A Parents' Meeting.

The parents meeting at Alsea brought together a very large attendance. By actual count over 300 were present. This is perhaps a larger attendance than at any previous meeting of like character.

Portland, May 26.—Portland Journal. One of the features of the present campaign is that railway employees all over the state are supporting Governor Chamberlain for re-election.

When George E. Chamberlain became governor of the state in 1903 his inaugural address dealt at length with the need of a fellow servant law. In part he said:

"One of the latest laws upon the subject is that of the state of Virginia, approved March 7, 1902. It provides that every corporation operating a railroad in that state, whether such corporation be created there or elsewhere, shall be liable for damages for any and all injury sustained by any employee of such corporation."

Then came the recommendation: "I commend," said Governor Chamberlain, "the general scope and purpose of this law to the legislature of Oregon, and earnestly urge the enactment of a similar statute at this session. Legislation upon this subject was defeated at the last session, but it seems to me that the demands of thousands of men engaged in railroad employment here are entitled to be heard as they have been heard, and favorably acted upon, in other states not more progressive than Oregon."

Governor Chamberlain called attention to the injustice of the Oregon law then in force, pointing out how defendant corporations were invariably successful in urging that injury or death was due to the negligence of a fellow servant. Further he said: "The corporations hedge their employees about with rules and regulations which they expect and intend shall be more honored in the breach than in the observance. To obey them in their entirety would be impossible, and to disobey them places a weapon of defense in the hands of the corporation, whenever accidents occur resulting in injuries and death to old and faithful employees."

This recommendation resulted in the introduction of several measures, but the Virginia statute favored by the governor was given the preference over all others. A draft of a law containing exactly the same provisions as the Virginia law was submitted by the governor to a committee of trainmen. It met with an approval and was placed by them in the hands of Representative Hansborough, who introduced it in the legislature. It passed both houses and was promptly signed by the governor.

es which would have been denied him under the old law. Corporation lawyers admit that the present statute has been a big factor in settlements between railways and injured employees. For these benefits the men employed by railway corporations credit Governor Chamberlain, and that is why they are going to vote to give him another term.

Tacoma, Wash., May 26.—John Hall, of Kobe, Japan, late inspector of the locomotive department of the imperial government railways, is here en route to his old home in Scotland, where he will spend the rest of his days.

Mr. Hall has the distinction of building the first railroad in Japan. That was 36 years ago when the Japanese government was just beginning the marvelous growth that has made the nation one of the most progressive of the age. The government imported a number of foreigners, Hall among them, to teach the Japanese railroading. Mr. Hall says that in a little more than three decades the railroad traffic in Japan has become enormous. The government successfully controls all the railroads, and it is just now standardizing all the old narrow-gauge railroads.

One of the most important things that has taken place, Mr. Hall says in the 36 years he has been in the islands is the remarkable development and betterment of the physical condition of the race. He declares that is due to methods they have copied from English and American gymnastics and physical culture directors. These methods, he says, they have assimilated and applied to their uses, and as a result the present generation of Japanese, is the equal he believes, of any nation under the sun.

MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG AND SICK WOMEN WELL.

Forty years ago, Dr. Pierce searched Nature's laboratory for a remedy with which to supplant the gross and vicious methods of treatment, with alcoholic stimulants, then in vogue, and still too commonly prescribed and advised for women's ills.

Nature abounds with most efficient remedies, and in Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and the perfect herb of Pines found medicinal properties, which when extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure glycerine, have proven most potent in making weak women strong and sick women well. It contains no alcohol; is not a "patent medicine," nor a secret one either.

"I was suffering with nervous headache, pain in the back and dizziness, so that a times I had to lie down for hours before I could raise my head," writes Mrs. Mary M. Thomas of 28 Winston Street, Los Angeles, Cal. "After taking the first bottle of 'Favorite Prescription,' however, I was so pleased with the results that I kept on taking it until I was restored to health and strength. I shall never be without this great medicine, and shall take a few doses when I do not feel strong."

One of the principal uses of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the preparation of prospective mothers for the time of trial and danger that comes when a child is born. The "Prescription" is strengthening and invigorating and lessens pain and danger. It insures the perfect well-being and the perfect health of both mother and child. Every woman should know these things before she really needs to know them. There are many things in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advertiser, that every woman ought to know. This celebrated work reached a sale of 3,000,000 copies at $1.50 each. The copyright was secured by Dr. J. C. Pierce, and is now being given away. A copy will be sent to any address on receipt of 21 cent stamps to cover cost of mailing.

A NEW O. R. & N. TRAIN.

Upper Columbia River Given Service that is Appreciated.

The new Upper Columbia River train put on by the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, May 20, will attract tourists to points along the river between Portland and The Dalles. The new train, leaving Portland at 8:15 a. m. and arriving at Portland at 6:00 p. m. the same day, gives opportunity to spend the day at some of the delightful places along the Columbia river, and permits them to return home the same day.

The train stops at all points in both directions so as to accommodate local travel. The lightness of the train, however, permits it to run at a high rate of speed so that, even with the stops, good time is made.

There are many beautiful places such as Rooster Rock, Latourelle, Multnomah Falls, Bonneville, at which a day's outing and picnic can be enjoyed and this new service makes it possible to take such outings, whereas, in the past, when the service has been performed by heavy through trains, it has not been possible to do this.

Columbia Southern passengers instead of waiting at Biggs, which is unattractive, are taken to The Dalles promptly where they await the train for Portland.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. —The town of Philomath is preparing to fight fire when occasion requires. Five hundred feet of hose and a hose cart have been ordered, and will soon be available for use. With this apparatus, and four or five hydrants, two-thirds of the buildings in the town, including the college and business houses, can be reached with fire streams. All that this splendid fire protection has cost Philomath is the expenditure for the apparatus and the hydrants, the city of Corvallis having brought a magnificent stream of water through the streets of the town. But the people of Philomath appreciate it all and are very frank and free in expressions to that effect.
