

LOCAL LORE.

—Gus Harding returned yesterday from a business trip to Portland.

—Regular services at the Presbyterian church Sunday next.

—Miss Alice Jones left yesterday for La Grande where she is to teach during the coming year.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strong arrived yesterday from a three weeks' camping trip at Yachats.

—Mrs. Portson and children arrived yesterday from Sacramento for a visit with her parents.

—George Armstrong and family left yesterday for Newport for a sojourn.

—Mrs. Captain Graham of Portland, has arrived and is the guest of Mrs. Robert Huston.

—Miss Snell arrived yesterday from an all summer visit with relatives at Berkeley, California.

—Miss Etta Carter, an O. A. C. graduate, has arrived and is the guest of Mrs. McMahon.

—Mrs. P. O. Wilson and daughter Minnie leave tomorrow to visit relatives in Linn county. They are to go East about October 1st.

—John Spangler and family are expected to return from Newport Sunday evening.

—Rev. M. S. Bush and wife are expected to return tomorrow from a two weeks' rest at Waldport.

—Rev. and Mrs. Hurd arrived today from a five weeks' stay at Newport.

—There will be regular services at the Evangelical church Sunday. Morning subject, "The Joy of Doing our Duty." Evening: "Bread in Egypt."

—"Is Speedman a good chauffeur?" "Good? Say! he caught a man yesterday that every motorist in the city has had a try at and missed."

—A Boston paper published the picture of a young lady as the prettiest girl in Massachusetts, and within a week she had 800 offers of marriage. It should also publish a picture of the 800 idiots.

—The regular services at the Congregational church will be resumed Sunday. Morning sermon, "The Passing of the Harvest," Evening sermon, "Self Discovery, or What is the Genuine Self?"

—Carl Hodes was in town yesterday on business. After Albany went dry, Carl went to Portland, where he is established in business on First between Taylor and Salmon. His family still resides in Albany.

—Mrs. R. C. Kiger and John Kiger and family left yesterday for the state fair grounds to remain until after the coming fair, which opens September 10th and continues five days.

—After a service there of seven years as stenographer and typewriter, Miss Minnie Wilson has resigned her position in the First National bank, and is to retire with the expiring month. Miss Sarah Jacobs has succeeded to her position. Miss Wilson and her mother are to leave shortly for New York City where they will remain for an indefinite period.

—The open season for China pheasants begins October 1st. There are those who say the birds are not as abundant as usual, due to late rains which interfered with brooding. They tell it that there is a considerable number of the earliest brood now nearly full sized. After that there is nothing except very young ones hatched out after the last rains, which are yet far too small for shooting. It is urged that this is one season in which the late date for the beginning of the open season is particularly appropriate.

—The contract has been let by R. C. Wills, the carpenter at the college, for the removal of the Hogg house to lots west of the Rosendorn home, where it will be converted into a private boarding hall for students. The place will be owned by Mr. Wills and will be for rental purposes. The building is to be remodeled, and so arranged to accommodate 25 or 30 boarders. It is expected to be ready for occupancy in time for the second term of the coming college year. The kitchen portion of the building will not be moved. A second building of seven or eight rooms is to be built by Mr. Wills in the same neighborhood from materials to come in large part from the Hogg house.

In Self Defense.

Major Hamm, editor and manager of the Constitutionalist, Eminence, Ky., when he was fiercely attacked, four years ago, by Piles, bought a box of Buckle's Arnica Salve, of which he says, "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." Quickest healer of burns, sores, cuts and wounds. 25c at Allen & Woodward's drug store.

—Gus Abraham, a well-known student, was in town a day or two ago, looking for a boarding place.

—Mrs. Dr. Lee arrived Wednesday from a three weeks sojourn at Newport.

—There she goes to Bluffton, Indiana, to spend the winter with her mother.

—M. M. Davis and family arrived Wednesday from McKenzie Bridge where they spent the past two months in camp.

—Covers were laid for 14 at a dinner party given Wednesday evening by Mrs. John Smith to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kirkpatrick and their son of San Francisco.

—W. L. Read, who resides at Stewart's hill, three miles north of town on the Albany road, is convalescent from an attack of typhoid fever.

—Typhoid fever is supposed to be the malady with which George Brown is suffering. He has been sick a week and all the symptoms point to the fever. He is at home three miles north of town.

—Mrs. Billings of Union, has arrived and is domiciled for the winter in one of the Blackledge cottages. She has three students for the college, and that is the occasion of her residence in Corvallis.

—Mrs. Carroll of Union, Oregon, has arrived and leased the residence of Mrs. Lee until next July, taking it furnished. She has four young folks who will enter O. A. C.

—Ernest Arnold and his mother are at Munich, Germany, where the young man is pursuing his studies. They are likely to remain abroad another year.

—President Catch arrived Wednesday from Newport, and will spend the rest of the vacation period at home in preparation for the college opening, September 17th.

—Bush Wilson, who has been for more than a year, in Nevada, where he is associated with his brother, Joseph H. Wilson, in government work, arrived yesterday for a month's visit at home.

—Tramp (outside the gate)—Does your dog bite? Mrs. Wepton (on the porch)—Yes, he does, and—oh, please don't come in! We are so particular about what we feed him.

—Sheriff Burnett arrived Wednesday morning from Newport. On the trip he hunted one day and bagged a big buck in the vicinity of the Siletz. He came out on the special train Wednesday morning with the railroad officials.

—Salem Journal: News was received here last night that Lachmund & Placius yesterday bought 20,000 pounds of hops from Isaac Vocum of Dallas, at 20 cents a pound. At the same time a sale of 300 bales at the same figure is reported, but it is impossible to learn either the buyer or the seller.

—A Boston paper says: Oregon's new senator, Jonathan Bourne of Portland, represents a new order of things both in his state and in the nation. He is the first senator ever elected by a popular vote. Senator Bourne will be a business senator. He is a millionaire. He will be one more Harvard senator and one more Bay Stater, for he was born in Boston a little more than fifty years ago. Thirty years ago he went to Oregon and has lived there ever since.

—Polk County Itemizer: After living with his family on a homestead on part of what was the Siletz Indian reservation for the five years prescribed by law, the proofs of ownership offered by John C. Fletcher were refused by the general land office, because the survey of 120 acres of it had not been approved, and the land was declared not subject to entry. The remaining 40 acres had been surveyed regularly and the survey accepted, but Fletcher was not allowed to prove his title to them because he had built his house on the ground including the 120 acres not subject to entry.

—There are many new ads in this paper. Read them all.

—The man and wife who advertised in Tuesday's TIMES for work have secured positions.

—The TIMES recently told of a movement for running the Corvallis ferry by electric power, and of how County Judge Woodward was to investigate the plan and report findings to the county court. The investigation has been made, and, in the parlance of the back alley, its all off. The electric light and power people yesterday notified Judge Woodward that it would not be feasible for them to supply power for the purpose.

rot's proud plumage fell. For days he sat upon his porch as though in a stupor. Now he is surrounded by birds of every description and clime. But he does not notice them. He sits with his head tucked under his wing, and no amount of persuasion can induce him to talk.

Pittsburg, Aug. 29.—Mrs. William Thaw, the rapidly aging and devoted mother of Harry Thaw, has decided to cut loose from all connection with Pittsburg, where the Thaw millions were made, and with this purpose in view, Lindhurst, her famous $400,000 residence here, has been offered for sale.—The rest of the property owned by Mrs. Thaw will also be sold, the understanding among her friends being that she will only retain her Pennsylvania railroad bonds as souvenirs of Pittsburg.

The reason advanced by Mrs. Thaw to her friends for leaving Lindhurst and severing all ties of Pittsburg is that she must devote the rest of her life to her son Harry. It is her hope that he will escape the death chair for the murder of Stanford White, and should he be sent to an insane asylum, she will remain close to him. Should the young man, however, get the full penalty of the law, Mrs. Thaw will sail for England, bidding good bye forever to America.
