E. Woodward, County Judge of Benton County, State of Oregon, dated the 12th day of October, 1906.

The date of the first publication hereof is October 12th, 1906.

A big consignment of booze, en route to Lincoln county blew through town Saturday. It was addressed to various citizens of that bailiwick among them Larke Logan. Mr. Logan's home is at Siletz and he is a Siwash. The shipping of tanglefoot to him is a violation of the federal laws, and one that federal officials might find it easy to unravel were the attempt made. The booze came up the West-side and was transferred to the C. & E.

It is salmon fishing time at Yequina now. The fish, according to all accounts are biting voraciously, and but little skill is required for making a big catch. They seem to be more abundant than in any former season. The sport will continue into next week, and will probably be heightened by the present copious rains. The C. & E. is to run an excursion on next Sunday. The train will go through this time, the officials say, though tornadoes blow or fierce snow storms prevail.

D. J. H. A. Z. Swackhauer, is the name of a visitor to Corvallis. That is the American version of his Spanish name, which at full length is about a foot and a half long. Mr. Swackhauer is a Haytian, having been born at Port-au-Prince 31 years ago. He was five years in the American navy, three years in the army during the war in the Philippines, was two years a captain of Maccabebe regiment and two years a teacher in the American schools in the Islands. He has been in Africa, in India, in fact, all over the world. He delivered two lectures before the public school children yesterday afternoon. He is visiting the larger schools in various parts of the county, lecturing on various topics. Mr. Swackhauer's name in Spanish is: Emdan-elles Juan Ereguene Alando Coz-ambotree Xouinar Zamaataaaraer.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan McLennan arrived Saturday and are at their home on Third street. They were married at Alton, Illinois, October 4th, and are the recipients of good wishes by many Corvallis friends of the groom. The story of the wedding is thus told by the Alton Evening Telegram: "At the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Riehl, Evergreen Heights, the marriage of their eldest daughter, Helen, to Mr. Evan McLennan, was celebrated Wednesday at noon. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bridal couple attended by the bride's sister, Julia, and brother, Edwin, as bridesmaid and best man, stood under a canopy of asparagus ferns and Shasta daisies. The marriage ceremony was performed by an uncle of the bride, Rev. Daniel C. Riehl, of Cedar Springs, Mich., was simple and very impressive. A number of their relatives and friends being present. The bridal party left on the evening train for their future home at Corvallis, Oregon."

Lola Wilkins, formerly of Corvallis, now Mrs. Lee Wigle, is the subject of the following item in the Prineville Journal: "Mrs. Lee Wigle, who lives with her husband, a prosperous cattleman at the head of Camp Creek, is deserving of special mention, say her friends, for the ease with which she can turn from household cares to the hard work of hired men. Mr. Wigle being away it devolved upon his better half to run the ranch, and she did it, too. The hired men, who perhaps did not take kindly to the change of bosses, objected to some orders given in regard to fall plowing, and refused to carry them out. They were promptly fired and the work finished by Mrs. Wigle herself. She plowed 14 acres in five days, besides taking care of her teams and doing the rest of the farm work. Mrs. Wigle is also as handy with the rifle as she is skilled in music and kindred accomplishments. Twenty-two coyotes this fall testify to her unerring aim. Her varied accomplishments do not in the least detract from her many charming womanly qualities."

FIRST GAME WAS VICTORY.

For O. A. C. Men—The Score is Twenty Four to Naught—A Game Next Saturday.

The first game of football of the season was played on College field Saturday afternoon, and it yielded victory for OAC. The opposing eleven was an Albany club team. The play was under the new rules and so far as the spectator was concerned, the game is still football with indications that it will present about the same features as before.

OAC made four touchdowns, secured a safety, and kicked two goals, making a score of 24, while their opponents got a lonely goose egg. The first touchdown was made in five minutes, and the others followed fast, as the halves were but 15 minutes long. The Albany boys were not so heavy, and were not once able to make the required ten yards. OAC only lost the ball once on downs. The ball was carried nearly altogether by the backs and the play was just off tackle or close end runs. No heavy mass formations were attempted. Among the new men, Darby, Wolf, Looney and Dobbin made it clear that when they have acquired knowledge and experience they will become excellent players. The lineup in Saturday's game was:

O. A. C.	Position.	Albany.
Bennett	C.	Gibbon
Pendergrass	R. G.	Ries
Barber	R. T.	Ward
Shannon	R. E.	Neely
Dobbin	L. E.	Frances
Cherry	R. G.	Rogoway
Finn	R. T.	Marlbury
Looney	R. H.	Coates
Darby, capt.	L. H.	Schiffler
Gagnon	O.	Schultz, capt.
Wolf	F.	Monteith
