—Dr. A. Olmstead of Portland is to be in Corvallis Wednesday, and will lecture in the W. O. W. hall that evening in the interest of the United Artisan lodge. There is to be special music and the public is welcome to attend. The lecture begins at 8.30.

—Congregational church. Worship and sermon 11 a. m., subject, "The Quest that is Worth While." Evening sermon at 7.30. "Another of Life's Great Contrasts" being the second in the series. There will be fine music as part of these services.

—Two Linn county men were at the college Wednesday, investigating methods of alfalfa production. They were Thomas Froman and Hon. J. K. Weatherford. Both are planning to engage in alfalfa production, and in company with Dr. Withycombe looked over the alfalfa fields on the College farm.

—The vocal department of OAC will give a public recital next Wednesday evening, March 7th, at 8 o'clock, in the college chapel. The entire programme will be given by Miss Edna Allen, Miss Gertrude Miller, Miss Marie Pelland and Messrs Ed R. Hughes and Walter A. Tyler, assisted by Leo J. Rosenstein, violinist. All are cordially invited to attend.

—A number of the teachers of the Corvallis public schools are going to Albany tomorrow to attend a local institute to be given at the Central school building in that city under the direction of County Superintendent Jackson of Linn county. Among those who are to assist in the institute work are Superintendent Ackerman, Miss Sloan of Portland, said to be the best primary teacher in Oregon, and Miss Howard, secretary of the State Library commission. The fine train service between the towns makes it easy for local teachers to attend the institute.

—The Knights of Maccabees had a jubilee at their hall Wednesday evening when State Commander Sherwood of Portland paid them a fraternal visit. Several members of the order were present from the Albany lodge, and in all about 80 people attended. There was a program that embraced graphophone selections, a duet by M. L. Adams and Mr. Bullis, a selection and two encores by the young men's quartette composed of George and Collie Cathey, E. R. Hughes and Arthur Bouquet, two recitations by Minerva Kiger, and a piano solo by Frank White. A banquet was the concluding feature of a very happy evening.

—A large number of ladies attended the meeting of the W. H. M. S. of the M. E. church at the Wellsher home Wednesday afternoon. The program consisted of readings by Mrs. Swann and Mrs. V. E. Watters, a number by the girls' quartette, composed of Elsie Rice, Marie Cathey, Evalyn Smith and Bessie Ray, a vocal duet by Mrs. Swann and Mrs. S. B. Bane, and two guitar solos by Mrs. Grace E. Hall. Very dainty refreshments were served, and at the close of the affair a resolution was adopted that the next meeting of the society be held in the church basement; and that the gentlemen members of the church be invited to attend.

—A pile driving appliance and a gang of workmen are driving piles in the edge of the Willamets at the Corvallis creamery. A portion of the new building that the establishment is to have will extend over the bank and rest on the piling. The driving of the piles is also essential as a means of protection for the bank.

—Tonight, in the chapel of Willamette University at Salem, occurs the inter-collegiate debate between O. A. C. and Willamette University teams. The O. A. C. team is Mark Weatherford, leader, Miss Minnie Phillips and Warren Kersythe. The question is, Resolved, "That Our Federal Immigration Laws Should Be so Constructed as to Give All Aliens the Same Chance for Admission to the United States." The local team left for Salem at 11 o'clock. O. A. C. has the affirmative of the question.

—R. M. Gilbert, inspector for the Water Board at the Tacoma pipe factory, arrived yesterday, and is to remain. All the pipe for the line from the intake to the Corvallis city limits has been completed, and the last of it was shipped from Tacoma Tuesday night. Within a very short time, as soon as the weather becomes favorable, the last of it will have been delivered along the line. With suitable weather conditions, Contractor Mitchell could complete laying the break between the city limits and the end of the pipe on the other side of Baldy in two weeks time. Mr. Gilbert says the pipe made since he went to Tacoma is as fine as can be manufactured from wood and iron, the finest of materials having been used, and the mechanical work being perfect. He says, pipe from the factory from which the Corvallis pipe is coming is the most substantially made of any of the three factories on the Sound.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live from One Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by Graham & Wortham.

If you knew the value of Chamberlain's Salve you would never wish to be without it. Here are some of the diseases for which it is especially valuable: sore nipples, chapped hands, burns, frost bites, chilblains, chronic sore eyes, itching piles, tetter, salt rheum and eczema. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Graham & Wortham.

A SUCCESSFUL MEETING.

Parents Join in Affair At Fairmount.

The parents' meeting at Fairmount last Saturday was well attended notwithstanding the constant down pour all day. Every number on the regular program was carried out according to arrangement. The flag drill by the Fairmount twenty boys and girls was well done and the chorus from the Richland school entitled "Peerless Oregon" was sung very nicely. Those reciting were Coy Bailey, Johnny Hale, Corry, Lena Hilbert, Gordon Ryals, and a song by Myrtle Crabtree.

The regular program consisted of entertaining talks on the following subject by the following persons: "The Relation of Good Literature to Good Citizenship," Rev. S. W. Launer; "Compulsory Law of Education, Parents' Duty," S. P. Launer; "Directors' Duty," M. V. Leeper; "Teacher's Duty to Pupil in the School," T. J. Kelsey; "In the Home," J. B. Leatherman; "The Oldest Institution in the World," T. T. Vincent; "Consolidation vs. New District," J. G. Gibboon. The last subject aroused much interest and discussion. The Fairmount district has become so large and the school so crowded that some advocate dividing the district, others changing the location of the house and adding another room, and others consolidating with Albany and transporting the pupils in wagons. A meeting is to be held in the near future to further discuss the matter.

The basket dinner enabled all to spend the noon hour in a most enjoyable manner. City Superintendent T. A. Hayes, of Albany, and County Superintendent Jackson of Linn, helped in the day's work. The next parents' meeting will be held at Wells on Saturday, March 17, in Artisan hall.

Summons.
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Benton County.
MYRTLE BENSON, Plaintiff, versus
JOHN T. BENSON, Def't.
To John T. Benson, the above named defendant:
In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled suit in the above entitled court, now on file in the office of the clerk of said court on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons made by the county judge of Benton county, state of Oregon, which order is hereinafter referred to, to wit, March 23d, 1906, and you are hereby notified that if you fail so to appear and answer the said complaint as herein required, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the above entitled court for the relief demanded in her said complaint, namely, for a decree of divorce from the said defendant, forever dissolving the marriage contract existing between the plaintiff and said defendant, and for such other further and different relief, order or decree, as to the court may seem proper.
This summons is published in the Corvallis Times once a week for six successive and consecutive weeks, beginning with the issue of February 9, 1906, and ending with the issue of March 23, 1906, under and in pursuance of the directions contained in an order made by the Hon. Virgil E. Watters, county judge of Benton county, Oregon, being the county where the above entitled suit is pending in the above entitled circuit court, dated February 8, 1906. Date of first publication hereof in February, 1906.
E. E. WILSON,
Plaintiff's Attorney.
