumors have been flying about town for several days to the effect that the U. of O. football team had asked O. A. C. for another game to be played in Portland. Another form of the reports was that Multnomah had offered each of the big State teams $1,000 to play a game in Portland, and that Eugene had already accepted. In spite of the preposterous conditions involved in the rumors, there were numerous believers. There is about as much likelihood of Eugene being induced to play O. A. C. another game of football this season, as there is for the world to change the direction of turning its axis. The Eugene boys are a smart bunch, and they will not hunt another game with O. A. C. this season, no—not for the world.

—Oregonian:—Preparations are being made to handle a record Saturday crowd on the day of the game, for the performances of the O. A. C. team stamps it as the strongest team that will visit this city this season. The defeat by Oregon has been more than offset by the performances since that time for Corvallis has decisively beaten both Willamette and Washington Universities. Willamette lost to Oregon by the score of 10 to 6, while Washington tied the Oregon team, and O. A. C. piled up scores of 29 to 0 against the Salem aggregation, and walloped Washington to the tune of 15-0 score, which would indicate that the "Farmers" are considerably stronger than the State Varsity.

—New lot of freshly loaded shotgun shells. All kinds of football supplies.

A Habit to Be Encouraged.
The mother who has acquired the habit of keeping on hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saves herself a great amount of uneasiness and anxiety. Coughs, colds and croup, to which children are susceptible, are quickly cured by its use. It counteracts the tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and if given as soon as the first symptoms of croup appear, it will prevent the attack. This remedy contains nothing injurious and mothers give it to little ones with a feeling of perfect security. Sold by Graham & Wortham.

Common Colds are the Cause of Many Serious Diseases.
Physicians who have gained a national reputation as analysts of the cause of various diseases claim that if catching cold could be avoided a long list of dangerous ailments would never be heard of. Everyone knows that pneumonia and consumption originate from a cold, and chronic catarrh, bronchitis, and all throat and lung trouble are aggravated and rendered more serious by each fresh attack. Do not risk your life or take chances when you have a cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure it before these diseases develop. This remedy contains no opium, morphine or other harmful drug, and has thirty years of reputation back of it, gained by its cures under every condition. For sale by Graham & Wortham.
