Minnie Clegg, Plaintiff, vs.
John Arthur Clegg, Defendant.

To John Arthur Clegg, the above named defendant, In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer

And you are notified that if you fail so to appear the plaintiff will apply to the above Court for the cree of said Court dissolving and annulling the marriage contract now existing between you and the tody of Jessie Clegg, the issue of said marriage, and for her costs and disbursements herein.

This summons is published in the Corvallis Times once a week for six successive and consecutive weeks and in seven issues thereof, beginning with the issue of October 12, 1906, and ending with the issue of November 22nd, 1906, in pursuance of an order made by the Hon. E. Woodward, County Judge of Benton County, State of Oregon, dated the 12th day of October 1906.

The date of the first publication hereof is October 12th, 1906.

prise is a guest at the J. B. Irvine home.

—The Oregonian today announces that the Astoria & Columbia railroad is to be extended down the coast to a connection with the C. & E. at Newport.

—Petitions are in circulation in Southern Benton and Northern Lane asking for the extension of the Westside to Junction.

—The town clock which has been silent, pending repairs and painting for two weeks, struck for the first time at 11 a. m. yesterday and is now on time.

—Miss Ella Johnson has purchased the L. L. Horning residence property at the South end of Main street. The price paid was $1,200.
A new residence is to be built on the lots in the spring. The deal was made by Robinson & Stevenson.

—Four carloads of dried prunes, comprising the product of the Henry Stone drier and a few other lots were shipped to Salem Friday. The shipment aggregated 152,000 pounds of which Mr. Stone had 75,000 pounds with the balance distributed among Messrs. Groves, Herron and Peck. The fruit brought an average of about $3.35.
It was purchased by Tillson, the Salem dealer, who will process it in his plant at the capital city and sell it in the Eastern markets.

—A deed of trust has been filed at the court house in which Dr.
Flint and Jessie Petit Flint, having confidence in their attorney W. E.
Yates, convey to him all the property bequeathed in his will by Dr.
Flint to his wife Jessie Flint, to hold and to manage for the interests of the said Jessie Petit Flint. The instrument declares that the step is taken in order that the persons who execute the deed of trust may be freed from the cares and responsibilities incident to management of the property. The deed was executed and filed Saturday.

—Mrs. Jessie Flint is quite severely ill with lagrippe.

—The Seattle judge who ordered Esther Mitchell and Maud Cre-field deported to Oregon, and whose order to that effect was countermanded by the supreme court of the state of Washington, has hired a lawyer to present his interests before the latter court. The matter comes up for hearing at Olympia Friday, and will be a legal battle with lots of big guns in it. One firm representing Esther Mitchell, another representing Maud Cre-field as well as the firm representing Judge Frater will take part on one side of the case, while the district attorney's office will do the fighting on the other side. The district attorney's office holds that the women ought to be tried in Washington for the murder of Geo.
Mitchell without the intervention of the sanity commission which pronounced them both insane and irresponsible for the murder of Miss Mitchell's brother.

—The OAC and University of Washington football teams are to play a game of football at Seattle, Saturday. It is the sixth meeting between them. The first took place in 1897 at Corvallis when Seattle was beaten 17 to 0. The next was in 1902, at Seattle when the Washingtonians won 16 to 6.
The third was at Corvallis in 1903 and Seattle won, 5 to 0. In 1904 the game was at Seattle when the Washington men went down before Pilkington's team in the overwhelming score of 26 to 5. Last year the score was 15 to 0 with the OAC men as winners in a desperately fought game. By aggregate points the account stands, OAC, 64; U. of W., 26. Against Coach Norcross' team of new players, Seattle ought to have the opportunity this year to square the account.
The OAC men leave for Seattle for the coming game Thursday.

—A number of prominent business men of Philomath have been for some time negotiating with a Portland capitalist with reference to establishing a bank in Philomath.
The scheme has passed the paper stage and now the institution is an assured fact. James Evars of Portland, who is to be a stockholder and cashier of the bank, will arrive this week and superintend the installing of the vault and furnishings. The site is the new two-story building recently erected by Durkee and Caldwell for real estate offices. The owners have vacated the rooms and moved into the offices formerly occupied by Ambler & Watters. The capital stock of the bank excepting the part subscribed by Mr. Evars, is owned by business men of Philomath and vicinity. The president of the board of trustees is A. J. Williams.

SOMETHING NEW FOR CORVALLIS.

Weekly Auction Sales of Livestock—Easterners Behind the Plan—Some Features.

The Corvallis Livestock Auctions is to be a new feature in Corvallis.
As the name implies it is to be an auction sale of livestock, to occur every two weeks, later on, every Saturday. The first sale takes place a week from next Saturday which will be Saturday, November 3rd.

Snow & Woods are the men behind the enterprise. Mr. Snow is proprietor of the Red Front livery stable. Fred A. Woods is a new arrival, and he is the auction man.
He is an Easterner with large experience in the business. Ten years ago he undertook a similar venture at Akron, Ohio. At the opening sale $400 was the aggregate of the day's business. At the next sale $1,200 worth of property changed hands. At the end of four years when the business was sold and a removal to the Coast undertaken for reasons of health, the sales ran from $8,000 to $12,000 each Saturday.

Mr. Woods is sure there is an opening in Corvallis for such an enterprise. It will give men who have something to sell a place to quickly and effectively dispose of it.
It will afford a place for the buyer to go for whatever he may want.
Cattle, sheep, goats, horses, hogs, or anything else in the line of livestock will be handled. Nor will the sales stop with livestock.
Any implement from a garden rake to a threshing machine, or any other species of property from a straw stack to a farm will be sold.
The first sale will take place a week from next Saturday at one o'clock p. m. Watch the TIMES for further announcements.

ROUGH ON RATS.

In her Tea—Albany Husband Accused of Trying to Poison his Wife.

Prof. John Fulton has been a witness in a sensational case in the Albany circuit court, in which E.
Wagstaff is accused of trying to murder his wife. The woman suspected her husband's designs last February. She drinks cold tea and when she took a mouthful after arising one morning, it was bitter.
She expelled it from her mouth without swallowing any. The tin cup in which the tea was contained was sent to OAC for chemical analysis and Prof. Fulton found it heavily charged with arsenic.

Her suspicions thus aroused, the wife peeked through a kitchen door one morning after that and saw her husband take a package of rough on rats from his pocket and drop a lot of it in her accustomed cup of cold tea. Later, two girls at her instance, watched him do the same thing, a chemical analysis in each instance showing the presence of the poison. The case is on trial. The wife's life is insured in the husband's favor for $3,500.

IRVINE'S TEAM WINS.

The Score was 6 to 5—Irvine was the Whole Show.

In a football game on Saturday the heavy team of the lower end of Corvallis met a defeat by Irvine's illustrious eleven.

Coach Smith of the upper end, acted as umpire, and Coach Cooper of the lower end, acted as referee.

The stars of the game were Irvine and Harris of the upper end, and Clyde Starr and Cate of the lower end.

The lower end was the heaviest team by all odds.

Much wrangling was done on the field.

The defeat was a surprise to both elevens.

The game was played by the old rules, and the halves were 25 and 30 minutes.

Good punting was done in the game by Irvine and Cate.
P. S.—Except the second clause in the second head, the above head and all just as it appears, was handed in by two 11 year olds for publication. Sometimes the spels about bigger teams seem to have been written by people no older.

STILL BUYING TIMBERLAND.

Over a Hundred Thousand Dollars Already Invested—Who the Buyers are.

The buying of timber land in the region west of Monroe is quietly proceeding. The fact that a section was sold by George Houck for $10,000 and that the J. W.
Walters mill property has been purchased by the same parties at $40,000 was recently related in the TIMES. Other holdings of timber have changed hands and the total investment of the buyers is at a point between $100,000 and $200,- 000.

The manager of the buying interests is Mr. Buck of Monroe, Washington. It is said that he is representative of Cleveland, Ohio people, and that the purchases are not for speculative, but for actual operating purposes.

George Houck, who is as familiar as anybody with the situation, having dealt himself with the buyers, believes that a railroad will be built either to Corvallis or Junction when the manufacture of the lumber begins. He has been authoritatively told that, though operations will not commence until ample holdings of timber have been secured, the industry will have a pay roll of $3,500 to $4,000 per week. Mr. Houck believes that the investors are people who would be interested in developing the country in which it will operate.
He also thinks Corvallis, if her people are on the alert, will stand a good show of becoming a depot for the industry, when it finally takes permanent root.
