—The new county officials have filed bonds as follows: M. P. Burnett, sheriff, $10,000, U. S. Fidelity and Guaranty Co. of Baltimore; W. A. Buchanan, treasurer, $20,000, W. A. Buchanan, Noel Wilkinson, P. Avery, Thomas Leese, Hugh Heron and R. L. Buchanan; E. J. Newton, recorder, $3,000, National Surety Co., of New York; T. T. —Hay is beginning to arrive in town. Of two farmers who offered to sell yesterday, one proposed to sell in the field a $4, and the other at $3 per ton. Some ask $6 delivered. Buyers say the price is not likely to be above $5 or $5.50 and that it may drop to 4.50 delivered. On account of the immense crop, it is certain the good price of the last two years will not prevail.

BIDS TO BE OPENED.

For Woman's Building at O. A. C. July 11th—To be Great Structure.

Bids are to be opened July 11th for the erection of the Woman's building at the college, and work on the structure is expected to begin immediately thereafter. Plans and specifications are in the hands of Clerk Crawford at the college, and according to them, the building will be far the largest on the grounds. It is to be shaped somewhat like Agricultural Hall. Its ground plan resembles a huge letter I, with cross piece not only at each end, but also across the middle. Its total length is 235 feet. Supposing that it rests the longest way north and south, say on the brow of the Hogg hill, at the south end there would be a huge ell running 103 feet east and west by 48 feet north and south. Joining this ell in the middle and running north and south and 48 feet east and west, is a section of building running 40 feet north and south and 48 feet east and west.

The middle cross piece is then encountered and it is 85 feet east and west and 56 feet north and south. In its east end the main entrance is located. Then to the northward comes another stretch of building 40 feet north and south by 48 feet east and west, and then another huge ell 103 feet by 48 feet forming the extreme north end of the structure. At the highest point the building is 72 feet high. It will have three floors and an attic, the first of which contains several class rooms for the household science department, sewing department rooms, dining hall, kitchen, baths, store rooms, cold storage, bakery, pantry, lavatory, toilets, club dining room, laundry, fuel room and fourteen sleeping rooms. The second floor has 36 single rooms and four suites, library and parlors. The third floor has 44 sleeping rooms, two suites, infirmary and nurse rooms. There are baths and toilets on each floor, and each single room and suite has stationary washstand, and closets. The building will have its own heating plant, fire apparatus and every other modern convenience. The lower portion is to be of Cascade granite and the other stories of pioneer sandstone, the same as Agricultural Hall. The architecture is very plain, but the whole appearance very substantial. The estimated cost is $65,000.

At King's Valley.

The annual school meeting in the Valley district was well attended. Frank Plunkett was elected director and John McCallum, clerk. The district will have no funds this year outside of the state and county levy. The proposition to levy a two-mill tax was voted down by an overwhelming majority.

There were two spectacle men in the Valley last week, and it seems to be the general impression that those that bought glasses of them paid high prices.

Jimmy Chambers is suffering with tonsillitis.

W. A. Wann, of Portland, representing the Mutual Life Insurance Co., has been in the Valley. He found some who were willing to take out policies in his company.

John Price is able to be around again.

Mrs. W. L. Price and Miss Minnie Price have been suffering with the measles.

Mr. Lunt and Mr. Stroud have sold their farms in the upper end of the Valley.

The hay crop is very heavy and some of it ready to cut. Uno.

Until last night Mrs. Watson had been accustomed to apartments in the most fashionable hotels in Portland, Chicago, New York and San Francisco; in other cities she lived in equally pretentious hotels.

Since the beginning of her relations with Pater, who is separated from her in the same jail by steel bars and solid walls of masonry, money has been lavished upon her in a regal style. Apparel of the most expensive and modern modes have been hers in large quantities and jewels have been showered upon her.

New York, June 29.—Harry K. Thaw was arraigned this morning in the criminal court and pleaded not guilty to the indictment for the murder of Stanford White. Thaw's attorney, former Judge Olcott, formally requested permission to withdraw the plea by next Tuesday in order that any motions might be made of a different plea entered. The request was granted and the prisoner remanded to the Tombs.
