Of The Season---Our Artist's Work

The crowds watching him work in our window testify to the interest being taken. No such work of art has ever been on exhibition in the city before. Many well-known local faces are now to be seen, giving satisfaction to the most critical. Don't fail to see them.

For the benefit of those not yet familiar with this exceptional offer, we again announce the following:

You purchase $1 worth of goods in any department and get a coupon. One coupon and 87c gets you a Bust Crayon Portrait. All work guaranteed. Come and see where you can save over $1 on this one article. Offer good 'til Sept 9.

The Artist will Finish all Work Before leaving the City.

LOCAL LORE.

For advertisements in this column the rate of 15 cents per line will be charged.

—Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Jackson visited Albany friends Wednesday.

—Ed Crawford returned to Salem this morning, after a week's visit in Corvallis.

—John Higdon returned home Tuesday after a two month's stay near Seattle.

—There will be a special meeting of the W. C. T. U. Saturday at 3 p. m. Every member is urgently requested to be present.

—C. N. McArthur, the well known U. O. graduate, who went to Baker City recently to practice law, has concluded to return to Portland.

—After touring the Coast for the past year, Mrs. S. G. Ratcliff is in the city visiting her mother, Mrs. Marion Higdon, before returning to her home at Canon City, Colo.

—An iron fire escape has been added to the safety precautions at the Occidental Hotel. It serves the two upper stories, and delivers the guest safely in the alley in the rear of the building.

—Clifford Benson, of Roseburg, a popular former OAC student, writes to friends that he expects to return to college in September, after a year's absence. He will be accompanied by two friends, Walter Gonyan and A. Hannan, who will enter OAC.

—A recent letter from him relates that Henry Ambler and wife are in Yorkshire, England, and that they expect to leave for Oregon about September 1st. They expect to reach Corvallis the first of October.

—The wheat crop on the farm of J. S. Watkins, known as the Gird place, made an average of 27 1-5 bushels per acre. Mr. Watkins recently ploughed under a field of vetch that was nearly waist high, for fertilizing purposes. The experiment will be watched with interest and the crop from the field next year be generally inquired after.

—A party of three Corvallisites left Tuesday to take up desert land claims in Crook County, 80 miles beyond Prineville. Their particular destination is Silver Creek. They travel by private conveyance and expect to be absent two weeks. They are A. L. Stevenson, W. W. Ireland and H. W. Murphy.

—The crop of Early Crawford peaches in the John Kiger orchard is ready for picking. A box of the fruit seen in town yesterday showed peaches as fine as are grown anywhere. Mr. and Mrs. Kiger were summoned home by phone from a camping trip at Five Rivers for delivery of the peaches which came on unexpectedly early.

—Lightning arresters and fuses to prevent bolts of lightning from entering their central office have been put in by Charlie Shenofield of the Bell phone at Philomath during the past few days. Aside from the danger to operators, a bolt of lightning can do great damage to the switchboard at a central telephone office. During the late thunder storm both local offices sustained damage, particularly the Independent, which required several days and much effort to repair.

—A private fire department has been added to the safety precautions at Kline's store. A fire hydrant has been placed in convenient position and three 50 foot sections of hose have been provided. A nozzle throwing a 5-8ths inch stream of water is fitted to each hose, and all are kept constantly in position on a rack for the purpose, always convenient for use, so that three streams of water can be turned loose inside or outside the store in half a minute's time. The plan is so excellent that the wonder is why every important building in town is not provided with similar means of quick fire fighting.

—Eugene Guard:—Royce & Peterson's excelsior factory in this city will close down this evening until the present car shortage is over. C. O. Peterson, manager of the plant, stated to a Guard reporter today that he had not taken the matter up with the head officials of the railroad, as he considered it simply a waste of time, but the local representatives of the company could give him no encouragement, and as he has all available warehouse space filled he can do nothing but shut down. The company's plant at Junction will operate about two weeks longer and it, too, will close down if conditions are no better by that time.

—Richard Graham and family returned Wednesday after a long outing at Newport.

—W. H. Goldson of Seattle arrived Monday and is the guest of his cousin, Henry Wortham.

—Mrs. Thos. Jones, accompanied by her little daughter, left the first of the week for Astoria to visit her parents.

—Miss Mabel Withycombe returned Wednesday from a nine weeks' visit with her brother at Union.

—Mrs. Mabel Jones Cannon of Salem arrived Thursday for a day's visit at the Withycombe home. She left today for Newport.

—Mrs. E. F. Pernot and children arrived Wednesday from a two months' stay at the Newport cottage.

—A deer and a bear were the trophies of the John Kiger and Walter Wells hunting party which returned Wednesday evening from Five Rivers.

—Walter Watkins of Linn county and Miss Tessa Orah Hale were joined in wedlock Tuesday by Rev. A. J. Bartholomew at the residence of Elmer Archard.

—Real estate transfers have been filed as follows: Melva McKenney to Carrie C. French, lot 3 in block 4, Wilkins add., $1. Clarendo Seifert and husband to Davis Riker 150 acres near the Polk county line, $800.

—The Early Crawford peaches in the John Kiger orchard this season are as large and equally delicate in flavor and coloring as the Ashland peaches. The Willamette river bottom will yet be a big exporter of peaches.

—Willie Denny, aged nine, who resides with his parents on the farm recently purchased of Al Bicknell near Mountain View, has a broken arm. He rode a horse bareback, and was thrown off. The fracture is at the elbow, and is badly complicated.

—Walter Wells, '02, O.A.C. left yesterday for Newport for a few days sojourn. He has been for three years chief prescription clerk at Love's drug store on the Eastside, Portland. He is off for a two weeks' vacation. He was recently offered a position in Naus' store on the Westside.

—It was a peculiar accident that befell Mrs. M. J. Wells the other night, and which for the present keeps her confined at home with her injuries. She has long been slightly subject to somnambulism, and Tuesday night, walked in her sleep. It is seldom that accidents befall somnambulists but on this occasion Mrs. Wells by a misstep fell down the stairway, a distance of nine feet. A severe gash was cut in the forehead above the eye, and a considerable strain of the neck was sustained, besides other bruises and minor injuries.

—Albany Democrat: A farmer near Salem has a genuine diversified farm. He has seven acres of walnuts, thirteen acres of hops, an acre of grapes, over fifty stands of bees, five acres of Italian prunes, a quarter of an acre of Logan berries, ten acres of potatoes, besides several acres of hay. He and his boys are prospering.

—Mrs. C. L. Heckart returned this week from Newport. As Tuesday was her birthday, several of her friends planned a surprise for her that evening. The party carried with them many remembrances and dainty refreshments. The evening was spent pleasantly in conversation, and various members of the company furnished music for the entertainment.

—A lady carrying a little dog in a London omnibus wanted to know at every turning whether this was Park Lane.

She began asking the question soon after the bus started and repeated it at intervals all along the route, until at last she was told to the intense relief of everybody in the omnibus that Park Lane was really before her eyes.

But they were not to see the last of her even then. "Look!" she said in ecstatic tones, holding the dog up to the window, "that's where your mother was born!"

—Be sure and have your job printing done in Portland. It is true that the Portland printer does not pay taxes in Benton, doesn't employ labor in Benton, doesn't buy meat, buy groceries, buy clothing, boots and shoes in Benton, doesn't do a thing in fact to help build up your town, but that's nothing. He doesn't give you any better work, doesn't do it as cheaply as it can be done at home but that's nothing. Don't give the work to local newspaper offices, don't buy supplies from local merchants, don't spend any money in Corvallis, in fact, that you can possibly send away. That's the way to make a town grow.

—Albany Democrat: A preventive is better than a cure, and hence every city does well to see that its water supply is the best that can be secured.

—S. N. Wilkins and sister-in-law, Mrs. Wilkins, left for Portland today.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Harper returned today from a ten days' sojourn at Newport.

—Miss Iva Barclay went to Portland Wednesday, to attend the millinery openings. She will be absent ten days.

—Victor Moses has purchased the mercantile establishment in this city hitherto owned by his brother, R. J. Moses. The latter has bought the Sam Moses store at Philomath, and has gone out to make the invoice.
