Sick Kitties on the Sunday Excursion—A Thrilling Incident.

The sick kitty passenger on the Sunday excursion train from Newport is not so much in vogue as formerly. How youngsters of 16 to 20 sat on each other laps and chewed each other's gums with a dying calf look on their faces was sketched in the TIMES recently. Of late true love has not seemed to have so mellifluous effect on the youngsters as formerly. They have mostly been content to sit up straight with nothing more serious than a surreptitious holding of hands, and an occasional sly glance into each other eyes. Last Sunday night, however, a batch of seven of them in one car got the mania and fell to with an abandon that would have mortified to death anything else than a bunch of the exceedingly sick-calf variety. Seven of them, about three youths and four youngesses sardined into one double seat. They all had that kind of love that absolutely refuses to have a lid on it. Frank Durbin, the old sheriff of Marion, and ex-Governor Geer and wife sat across the aisle and looked on at proceedings in dumb astonishment. At last Mr. Durbin got his breath remarked that "Superintendent Gardner ought to come along and gather in that bunch for the Boys and Girl's Home: what do you think of 'em Geer, eh?" The ex-governor took one swift glance at the outfit and remarked, "if Mrs. Geer were not along I would take a hand in the mixup, myself."

Notice.

The Equalization Board of Benton county, will meet in the office of the county clerk at the court house of Benton county, Or., Monday, August 27, 1906, for six days from said date, to correct any errors or double assessments on said roll. Dated August 3, 1906. T. H. DAVIS, w3 Assessor of Benton County.

At the conclusion of today's testimony the jury adjourned until August 23, at which time it will make its report.
A new grand jury will convene next Tuesday and take up the case subsequent to March 3, 1895.

New York, Aug. 10.—As a result of investigations of cases of alleged rebating by railroads, the grand jury today returned indictments against six railroads. They are said to be based on rebating sugar.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 10.—Earle Fletcher, colored, who was hanged here today for the murder of Bob Payne, a fellow convict, at Flat Top mines, created a scene by denouncing Criminal Judge S. L. Weaver from the scaffold. He declared that the judge had granted a habeas corpus to John Williams, a white man from another county, and saved his neck the day before he was to hang, but when it came to his own case, a citizen of this county, the court went fishing. Fletcher said that "going fishing" was given as an excuse for the judge to leave town to avoid granting him a habeas corpus.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The silver cup offered by Sir Thomas Lipton for the winners in yacht races in this country will be admitted free. It was held up by Boston customs collectors and the treasury department ordered them to admit it.

Toledo, Aug. 11.—"Father dead, mother dead, wife dead, no home, no business, no money. Is there any object in living? Notify my sister, Miss Nellie Funston, Columbus, Ohio, and bury me beside my wife."

This note found on a dresser in a room at the St. Charles hotel explains the motive for the suicide of C. H. Funston of Columbus, whose lifeless body was found in his room today by the hotel people. Funston is said to be the nephew of General Frederick Funston.
