—Miss Lulu Spangler left Sunday to attend the wedding of Miss Anna Samuels and William Sansome which occurs in Portland tomorrow.

—Judges and clerks for the city election were appointed by the city council last night. They are: judges, Caleb Davis, R. H. Colbert, Joseph Yates; clerks, C. A. Gould and S. L. Henderson.

—Albany Herald:—Miss Etta Carter, of the city schools, who is ill, left Sunday for home. She will spend a week at her home in Halsey in the hope that the change will help to restore her to health as quickly as possible. Miss Carter's many friends in this city hope for her speedy recovery.

—A pathetic story comes from Fall River, Massachusetts, where an insane mother, aged thirty-six, a passenger on a coastwise steamer, during the night threw her children of eight and five years and a baby overboard and jumped after them into the ocean. The children were heard crying in the night and in the morning all were missing.

—The O. A. C. basket ball men are to have a trip to Ashland. The Normal School team in that town has offered them expenses to come, and the offer has been accepted. The game will be played on Friday night of next week. The boys will leave here on the day preceding.

—A count was made of the number of voters registered at the clerk's office Saturday night. The aggregate then was 886. The registrations since have raised the total to a few above 900. Nearly one-half of the electors in the county now have their names on the big book.

—The box social given by the Bellefountain band boys Saturday night netted them over $70, the boxes selling for from $1.00 to $4.25 each. A drama, entitled "Oak Farm" was produced that was much complimented by the audience. The players give the drama tonight at Monroe.

—Mrs. E. T. Simpson gave a tea Saturday in honor of Miss Holmes, who has been her guest for a week past. The afternoon was pleasantly passed with games interspersed with music. The guests were: Mesdames Lewis, Hart, Pernot, Jones, Borst, Henderson, Pernot, Farrar, Keady, Allen, Coote, Graham, Sparkman, Flett and Miss Snell.

—The funeral of Miss Eva Bell Day occurred from the Christian church at two o'clock yesterday afternoon. The service was conducted by Mrs. Humbert, of Eugene, and the interment was in Crystal Lake cemetery. Miss Day died Sunday of typhoid fever, after an illness of seven weeks. She had, at one time almost recovered but in an evil hour more nourishment than should have been allowed was given her and a relapse ensued which proved fatal. She was 19 years of age, and was a deserving young girl, whose removal will be keenly felt by the family, in which she was one of the props. She was born in Dakota, and came with her family to Corvallis a dozen years ago. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Day.

—James Taylor arrived unexpectedly Saturday night from New Mexico, where he went to spend the winter. His health is not improved.

—The Benton County sawmill is in full operation, both the plants at Philomath and at the mill proper having started up several days ago. Prices are high, and the demand for lumber is so great that the company is barely able to fill orders.

—A dozen members of the Knights of Pythias left on today's 12:40 train for Salem to be present tonight at the district convention of the order. Among those who went are, Thomas Whitehorn, W. G. Emery, Sam Damon, Frank Francisco, Henry Gerhard, A. McClure, G. A. Cooper, Charles Colbert, and G. B. Whitney.

—The greasers who were employed on the ditching work for the pipe line left yesterday for Southern Oregon where they are to do railroad work. They were brought from Portland recently to work on the pipe line, but the late storm has been so heavy that operations are impossible for the present. Contractor Mitchell's entire force has been idle for several days. As fast as the weather will permit, they are to test the pipe with water pressure, water from a stream in the vicinity being available for the purpose.

—A Butte Montana dispatch says: Fred D. Herbold, a football player and coach who has been engaged in the drug business in this city for the past few years, has disposed of his business and will coach the football team of the Oregon Agricultural College. Herbold once played right tackle at Purdue University. He coached the University of Idaho with success. Seven years ago he was a member of the famous Butte team, in which "Big Jim" Hooper was captain. Herbold is a Eugene boy and was formerly a member of the University of Oregon team. He also coached the O. A. C. team about four years ago.

—The Empire Theatre Company opened at the Opera house last night for a three nights' engagement. The bill was Dora, and a large and appreciative audience was present. The work of the company is good, and is deserving of patronage. Frank Clayton is with the company, and so is A. E. Brooks, the latter of whom is a clever character actor. His work as William Allen last night brought out universal commendation. Miss Elsie Gresham in the title role was heartily applauded. The bill tonight is "A Broken Heart," a four act drama of attractive character. A feature of each performance is the specialties in which Miss Ruth Willman, a 16-year-old miss, in acrobatic stunts is very popular. The bill tomorrow night is, "The Parisian Princess."

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live from One Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by Graham & Wortham.

If you knew the value of Chamberlain's Salve you would never wish to be without it. Here are some of the diseases for which it is especially valuable: sore nipples, chapped hands, burns, frost bites, chilblains, chronic sore eyes, itching piles, tetter, salt rheum and eczema. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Graham & Wortham.

mark. But I don't believe the books now in the headquarters will show anything.

"I know what I am talking about when I say that for the last four years the executive committee and the auditing committee have been dominated by the inner circle. By that I mean that the majority of the men on these committees were under the thumb of Haywood or Pettibone or one or two others that have not been mentioned.

Boise, Idaho, Feb. 25.—Governor Gooding tonight gave out a statement concerning the confession of Harry Orchard, in which he took occasion to eulogize the work of the detectives who have worked up the case against the assassin of ex-Governor Steunenberg.

According to Detective McParland, it took Orchard five days in which to make his confession. He began January 27 and finished January 31, and Governor Gooding said it would take an entire day to read this confession.

In his statement Governor Gooding says that Orchard has told the history of his life from the beginning to the end. If Orchard in his confession tells what is true, he is the champion murderer of this or any other century. He has made admission of having committed 26 murders, all of which were the result of conspiracies, and in which the officers of the Western Federation of Miners, through its famous "Inner Circle," are implicated.

"I want to state officially," said Governor Gooding, "that Harry Orchard has made a full confession as to the manner and motive of the assassination, telling of the plans made and giving the names of those making them. The assassination of Steunenberg, which occurred at his own gate, was the third attempt that Orchard made against his life.

"In that confession Orchard implicated all those now under arrest and others, including J. L. Simpkins. When this story is given to the Public, I believe it will be the greatest narrative of crime which the world knows.

"There has never been any doubt as to the truth of Orchard's confession among those who are familiar with the crimes committed in Idaho and Colorado and charged to the inner circle of the Western Federation of Miners. I attribute Orchard's confession to the great brain of James McParland, who has been employed by the state to run down the murderers.

"I have seen Orchard myself since this confession was made. He told me that he was not promised either clemency or reward by Mr. McParland or any one else.

"The finding of the bomb at Judge Goddard's gate and many other things which will later be made known at the trial have proved the truthfulness of Orchard's confession beyond all question to those familiar with his story.

"The state desires to secure justice. There is no thought of punishing the innocent or waging war on any labor organization. The wish to announce that I have withdrawn the offer of $5,000 reward, made by the state.

A reward of $1,000 is now offered by us, for information offered for the arrest of B. L. Simpkins, and this is the only reward now in connection with the Steunenberg assassination.

At Bellefountain.

The drama and box supper given by and for the benefit of the Bellefountain band was a great success, both socially and financially. The weather was somewhat against them, but the people of the community seemed to appreciate their efforts by a good attendance and good order. There was about $71 taken in to their credit of which the boys are very thankful.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Benton County.
MYRTLE BENSON, Plaintiff, versus
JOHN T. BENSON, Def't.

To John T. Benson, the above named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled suit in the above entitled court, now on file in the office of the clerk of said court, on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons made by the county judge of Benton county, state of Oregon (which order is hereinafter referred to) to wit, March 23d, 1906, and you are hereby notified that if you fail so to appear and answer the said complaint as herein required, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the above entitled court for the relief demanded in her said complaint, namely, for a decree of divorce from the said defendant forever dissolving the marriage contract existing between the plaintiff and said defendant, and for such other further and different relief, order or relief, as to the court may seem proper.

This summons is published in the Corvallis Times once a week for six successive and consecutive weeks, beginning with the issue of February 9, 1906, and ending with the issue of March 23, 1906, under and in pursuance of the directions contained in an order made by the Hon. Virgil E. Waters, county judge of Benton county, Oregon, being the county where the above entitled suit is pending in the above entitled circuit court, dated February 8, 1906. Date of first publication hereof is February 16, 1906. E. E. WILSON, Plaintiff's Attorney.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by Graham & Wortham.
