Before long, it will be the thing to have such an establishment in Corvallis. —The Congregational church choir members were delightfully entertained at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Green Wednesday evening, at dinner. There was music and a general social time, the occasion being greatly enjoyed by the guests. —The will of Harriett Hill has been filed for probate. By its terms all of the property, both real and personal, is bequeathed to her son, L. W. Hill, who is named as executor, without bonds. A condition of the will is "that my husband H. W. Hill shall have and receive of the above bequest a maintenance, support, and a comfortable home so long as the said H. W. Hill shall live." —Miss Maria Howard, aged 40 years, died at her home at Coburg Wednesday evening, after a brief illness. The remains were taken to Monroe where the funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. M. Waltz at ten o'clock today. Interment was in Monroe cemetery. Deceased was an estimable lady, and leaves many friends who mourn her passing. She formerly resided in Corvallis. —Five carloads of onions passed through town the other day, en route to California markets. They came from Beaverton and from the Newberg division of the Westside, and were transferred via the C. & E. to Albany, and thence sent southward via the Southern Pacific. In all, seventeen cars of onions have passed over the same route, bound for California, which state has a powerful appetite for Oregon onions. —Congregational church, worship and sermon at 11, "The Making of a Christian." Of course, in each town there will be effort to have its candidate win, which will have the effect to increase the subscriptions. It is said Miss Wilson had a promise of 10,000 votes before she consented for her name to be used. Friends of Miss Lulu Spangler have also submitted her name as a candidate for the trip, and many votes are said to be available in her interest. —A new schedule is to go into effect on the C. & E. at once. The time card is not yet in the hands of the local agent, and all the details in the way of changes are not known. The day will, however, begin as usual with the 6:30 train for Albany, and at 8:30 the same train will arrive from Albany. The 11:30 and 1:30 schedule will not be changed. The five o'clock train for Albany will not leave until six o'clock. The night mail train will not be changed. The largest change is that the week day service will extend to Sunday and there will be a train to and from Albany at noon, besides the two morning and two evening trains on Sunday. It is also said that there will be a train leaving here every day at 12:30 and returning at 3.20 p. m. Practically all these trains are to carry mail, a portion of which is now brought by the Albany stage.

SESSIONS END TONIGHT. Benton County Sunday Sch of Association Meets. The 22nd annual convention of the Benton County Sunday School Association convened at the Presbyterian church in this city, at 2 p. m. yesterday, and will conclude its business at the 8:30 o'clock meeting at the Congregational church tonight. The meeting has been well attended and very interesting. The opening session yesterday began with a song and prayer service conducted by Rev. M. S. Bush, followed by organization and appointment of committees. Rev. W. C. Merritt then led in the round table conference and Sunday school management, and Prof Tarter discussed "How we may Train our Future Teachers." Rev. Merritt spoke on, "The Synoptic Gospels, Turning the Light Upon the Lessons of 1906," and the meeting concluded with a roll call of Sunday school and registration. The evening session included song and prayer service led by Prof. Shaw; address, "Reaching the Unreached," by I. E. Caldwell, of Philomath College; special music and announcements; address, "Our Inspiration in Working with the Young," by Rev. Merritt. The morning session began in a song and prayer service led by Rev. Green; "Walks with Jesus," Rev. Merritt; "Getting and Keeping our Scholars," Rev. E. H. Belknap; "What we Should Know About our Pupils," W. C. Swann; "Round Table Conference, Decision day and Its Possibilities," Rev. Merritt. This afternoon the session was taken up with song and prayer service led by Rev. Noble; the hearing of business reports: "The Master Teaching the Preciousness of the Lost," Rev. Merritt; "Possibilities of the Primary Department," Mrs. J. E. Henkle; "The Cradle Roll," Mrs. R. J. Nichols; "The Little Beginners," Mrs. J. A. Cramer; "Round Table Conference, the Sunday School Teacher," Rev. Merritt. Tonight at the Congregational church the closing session will be held, as follows: Song and prayer service, Rev. Hurd; address, "The Book we use," Prof. Edwards; special music and an address, "Organized to win" Rev. Merritt. At Bellefontaine. ONLY 3 days more for our great Mid-Winter Sale. J.M. Nolan & Son QUALITY STORE One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned. The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by Graham & Wortham.

Common Colds are the Cause of Many Serious Diseases. Physicians who have gained a national reputation as analysts of the cause of various diseases, claim that if catching cold could be avoided a long list of dangerous ailments would never be heard of. Everyone knows that pneumonia and consumption originate from a cold, and chronic catarrh, bronchitis, and all throat and lung trouble are aggravated and rendered more serious by each fresh attack. Do not risk your life or take chances when you have a cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure it before these diseases develop. This remedy contains no opium, morphine or other harmful drug, and has thirty years of reputation back of it, gained by its cures under every condition. For sale by Graham & Wortham.
