

CREFFIELD.

Shot by George Mitchell in Seattle and Instantly Killed.

Seattle, Wash., May 7.—Franz Edmund Creffield, self-styled "Joshua," leader of the Holy Rollers, was shot and instantly killed on First avenue, near Cherry street at 7:10 o'clock this morning by George Mitchell of Portland. Creffield was the leader of the band of Holy Rollers that caused so much excitement at Corvallis, three years ago. Mitchell made no attempt to escape after the shooting, but stood beside the body of his prostrate victim until patrolman Leconte placed him under arrest. He told the police that he had shot Creffield because he had ruined his two sisters, Mrs. Burgess Starr and Miss Ethel Mitchell.

As soon as he reached the city jail Mitchell asked permission to send a telegram. He sent the following to O. V. Hart at Corvallis, the father of Creffield's wife:

"I've got my man. I'm in jail here." "GEORGE."

The shooting of Creffield was witnessed by his wife and a few other pedestrians. It took place outside the Quick drugstore in the heart of the retail district. Mitchell has been in Seattle since Wednesday looking for Creffield.

Mitchell was walking up First avenue when he saw Creffield coming down First avenue with his wife on his arm. Mitchell stepped in close to the drugstore and as Creffield and his wife went by he drew a 38-calibre revolver, sending a ball through the back of Creffield's head. The bullet came out above the right eye. Creffield fell to the sidewalk and was carried into the drugstore and Dr. Bories was summoned.

Creffield's wife threw herself down by his side and wound her arms around his neck, kissing his lips and hysterically exclaiming at the same time:

"He cannot die, he cannot die; he did no harm to George Mitchell." Dr. Bories lifted her to her feet saying: "But he is dead, madam."

The woman was taken to police headquarters with her husband's slayer and held as a witness.

The Creffields have been here for a little over a month. They have been living in a little attic room at 1116 Fifth avenue. The only furniture in the room was two chairs, a cheap table and a sleeping cot. The only clothes the woman had on was a tattered skirt and shirtwaist. Her husband yesterday promised to buy her a new skirt, and they were on their way to the store to purchase it when he was shot.

Mrs. Creffield says her husband did not see Mitchell. She caught sight of him just as he pulled the trigger. Mitchell is 23 years old and gave his occupation as a laborer. At police headquarters he said:

"I killed him; I have been looking for him, and I got him. I have no regrets. I am willing to take any punishment that is meted out to me without a whimper. I did not kill a man, I killed a brute. He obtained a devilish influence over my two sisters and ruined them and I did only what any true brother would do."

The police agree with Mitchell and gave him the best quarters in the jail making his imprisonment as comfortable as possible.

It developed that Creffield has been married here twice. Over two years ago Justice George married him. The marriage license and certificate shows a ceremony performed between "Franz E. Carefield and Miss Ida M. Hunt." The police believe that Creffield gave incorrect names to hide his identity. His name is Creffield and not Carefield. His wife's name is Maude Hurt. They lived at South East Seattle for a time with Frank Hurt, the woman's brother.

Mitchell says his sisters told him that Creffield, or "Apostle Joshua," as he liked to be called, was greater than Christ. Creffield served two years in the penitentiary at Salem. While in the penitentiary his wife obtained a divorce from him. He got out of the penitentiary in February with good conduct allowance. He then went to Waldport, Or., and gathered about him the faithful followers who stuck by him.

Threats of lynching drove him out of Oregon. He came to Seattle, won his divorced wife back and on April 3, little over a month ago, married her for the second time. He went out to South Seattle and won her brother back. He sold his home and took the proceeds to Waldport to hold together his followers. Creffield was going to leave for Waldport in a few days.

On Streets—How Tuberculosis is Contracted—A Doctor's Statement.

There ought never to be failure to destroy the sputum of a consumptive. That is what a local physician said this morning. It never ought to be expectorated on the street. There is death in it. It soon dries and the tubercle is taken up in the dust and somebody may breathe it. A lady may take it up on her skirt, introduce it into the home where by the same process the deadly germ gains access to human lungs. It is now known that people are not born with consumption. Once that was believed but it isn't true. Members of a family may be pronouncedly susceptible to it. It is also known now that a very heavy per cent of tuberculosis is contracted by breathing the bacilli. In some cases of course the contractive process is by swallowing the germ. Most or all of such cases are communicated by one of these methods, and that is why the sputum should be completely and faithfully destroyed. Patients themselves should use a paper box or a damp rag in expectoration, which after use should be carefully burned. The per cent of tuberculosis is largely reduced in places where proper sanitation in these respects are observed, and is not reduced where contrary conditions prevail. No man, no woman, no child is safe from consumption where tubercular sputum is carelessly expectorated.

IMPORTANT TO CORVALLIS.

Profit by This and Find Safeguard Against Many Ills.

Nothing is more important to Corvallis than the good health of her people. How can they fill their place in this busy town unless they are well?

No one trouble is responsible for more nervous ill, sleeplessness, general debility, weakness, back-aches, rheumatic pains, even ill-temper and peevishness, than indigestion.

Fortunately a combination of remedies, called Mi-o-na stomach tablets, has been discovered that absolutely cures indigestion and restores to health and strength the whole digestive system. The use of Mi-o-na is a safeguard against many ill; it acts directly upon the gastric glands, restores perfect action to the digestive organs, aids the assimilation of food, and so strengthens the whole digestive system that you can eat anything at any time without fear of indigestion.

Just one little tablet out of a 50 cent box of Mi-o-na before meals for a few days, and you will soon regain perfect health and strength, and be able to eat anything digestible without fear of stomach difficulties.

So reliable is Mi-o-na in curing all forms of stomach weakness and troubles that Graham & Wells give a signed guarantee that the remedy will cost nothing unless it cures. Mi-o-na sells for 50 cents and is invaluable to any one who suffers with indigestion, nervousness or weak stomach.
