Butte, Mont., March 3, 1906.

Eugene, Or.
In regard to coaching Corvallis, statement wrong. HERBOLD.

—About 22 members of the local lodge of United Artisans drove to Wells Saturday night and participated in the meeting held there that evening. The principal object of the affair was the voting to secure a delegate to attend the grand lodge of the order that is shortly to meet in Portland. The Wells people very kindly cast their votes with the Corvallis contingent, and Harry Cronise was selected as the delegate. The trip to Wells was one of great pleasure for all, and the local people are loud in their praises of the treatment accorded them, especially in the supper served.

—Sunday's Westside passenger had an accident that brought it to Corvallis two hours behind time. When some distance north of Independence the shaft of the drive wheels on one side of the locomotive broke. The shaft had to be taken off and the drivers on the other side of the engine were left to do all the work in bringing the train the rest of the way to Corvallis. A freight locomotive pulled the train out of Corvallis until it met a special engine sent out of Portland to take the place of the disabled locomotive. Joe Kehoe, who used to be a well known engineer on the Eastside away back in the Seventies, was engineer of the engine that had the accident. He and William Sally, another old-timer on the Eastside division make the Portland-Corvallis run on alternate days.

—Hon. J. Hubbard Bryant, of Albany, has been in town since yesterday. An organization has been formed for conducting a campaign in behalf of local option in Linn county, and Mr. Bryant has been elected president. He was in Corvallis, studying the effect of the local option law. While in town he interviewed both optionists and anti-optionists. A vigorous campaign is to be waged in Linn county by the organization to prevent the adoption of the Jayne bill which the liquor dealers association has proposed under the initiative, and also to put local option into effect in Linn county. The law was only defeated in that county two years ago by 47 votes. The general impression is that the county will go for option by a good majority this time.

—The O. A. C. basket ball men administered a second defeat to the Dallas college men at basket ball Friday night. The game was played in the college armory in the presence of 800 people, probably the largest crowd ever gathered at a basket ball game in Oregon. A special train brought large delegations of students and others from Dallas and Moonmouth. Interest was at high tension before the game began, and it never flagged until time was called on the last half.

With the finish of the struggle, a huge banner bearing the legend, "Champions" quickly unfolded high above the heads of everybody in the building and as it stretched away on a wire that suspended it, the enthusiasm of the O. A. C. students was of a strenuous brand. The Dallas men held the score down to 9 for O. A. C. and 7 for Dallas in the first half. Frequently the score was tied until the middle of the last half when O. A. C. pulled into a good lead, closing the game with a score of 17 to 11. Up to the present the O. A. C. men have not been defeated this season. The wonder is, though, what will they get against the Chicagoans Thursday night.

TOOZE MEN ARE CONFIDENT.

Said to Have a Strong Lead in Southern Oregon Counties.

Woodburn, Or., Feb. 27.—Sunday Oregonian, March 4, '06: Walter L. Tooze, candidate for congress in this district, has returned home from a visit in Southern Oregon, where he received many assurances of support. He is strongly in the lead in Southern Oregon, while the Coast counties are overwhelmingly for him. L. H. Bingham, of Lane Co., who was the most prominent congressional candidate in the south has withdrawn from the race, and is a candidate for state senator.

The Hawley forces in this county show plain evidences of disintegration. Mark Skiff, Marshal Tom Cornelius and several others of Salem who were included in the Hawley list, are supporting Tooze; while Thomas Kay and others, quoted as "united on Hawley," declare such a statement as unauthorized. The straw vote taken at Albany and favoring Huston was doubtless taken among his friends by an avowed Huston man. Friends of Tooze assert that he is leading both Huston and Hawley in Linn county by long odds.

The report that Tooze's own precinct would not support him is like the other reports. He carried Woodburn at the last election by a vote of 200 to 99, and this year the people of Woodburn will stand by their candidate by a larger majority, while Marion county will doubtless roll up a good plurality for him on April 20.

Voters all over the district are turning to the support of Tooze because he is fought by the Salem school land ring and those who have profited by questionable methods in the procurement of our public lands. A strong point being generally advocated by the electors of the district in favor of Tooze's nomination for congress is his record and services for 20 years in the enunciation of the principles of sound republicanism, in marked contrast to the well-known and admitted fact that neither Huston nor Hawley has ever been actively identified with the republican party until they became candidates for congress.

The Standard group based thing, in the Mutual. And, to all intents and purposes, they owned $125,000,000 in stocks which did not cost them one red cent. For they could vote it at elections and keep themselves in control, which was really all they wanted it anyway.

How badly they need this stock is a carefully guarded secret, but there is no doubt but that some of the issue mean the practical control. But these distinguished financiers must now go out into the markets and put up $125,000,000, which is why they are howling dismally and declaring that the country is going to ruin.

There is little or no excitement over the fact that the $300,000,000 in securities must be dumped on the market. The fact that the companies have five years to dispose of their holdings is expected to prevent any slump in the market. Averaging the stocks and bonds at 75, there are in round figures, 4,000,000 that the companies must get rid of. A good day's business on the Stock Exchange is 1,000,000 shares, so this only means a business of four full days, scattered over five years. Financiers who have become rich through life insurance wealth declare the outlook is dismal, and that policy holders will soon complain when they find their money is earning only a trifle, when confined, practically, to steady, conservative real estate and mortgage investments.

Chicago, March 4.—Two thousand socialists, some of them of the most radical stamp, held two meetings today and practically pledged armed revolution and their lives to the workingmen's cause, if Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone, the officers of the Western Federation of Miners, should be railroaded to the gallows by the greedy capitalists, who charged them with the murder of Steunenberg.

There were speakers who urged a revolution by means of the ballot and others who advised the taking up of arms to avenge the death of the accused men if they should be convicted and hung. Those who admonished the ways of peace to accomplish their ends were heard in silence.

Those who preached for violence and the resort to arms were wildly cheered again and again. The temper of both meetings plainly was in favor of radical action.

One of the speakers improvised a practical platform and when it was recited there was great applause and shouts of "Good!" Here is the way the lines read:

"Will Moyer and Haywood die?
They die
Here's our cry:
There are twenty million workingmen who'll know the reason why."

Saymour Steadman, a well-known lawyer and a leader of the socialists of Chicago, warned the audience at one meeting that there is a gigantic plot among the capitalists of the country to bring about the disfranchisement of the workingmen. He at the same time said if Moyer and Haywood should be hung and the plot for disfranchisement should show signs of development, this country would witness the bloodiest and worst revolution the world has ever seen.

Mrs. Lillian M. Forberg, an organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World, denounced the policemen, Mayor Danne, down to the bluecoated men who patrol the streets of Chicago, she said, were the instruments of and co-workers with the capitalistic class of the nation.

Child Not Expected to Live from One Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by Graham & Wortham.
