Horse Show a very Successful Event—Planning Another Next Year.

The Corvallis Horse Show Friday and Saturday in the extent of its success was a surprise to even its most enthusiastic advocates. It brought together a finer lot of horses than are ever seen in one group in Benton county. Every character of equine was represented and the whole exhibition good enough to call out enthusiastic commendation from visitors who were in attendance. Among the latter many were amazed at the character of the horses that were among the entries.

There was a good crowd in attendance on both days. On each day a parade took place at 10:30 o'clock. For several blocks during the parades the pavements on both sides of Main street were lined with people. The success of the show was so complete that there is a general desire for a similar show next year on a broader scale, proposing probably to include all kinds of livestock in the list. The awards at the show were as follows:

CON SULLIVAN.

Superintendent of the C. & E. dies Suddenly Saturday.

Con Sullivan, the well known superintendent of the Corvallis & Eastern, died suddenly in his Albany home Saturday morning. Concerning his death, the Democrat says:

"Yesterday he made the trip to the front on the road. During the evening he complained of feeling badly. About three o'clock, Mrs. Sullivan, whose room was adjoining, heard him making a noise which seemed unnatural, and hastening to the room, found him lying over the foot board in a prostrate condition. He died soon after. Dr. Davis was called but too late for assistance. His death was evidently from heart trouble, with a complication of troubles. He was 49 years of age.

Con Sullivan was born in Ireland coming to the United States when about fifteen years of age, settling in Iowa, where he was connected with the construction work on the North Western for several years, then going to the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul in the same line of work. About twenty years ago he came to the Northwest, working on the Sound for a few years. In 1889 or 1890, he began working for the Oregon Pacific as superintendent of track construction, having charge of the work when it reached Albany. When A. B. Hammond bought the road in 1894 he was made superintendent filling the position until his death in an efficient manner.

The funeral occurred at Albany today. He was for several years a familiar figure on the streets of Corvallis, during the time when the C & E. headquarters was located in this city. He was during a part of that time roadmaster and superintendent of bridges but later was made general superintendent of the road. He was an able executive officer and a most kindly and interesting man. He had many friends in Corvallis who heard Saturday morning of his sudden death of heart disease with pangs of keenest regret.

Resolutions.

Whereas it has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to remove from our midst our late brother, James C. Taylor, and whereas, it is but just that a fitting recognition of his many virtues should be had, and therefore be it

Resolved by Corvallis Tent No. 11, of Corvallis, Oregon, that while we bow with humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, we do not mourn the loss of our brother who has been taken from us.

Resolved, that in the death of Sir Knight James C. Taylor, this Tent has lost a faithful member, the family a devoted companion and loving father, and the community an upright citizen, who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid and the voice of sympathy to the needy and distressed.

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the records of this tent, to the bereaved family of our deceased brother and to each of the newspapers of this city.

W. L. SHARP.
LEE HENKLE.
H. C. MANGUS.

Common Colds are the Cause of Many Serious Diseases.

Physicians who have gained a national reputation as analysts of the cause of various diseases, claim that if catching cold could be avoided a long list of dangerous ailments would never be heard of. Everyone knows that pneumonia and consumption originate from a cold, and chronic catarrh, bronchitis, and all throat and lung trouble are aggravated and rendered more serious by each fresh attack. Do not risk your life or take chances when you have a cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure it before these diseases develop. This remedy contains no opium, morphine or other harmful drug, and has thirty years of reputation back of it, gained by its cures under every condition. For sale by Graham & Wortham.

THE BOY THAT GREW.

And Developed a Beard While yet in the Beginning of his Teens

Late information concerning the boy whose abnormal growth puzzled the doctors, is to the effect that his condition is unchanged. The case was reported by the TIMES last fall. At that time the boy lived with his parents a short distance from the Corvallis ferry in Linn county. The family name is Miller. The grandfather of the lad still resides in Corvallis, but the parents have sold their Linn county farm and removed to Oregon City.

The boy, it will be remembered is but 13 years of age, and last summer suddenly began to make extraordinary growth. Within a few months he attained the stature and weight of a man. His voice changed, becoming heavy like that of a man, and a heavy beard began to make its appearance. Along with these unnatural developments came the unfortunate fact that his mind was affected. It also became impossible for him to stand. He was taken to Portland, where he was studied by all the physicians of that city. There was nothing like it recorded in the medical books. For 10 days they studied the case and then gave it up as not to be accounted for and as beyond the power of their profession to remedy. The boy was brought home, and sometime later, the family removed to Oregon City.

The boy is still confined to his bed. He is unable to walk and is very weak. His mind is however somewhat improved. He can read and write, and do some of the stunts in arithmetic that he used to do before this peculiar trouble came on. What the outcome of the case will be, cannot be fore-shadowed.

DEATH AMID GAIETY.

Bellfountain Picnic Scene of Pioneer's Passing—James Edwards.

The pleasure of the Bellfountain picnic Saturday was somewhat marred by the sudden death on the grounds, of James Edwards an Oregon pioneer of 1853, who had come to the scene in apparently good health. Mr. Edwards was taken with a sinking spell, and lived but a brief time. The funeral occurred Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Bellfountain, being conducted by Rev. M. M. Waltz, assisted by E. H. Belknap. Interment was in the Bellfountain cemetery.

James Edwards was born in Pennsylvania, May 2nd, 1817, and was aged 89 years. When ten years old he went with his mother and brothers to Ohio, and in December 1844 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Longworth. In 1853 the family came across the plains to Oregon with the United Brethren colony, of which Rev. T. J. Conner was leader. For some years the Edwards family lived in Alesha, but for 44 years previous to his death, the deceased had resided at the old place near Bellfountain. Mrs. Edwards died 21 years ago. Six children survive, among these being Joseph and Lee Edwards so well known in all parts of this county.

Mr. Edwards was well and widely known throughout this part of Oregon. He was a man of upright character, and was respected by all.

IMPORTANT TO CORVALLIS.

Profit by This and Find Safeguard Against Many Ills.

Nothing is more important to Corvallis than the good health of her people. How can they fill their place in this busy town unless they are well?

No one trouble is responsible for more nervousness, sleeplessness, general debility, weakness, back-aches, rheumatic pains, even ill-temper and peevishness, than indigestion.

Fortunately a combination of remedies, called Mi-o-na stomach tablets, has been discovered that absolutely cures indigestion and restores to health and strength the whole digestive system. The use of Mi-o-na is a safeguard against many ills; it acts directly upon the gastric glands, restores perfect action to the digestive organs, aids the assimilation of food, and so strengthens the whole digestive system that you can eat anything at any time without fear of indigestion.

Just one little tablet out of a 50 cent box of Mi-o-na before meals for a few days, and you will soon regain perfect health and strength, and be able to eat anything digestible without fear of stomach difficulties.

So reliable is Mi-o-na in curing all forms of stomach weakness and troubles that Graham & Wells give a signed guarantee that the remedy will cost nothing unless it cures. Mi-o-na sells for 50 cents and is invaluable to any one who suffers with indigestion, nervousness or weak stomach.

What kind of corn is best for Oregon? Yellow Dent. Who has it? Zierolf.
