Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Benton County.

Minnie Clegg, Plaintiff

John Arthur Clegg, Defendant

To John Arthur Clegg, the above named defendant, In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint of plaintiff in the above entitled suit in the above entitled Court now on file with the Clerk of said Court on or before six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit, on or before the 23rd day of November A. D. 1906.

And you are notified that if you fail so to appear and answer the said complaint as herein required, the plaintiff will apply to the above Court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, to-wit, for a decree of said Court dissolving and annulling the marriage contract now existing between you and the plaintiff and awarding to plaintiff the care and custody of Jesse Clegg, the issue of said marriage, and for her costs and disbursements herein.

This summons is published in the Corvallis Times once a week for six successive and consecutive weeks and in seven issues thereof, beginning with the issue of October 12, 1906, and ending with the issue of November 22nd, 1906, in pursuance of an order made by the Hon. E. Woodward, County Judge of Benton County, State of Oregon, dated the 12th day of October 1906.

The date of the first publication hereof is October 12th, 1906.

McFadden & Bryson,
Attorneys for Plaintiff.

At King's Valley.

M. L. Frantz has moved to Condon's Mill on Peedee.

The Hoekins switch is located in a vacant house and is nearly useless.

Henry Plunkett has the typhoid fever.

The rain here has made everything nearly like spring. The hills are green and grass is good everywhere. The ground is in good condition to plow.

Maek Maxfield and Eva Papba were married last week and a few of the boys of the Valley serenaded them Monday evening.

ABOUT fifteen Trowbridge pianos have been sold and placed in the best homes in this vicinity in the last 25 days by Fisher.

—Little Henry was spending his vacation on a farm. It was his first visit to the country, and he had never seen a threshing machine.
"Mamma!" he exclaimed one day, rushing into the house. "there's a fire engine 'way in a big field, an' it's pumpin' seeds."

—Quarterly communion and reception of members at the morning service in the Presbyterian church next Sunday. C. E. meetings at 6:30 p. m. and at 7:30 p. m. The pastor will preach the first sermon in a series on "Old Testament Characters." Subject for evening, "Adam." Good music and a welcome to all.

—Late Crawford peaches from the John Kiger orchard and delivered in the local market the first of the week were of excellence uneclipsed by the famous Southern Oregon peaches. The yield was small per tree but the quality was as good as the best of any clime.
When it comes into its own the Willamette river bottom along its entire length will be an immense peach orchard, sending fruit everywhere.

—A performance filled with side splitting situations and speeches was "Uncle Josh Perkins," a farce-comedy at the Opera House Wednesday night. Uncle Josh himself was a source of much merriment, but his hired man Hiram, was a character inimitable in concept and very ludicrous and effective in rendition. A play with Hiram as the star part and rendered in no better form than Hiram's performance Wednesday night would give fame and fortune to the man who would create it. Manager Groves is to be congratulated on Wednesday night's bill. The house was packed.

—In Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, the doctors are trying to solve the problem of what is the malady with which Henderson W.
Murphy is suffering. He has been ill ever since his return from the Prineville country several weeks ago. It is a case of stomach trouble but its exact nature has not yet been established. One theory is catarrh another cancer with a chance that still other complications are present. The family and friends in this city are awaiting with much concern the outcome of the exhaustive inquiry into his ailment.

—The news of the death of his brother at Walla Walla, was received Wednesday evening by Lyman A. Bundy. The deceased was younger than the popular OAC man, and had been indisposed for two or three years. Some time ago he wrote that he was enroute to Walla Walla for a surgical operation, and that was the last tidings received here until the telegram Wednesday evening announcing his death. Lyman Bundy left Wednesday night expecting to meet his mother enroute and proceed together to Walla Walla. The burial will probably be at Dayton, Washington. Mr. Bundy will be absent a week, possibly longer.

—A week from tomorrow, in Seattle, occurs the hearing of the case in which the proposed deportation of E. H. Mitchell and Maud Hurt Creffield is involved. The women were ordered by the superior court of Seattle to be released from jail and be sent to Oregon.
The action was taken after a sanity hearing had pronounced both of them as affected with a species of insanity. After Judge Frater had ordered them deported the district attorney carried the matter to the supreme court, where a stay of proceedings was ordered and Judge Frater cited to appear and show why he appointed an insanity commission and why he had ordered the women deported. Several big legal firms will participate in the proceedings. It is the guess generally that the action of Judge Frater will be sustained, and that the women will be sent to Oregon.

—Work on the Woman's building at the college will begin in two weeks. Mr. Snook the contractor, was in town Wednesday looking over the ground. The contract was signed Tuesday. Mr. Snook is the man who built Agricultural Hall.
He has a force of masons ready to begin the brick laying, and one part of his errand to Corvallis was to ascertain if brick can be bought here. If not it will have to be shipped in from elsewhere. Mr.
Snook regrets that he was unable to begin operations earlier in the season, as the delay in starting will necessitate hurry operations later.
He expects building operations to be in progress all winter. The cost of the building is to be $71,300. It will be of enormous size, having accommodations for 300 girls and the dressmaking and household science.

—Fisher sells the Trowbridge piano —Mrs. T. H. Crawford returned last night from an extended visit with Portland friends.

—John Webster, of the '05 graduating class of Philomath college has purchased and installed a saw mill at Wren.

—"The Gospel of Temperance" will be the subject of an address at the Christian church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The speaker is Mrs. Newell of Eugene.

—A valuable pin is reported as lost in the Times classified column and a reward is offered for its return. Other interesting notices appear in that and other advertising columns. Read them all.

—Mrs. Newell, state Evangelist and Vice President of the W. C.
T. U. of Oregon will speak at the Christian church on Gospel Temperance, at three p. m. Every one cordially invited.

—Subjects at M. E. church Sunday: 11 a. m., "One of the Forces of Christianity." Evening, five minute prelude on Sam Jones and Reno Hutchinson. "Who is the Man?"

—The annual alumni football game takes place on college field tomorrow afternoon. Among the old gridiron heroes expected to be on hand are Bert Pilkington, Rinehart, Emily, Walker, Elgin, and others. The game is called for 2:30 o'clock.

—Search of the records is in progress to determine the reliability of the title to a lot owned by Mrs.
James Cauthorn on Main street in the Fred Clark block. If a certain missing deed turns up, the property will become Harley Hall's, and he will build a house on it.

—Seventy five foot frontage on the east side of Rogoway's furniture store has been sold by Ambler & Watters to F. Keeney of Halsey for a consideration of $1,000. It is the report that the purchaser is debating the question of whether or not to build a livery stable building on the ground.

—The corner stone of the new German Lutheran edifice is to be laid Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'- clock. The building is located on lots east of the residence property recently owned and occupied by Prof. McKellips. The corner stone ceremonies will be attended with special services, including a sermon by Rev. Ingle of Salem, in the German language, and an address in English by Rev. Byerline of Albany. Everybody is invited.

—It was an unlucky day at the Colbert factory yesterday. Charley Colbert was in the act of stepping out of the front door when his foot slipped. He fell and a rib struck on one of the forks of a saw buck.
A fractured rib is supposed to be the result. Near the same time, while feeding the sticker, a piece of oak rebounded and struck Walter Colbert in the hand, inflicting a painful wound. Both brothers are able to be around, but neither can do a yeoman's work for several days.

—Though nothing is being said about it preliminaries are in motion for the big agricultural fair to take place in Corvallis next September, lasting three days. Incidental are being looked after preparatory to the Citizens League meeting the first Tuesday in next month when the matter will be presented to that organization. The scheme is the best and biggest ever laid out for Corvallis and Benton county, because of the ultimate aim the plan carries with it.

—A scene of extraordinary activity is presented when the weather permits at the corner north accross the street from the Occidental hotel. From a dozen to a score of workmen engaged there on the bank building and the postoffice building, construction operations on both of which are being pushed to the utmost vigor. In the bank building, the foundation work is all completed and the carpenters are laying the joists. The foundation of the postoffice building will soon be completed. A number of cutters are preparing stone for both structures.

—"You have been hunting without a license. That is what a game warden said to a local sportsman. "I've been hunting, but I got a license" replied the hunter.
"that's all right but I happen to know that you haven't a license," insisted the game warden, "I know well enough who told you I didn't", angrily replied the hunter and he he proceeded to cuss a well known farmer in half a dozen keys and with a vigor that nearly made the game warden's hair stand on end.
And the funny thing of it is, that the farmer that he cussed hadn't said a word to the game warden about it. Each warden carries a list of all the licenses issued.

—Father Springer attended the dedication of the Catholic school at McMinnville this week.

—A person well known in Corvallis was P. J. Gibson, for years and years a train man on the Westside railroad. He was a brakeman in the days of Colburn, Conser and Stout as conductors. He ran here when Hal Bell was baggageman and Jack Evans and Billy Battman were engineers. He was a kindly and genial chap whom everybody that traveled the road knew. But he has made his last trip. He died in Good Samaritan hospital in Portland Wednesday.

—Shooting within the city limits, more particularly in the northwestern part of town and at all hours of the night has been a source of much annoyance to many citizens of late. One evening during the process of the horse play two shots were fired and a young man fell as though shot, to great concern and alarm of persons who happened to be in the neighborhood.
On another occasion five shots were fired in rapid succession, all in wanton foolishness. Inquiry by the authorities revealed the identity of the young men engaged in the enterprise and at last accounts there was promise of an abatement of the nuisance.

—Claud Buchanan and Miss Edith Berthold were united in marriage at the court house, Albany, Wednesday morning, by Rev. G.
W. Nelson. The young people are both graduates of OAC in the class of 1903. The groom is a son of Mrs. Ruth Buchanan. He is a young man of exemplary character fine attainments and industrious habits. The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Berthold, of Linn county, is a young lady of many accomplishments and one of Linn county's worthy and successful school teachers. Mr. and Mrs.
Buchanan will make their home on the Buchanan farm ten miles south of Corvallis. Many friends join in extending congratulations and good wishes.
