—Miss Ethel Greer is suffering with a severe attack of measles. —Pern Edwards and L. N. Edwards of Bellfountain were in town yesterday on business and pleasure. —John Howard is expected from Sweet Home Sunday on a visit to Corvallis relatives and friends. —Miss Ethel Pierce was expected to arrive today from Hillsboro, for a Commencement visit with friends. —Ed Smith, who has spent a month's vacation in Corvallis for his health, leaves tomorrow for Portland. —Men wanted. Saw mill and lumber yard laborer $2.25 per day. Woodsmen $2.25 to $3.00. Steady work. Apply to Booth-Kelly Lumber Co., Eugene, Oregon. —Eugene Shelby, assistant superintendent of Wells Fargo, and in charge of the company's lines in Oregon, spent the forenoon in Corvallis, leaving on the Westside for Portland. —Jim Lewis went to Portland Monday, taking down with him 10 head of draft and driving horses to be sold on arrival in that market. The animals were all gathered up in the vicinity of Corvallis at prices said to have been in the skies. —S. L. Kline left Tuesday for San Francisco where he goes to sell his residence and such of the furniture as he will not bring to Corvallis. He expects to be absent two weeks. He is making preparation to begin the erection of a new residence at the corner of Jefferson and Fourth. —The house and one lot on the northeast corner of the block in which E. F. Bryant lives, changed hands Wednesday. The buyer was C. H. Harrison, and the price $1,100. The seller was W. P. Minor, and the deal was made by Stevenson, Robinson & Berman. The house was newly built last year. —Many Corvallisites are going tomorrow to the Monroe picnic and barbecue. The programme and exercises are under direction of the Modern Woodmen and includes addresses by J. K. Simmons of Portland, and G. W. Denman, besides a literary programme by the schools of the vicinity. Other exercises will be a drill contest by Modern Woodmen and sports of all kinds, including a baseball game and a dance in the evening. —In College chapel tomorrow night the last of the inter society debates for the year will be held, the contestants being the Jeffersonians and the Pierians. The society honors of the year and the Gatch cup hang in the balance, and there is every likelihood that a big crowd will be present. The question is, "Resolved, that Suffrage in the United States be Restricted by an Educational Qualification." The Jeffersonians have the affirmative. —The United Artisans had a big time in their hall Wednesday evening. Besides the initiation of several candidates, there was an election of officers and a banquet. The officers are: P. M. A., Mrs. Tillie Reed; M. A., H. H. Cronise; Supt., Mrs. Ellen Mundy; Inspct., Mrs. Arnold King; Sec., Miss Eva Starr; Treas., Frank Hubler; Senior Conductor, Miss Ella King; Junior Conductor, Mrs. Frank Strong; M. C., Guy Clark; field Commanders, Maud Harper and Fred Cooper. —Eugene Guard: A rush between the students of the second and third floors of the dormitory at the State University came off last night. Pillows were used as weapons, and the dormitory this morning in places looked as if some old woman had been plucking geese there, besides there was other pillow stuffing in evidence. A rather serious accident marred the otherwise sportive event. Dell McCarty a second floor man, was pushed into a window, the broken glass cutting two of the tendons of his right arm making a gash of six inches. Eighteen stitches had to be taken in closing the wound. —Tuesday evening at 8:30 in the opera house, the O. A. C. seniors give their annual entertainment, which will be a farce entitled, "After the Storm Comes a Calm." Those in the cast are, Arthur Bouquet, Grover Cate, H. C. Getz, Minnie Phillips, Myrtle Harrington and Alice Edwards. In addition to the farce there will be solos, quartettes and monologues, and Rosenstein's orchestra to furnish music. Judging from the program the entertainment will be the best given by a senior class for many a year.
