ery of four of them, and getting an explanation of what became of the other.

Adams in his confession, stated he took the bottles of explosives to Pocatello, for the purpose of killing union miners on their way from the Coeur d'Alenes to Colorado in September, 1903. He was confident he could go to the spot, and Tuesday morning he was taking down there.

The story of his locating the building and of the unsuccessful digging, which continued all day has been told heretofore.

Four of the bottles which Steve Adams buried in the old mill were found soon after six o'clock this evening, as the result of investigations started by Chief of Police C. F. Smith, of Pocatello. When the chief learned the object of the visit of McParland and others, he remembered some circumstances which it seemed wise to investigate. He tipped off his suspicions and an investigation turned out entirely successful. The bottles were found under a pile of cinders not far from the mill.

A year ago, last spring George McConkey, engaged in taking out timbers at the mill, discovered the tin containing the bottles in the exact location pointed out yesterday by Adams. He took the stopper out of one bottle and the fire burned his hands and clothes severely. He threw the bottle out of the mill as far as possible and buried the rest under a cinder pile, where they were located tonight.

A few days after this happened, Thomas McConkey, his brother, who was working in the storehouse of the Schoolcraft Wholesale Co., near its mill, saw blue smoke coming from a rubbish pile where the first bottle had been thrown. He and Con Regan went over and began stamping the rubbish to smother the fire with their feet. The liquid got on their shoes and burned the leather to a crisp. They had to take off their shoes to prevent burning their feet. Water poured over the smoking shoes seemed to add to the strength of the acid eating the leather.

George McConkey, J. A. McConkey, Wilbur Schaffer and others testified today to seeing the grip near the mill and all separately gave similar descriptions of the same. Detective Thiele remains here to conduct investigations tomorrow, with the view of securing further evidence in the shape of testimony from several men named who have not been seen today.

Salt Lake City, March 28.—The Tribune says today that through service on the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake road cannot be resumed before May 15. One hundred miles of track extending from Acoma to Rocks, Nev., is virtually wiped out of existence by the late floods. Construction has been started at both ends. Towns in the intervening space are beginning to suffer for supplies.

Chicago, March 23.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Anderson, Ind., says: As Mabel Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Reeves, was about to cross the tracks of the Big Four railroad on her way to school yesterday she saw a little girl standing on the tracks, evidently trying to extricate her foot from a frog. Miss Reeves saw a passenger train bearing down upon them. The child began to scream and struggle desperately, but could not free herself. Miss Reeves hurriedly drew a pen-knife from her pocket and slit the child's shoe and jerked her away from the track just as the engine bore down upon her.

EAT WHAT YOU LIKE.

Don't Starve or Diet, but Use Mi-o-na, and Cure Your Stomach Troubles.

The average treatment of stomach troubles consists of a rigid diet list, which often starves the patient. Of course it would be foolish for any one who knows that some foods are positively harmful and poisonous to continue eating them, even while following the Mi-o-na treatment, but in ordinary cases of stomach troubles it is not necessary to starve or diet if Mi-o-na is faithfully used, a tablet before each meal.

This scientific remedy, for the cure of stomach troubles, acts upon the whole digestive system, and strengthens the organs so that they are able to digest any food that is eaten without fear of distress. If you suffer from loss of appetite, belching of gases, sour taste in the mouth, furred tongue, severe pains in the region of the stomach, depression of spirits, bad dreams, lack of energy, a stomach cough, offensive breath, headache, back aches, loss of strength and weight, you can be assured that these troubles are all due to imperfect digestion.

Strengthen the stomach by taking a Mi-o-na tablet before each meal, and soon you will gain in weight, strength will return, and your food will give nourishment so that the rich red blood will carry good health to every part of the system.

Graham & Wells have so much confidence in the power of Mi-o-na to cure stomach troubles and resulting ills, that they give a guarantee with every 50 cent box to refund the money unless it cures.

READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," flatulency, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultant, as bronchitis, throat and lung diseases (consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their "medical schools of practice."

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

A booklet of extracts from eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Des Moines, Iowa, March 27.—So popular has the state inebriate hospital, that opened only a few weeks ago, become that it is already full to overflowing and the board of control has ordered that no more candidates for the "jag cure" shall be received until vacancies occur. In consequence there has gone up from every village and hamlet a wild cry of anguish, for the inebriety law has been a delight to Iowa drunkards.

Reasoning that it is just as cheap to cure a man of the drink habit as to keep him in jail, the legislators provided a hospital. As fast as drunkards applied they were hurried to the baths, provided with new clothing and assigned to pleasant work. When they felt cured they were discharged.

The present overcrowding is due to the return of most of the former inmates, who have come back to be cured again. All declare they will stand by the grand old commonwealth to the end, and so long as she cures them they will wrestle with the demon rum.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. Always Keeps Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in His House.

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand.
