IMPORTANT TO CORVALLIS.

Profit by This and Find Safeguard Against Many Ills.

Nothing is more important to Corvallis than the good health of her people. How can they fill their place in this busy town unless they are well?

No one trouble is responsible for more nervous ills, sleeplessness, general debility, weakness, back-aches, rheumatic pains, even ill-temper and peevishness, than indigestion.

Fortunately a combination of remedies, called Mi-o-na stomach tablets, has been discovered that absolutely cures indigestion and restores to health and strength the whole digestive system.

Just one little tablet out of a 50 cent box of Mi-o-na before meals for a few days, and you will soon regain perfect health and strength, and be able to eat anything digestible without fear of stomach difficulties.

So reliable is Mi-o-na in curing all forms of stomach weakness and troubles that Graham & Wells give a signed guarantee that the remedy will cost nothing unless it cures. Mi-o-na sells for 50 cents and is invaluable to any one who suffers with indigestion, nervousness or weak stomach.

CHAMBERLAIN.

The re-election of Governor Chamberlain in the face of the enormous adverse majority that had confronted his candidacy is one of the most extraordinary political events in the history of the state. His decisive victory under the circumstances, and under the causes that invoked it, makes of Governor Chamberlain a political figure with no predecessor of his own type in the annals of the state.

The demand for Chamberlain was a whirlwind that could not be stopped, or even retarded. It was not confined to localities where he was personally known, or where he had intimate friends, but was equally manifest in the remotest rural districts and in the farthest corners of the state.

These things he had done, and his reward was his re-election. Dr. Withycombe did as well as any other man in the state could have done. He had the odds of votes but Chamberlain had the enormous odds of a record that in these days of independent voting, swept everything before it.

SENATOR BOURNE.

Jonathan Bourne, by the vote of the people, has been designated as the popular choice for United States senator. He was named under the law which the same final authority in all matters of state, placed on the statute books by popular suffrage, and from which, there is no right of appeal.
