—Mrs. M. L. Pipes and daughter Nellie spent a few hours in this city Tuesday enroute to their home in Portland after a stay of nine weeks at Newport. The visit at the coast was for the benefit of Miss Nellie's health.

—The heat of last Wednesday occasioned much remark. It was a hotter day than is common in September. It was however, but one degree hotter than the 23rd day of September last year. That day the mercury went to 86. Last Wednesday it was 87. On Tuesday it was 85 and on Monday 83.

—The pastor's subjects at the First Methodist church Sunday are Morning: "Mountains". Evening: "The Chief Business of Life." After the services in the evening an "Acquaintance Hour" will be held for the purpose of the renewal and making of acquaintances.

—United Evangelical church.—Regular services with the exception that the evening services will begin one half hour earlier or Christian Endeavor at 6:30 and preaching at 7:30 p. m. Morning subject "Gideon's Fleece". Evening subject "Lost Opportunities".

—Perhaps the largest individual crop raised this season in Benton was by Herron brothers, Robert and Clayton. The aggregate from their fields was 8,000 bushels. The largest part of it was wheat, and they sold it before the grain was cut, getting 60 cents per bushel. Some of their wheat averaged 27 bushels per acre. They had one of the best oats crops in the county, getting nearly 60 bushels per acre.

—A teacher in a small school in Camden was giving a lesson on the circulation of the blood. Trying to make it clearer, she said: "Now, children, if I stood on my head the blood, as you know, would run into it, and I should turn red in the face. Now, Jimmy," continued the teacher, addressing a small boy, "what I want to know is this: How is it that while I am standing upright in the ordinary position the blood does not run into my feet and turn them red?" "Why, because yer feet ain't empty."

—A commission of physicians appointed by Judge Frater of Seattle to inquire into their sanity has declared that Esther Mitchell and Maud Hurt Creffield were at the time of the shooting of George Mitchell and are now afflicted with paranoia, a kind of insanity involved in structural defects of the nervous system. The commission announces that they are lunatics that ought to be confined in a proper asylum, and it is the plan to bring them to Oregon for commitment in the Salem asylum.

—The Newspaper statement is that Hammond has sold the C. & E. to Gould, and that it is to be the means by which Gould's Western Pacific line is to reach the coast. If true it will mean a connection of the extended C. & E. with Eastern lines and a conversion of that line into an important road.

—One evening an argy complainant appeared in Cuppie's bar. "Your bull chased me across that field this morning." "Did he? Well, I am sorry. Hurt ye much?" "See here, I've come to tell you that you ought to take that bull out of the field." "It's my field, likewise, my bull." "I guess you dont know who I am." "Well, no, I dunno's I do." "I am the mayor of Scarborough and president of the Scarborough & Taitville Railroad." "B* ye?" asked Jim, respectfully. "Well, why did't ye tell that to the bull?"

—The popularly attended entertainments of the Western Lyceum Bureau of last winter are to be repeated again this season with a complete change of attractions and with programmes of higher order. All Corvallis remember the excellence of last winter's programmes. They were given under the auspices of the Congregationalists, who are managing the matter again this winter. Among the celebrities are Governor LaFollette, the reformer statesman, Leonora Jackson, the violinist, who has played before all the courts of Europe and many other notable people. The canvas for tickets begins next Monday, and those who fail to invest will miss it.

turn green with envy. Then, if a flea is found, the money will be forthcoming.

But there is no doubt about the presence of fleas in quantities at the second district school. That is headquarters and there are millions in it.

Philadelphia, Sept. 18—While undergoing an X-ray examination at the Polyclinic hospital today Martin F. Murphy of Renova, Pennsylvania, a banker and one of the richest men in the state, died as though stricken by lightning. Mr. Murphy passed a rigid examination before going into the operating chair and his heart action was pronounced perfect.

The surgeons believe that some unknown quality entered the ray and killed him. The examination was made to determine whether or not Murphy was suffering from a cancer. The ray entered the throat on the left side, two inches below the ear, and penetrated diagonally down and through the chest to a point of emergence just below the eighth rib. The course of the ray was directly through the heart.

As the X-ray flashed upon Murphy he stiffened strangely. Immediately the ray was turned off and it was found that Murphy had been killed.

Noah Webster's turn:—What is that fearsome rumbling that we hear?

It seems to come from down below the pave.

Can it be that another earthquake's near?

Oh, no; keep cool and banish every fear—That's Noah Webster touting in his grave.

DIED SUDDENLY OF HEART DISEASE.

How frequently does a head line similar to the above greet us in the newspapers. The rush, push and strenuousness of the American people has a strong tendency to lead up to valvular and other affections of the heart, attended by irregular action, palpitation, dizziness, smothered sensations and other distressing symptoms.

Three of the prominent ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made are recommended by some of the leading writers on Materia Medica for the cure of just such cases. Golden Seal root, for instance, is said by the United States Dispensatory, a standard authority, "to impart tone and increased power to the heart's action." Numerous other leading authorities represent Golden Seal as an unsurpassed tonic for the muscular system in general, and as the heart is almost wholly composed of muscular tissue, it naturally follows that it must be greatly strengthened by this superb, general tonic. But probably the most important ingredient of "Golden Medical Discovery," so far as its marvelous cures of valvular and other affections of the heart are concerned, is Sassa root, or Collinswoodia Can., Prof. Wm. Paine, author of Paine's Epitomy of Medicine, says of it:

"I not long since had a patient who was so much oppressed with valvular disease of his heart that his friends were obliged to carry him up-stairs. He, however, gradually recovered under the influence of Collinswoodia (medicinal principle extracted from Stone root), and is now attending to his business. Eminent physicians knew of no remedy for the removal of so distressing and so dangerous a malady. With them it was all guess-work, and it fearfully wasted the afflicted that death was near at hand. Collinswoodia unquestionably affords relief in such cases, and in most instances effects a cure."

Stone root is also recommended by Drs. Hale and Ellingwood, of Chicago, for valvular and other diseases of the heart. The latter says: "It is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence."

"Golden Medical Discovery," not only cures serious heart affections, but is a most efficient general tonic and invigorator, strengthening the stomach, invigorating the liver, regulating the bowels and curing earthy affections in all parts of the system.
