

The Corvallis Times.

WEEKLY AND SEMI-WEEKLY.

Vol. XIX.-No. 3

CORVALLIS, OREGON, TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 30, 1906.

H. F. IRVING Editor and Proprietor

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the state of Oregon, for Benton county:
J. W. WATKINS, Plaintiff,
vs.
J. R. Rainwater and Lucy Rainwater, his wife; William Rainwater and Elizabeth Rainwater, his wife; Anna Kling and Peter Kling, her husband; Daniel Rainwater and Emma Rainwater, his wife; Emma Rainwater and Mary Rainwater, his wife; Mary Clark and Merton Clark, her husband; Anna Daley and Frank Daley, her husband; Emma Laughhead and C. H. Laughhead, her husband; and Leo Cohen, Bessie Miller and Paul Miller her husband, defendants.

To Bessie Miller, Emmett Rainwater, and Mary Rainwater, his wife, the above named defendants.
In the name of the state of Oregon, you and each of you are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled suit now on file with the clerk of the above entitled court, on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons, hereinafter referred to, to-wit, on or before November 23, 1906, and you are hereby notified that if you fail so to appear and answer the said complaint as herein required, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the above entitled court for the relief demanded in his said complaint, to-wit: that he be decreed to be the owner in fee simple of the following described real property, to-wit: Beginning at the N. W. corner of the D. L. C. of A. M. Rainwater, Not. No. 607, Cl. 61 & 39 in T. 11 S. R. 3 and 4 W. of Will. Mer., Benton county, Oregon, and running thence S. 26.94 chains, thence E. 12.27 chains, thence S. 85 deg., E. 3.10 chains, thence N. 22.14 chains to the N. boundary of said claim, thence S. 82 deg. 15 min. W. along said N. boundary to place of beginning, containing 42.20 acres, more or less, all in Benton county, Oregon, save and except 13.18 acres heretofore sold and conveyed to S. E. Rainwater described as follows: Beginning at N. W. corner of D. L. C. Not. 607, Cl. 61 and 39 T. 11 S. R. 3 and 4 W. Will. Mer., Benton county, Oregon, and running thence S. 26.94 chains, thence E. 12.27 chains, thence S. 85 deg., E. 3.10 chains, thence N. 22.14 chains to the N. boundary of said claim 10.10 chains, thence S. to the N. boundary of W. V. & C. R. B. Co.'s right of way, thence westerly along said North boundary to the west boundary of said claim thence N. along said west boundary to place of beginning, containing 11.5 acres, more or less; that the defendants be required to perfect the title of said land by making, executing, acknowledging and delivering a deed thereto to the plaintiff, or that in the event they fail so to do that the decree of said court shall operate in lieu of such deed, and that plaintiff have his costs and disbursements, and for general relief.
This summons is published in THE CORVALLIS TIMES newspaper once a week, for six successive and consecutive weeks, beginning with the issue of October 12, 1906 and ending with the issue of November 23, 1906, under and in pursuance of the directions contained in an order made by the Hon. E. Woodward, judge of the county court of Benton county, state of Oregon, dated October 11, 1906. Date of first publication hereof is October 12, 1906.
L. H. MONTAGNE & E. E. WILSON, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Chamberlain's Salve.

This salve is intended especially for sore nipples, burns, frost bites, chapped hands, itching piles, chronic sore eyes, granulated eye lids, old chronic sores and for diseases of the skin, such as tetter, salt rheum, ring worm, scald head, herpes, barber's itch, scabies, or itch and eczema. It has met with unparalleled success in the treatment of these diseases. Price 25 cents per box. Try it. For sale by Graham & Wortham

E. E. WILSON,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Benton county:
GARRISON SHELTON, plaintiff,
vs.
ELLA W. SHELTON, defendant.
To Ella W. Shelton, the above named defendant.
In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled suit in the above entitled court, now on file in the office of the clerk of said court, on or before six weeks from the day of the first publication hereof, to-wit: on or before November 13, 1906, and you are hereby notified that if you fail so to appear and answer the said complaint as herein required, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the above entitled court for the relief demanded in his said complaint, namely, for a decree of divorce from the said defendant, forever dissolving the marriage contract existing between the plaintiff and defendant, and for such other further and different relief, order or relief as to the court may seem proper.
This summons is published in the Corvallis Times newspaper once a week for six successive and consecutive weeks, beginning with the issue of said newspaper of October 2, 1906, and ending with the issue of November 13, 1906, under and in pursuance of the directions contained in an order made by the Hon. E. Woodward, county judge of Benton county, Oregon, being the county where the above entitled suit is pending in the above entitled circuit court, dated September 28, 1906. The date of the first publication hereof is October 2, 1906.
E. E. WILSON,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

E. R. Bryson,
Attorney At Law.

Northern Pacific.

2 Daily Trains 2
Duluth, Minneapolis, St. Paul and the East.
2 Trains Daily 2
Denver, Lincoln, Omaha Kansas City St. Louis and East.
Four daily trains between Portland and Seattle Pullman First-class sleeping cars, Pullman Tourist sleeping cars, Dining cars night and day, Observation and Parlor cars.
The regular Yellowstone Park route via Livingston and Gardiner, Mont., the government official entrance to the Park.
Park season June 1st to September 20th.
See Europe if you will but see America first. Start right. See Yellowstone National Park—Nature's greatest wonderland.
Wonderland—The famous Northern Pacific book can be had for the asking or six cents by mail.
The Route of the "North Coast Limited"—the Only Electric Lighted Modern Train from Portland to the East.
The ticket office at Portland is at 255 Morrison street, corner Third; A. D. Carlton, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Portland, Or.

For The Ladies

Our Fall Line of New Goods are Here!

- Big line of Dress Goods and Silks
- Big line of Coats—the latest
- Big line Shoes—best wearers on earth
- Big line Skirts—from two factories
- Big line Underwear—Munsings, none better
- Big line Waistings and Hosiery

A whole lot of other new goods.

Call and See

J. H. HARRIS,

Corvallis, Oregon

Sewing Machines
Carpets, Rugs
Liuoleum, Lace Curtains.

oway's Store

It will pay you to come in and see us before buying your winter supply. We carry a full line of New and Second-Hand Furniture.

Furniture, Stoves, Ranges
Crockery, Glassware and Graniteware. Watch Friday's paper for Price.

Highest Market Price Paid for Hides, Pelts and Furs. Money to Loan on all Kinds of Security. North east Cor. 2nd and Monroe Sts, Corvallis, Or.

New Goods, Latest Designs and PRETTIEST PATTERNS

Our Fall Lines of Jewelry and Silverware are beginning to arrive and will be the largest and most complete line ever shown in Corvallis. "Swastikos" the Japanese lucky charm and the latest thing in the novelty line, to be had in Fobs, Hat Pins, Lace Pins, Cuff Buttons and O. A. C. Pins of all kinds. Alarm Clocks $1. Fountain Pens $1. At E. W. S. PRATT'S, The Jeweler and Optician.

New Sporting Goods Store.

A new and complete line consisting of

Bicycles, Guns, Ammunition,
Fishing Tackle, Base Ball Supplies,
Knives, Razors, Hammocks, Bicycle Saundries

In fact anything the sportsman need can be found at my store. Bicycles and Guns for rent. General Repair Shop. All Work Guaranteed.

M. M. LONG'S

Ind. Phone 126. Corvallis, Oregon.

Another GRAND FISHING EXCURSION TO NEWPORT AND RETURN (RAIN OR SHINE) OVER THE COVALLIS & EASTERN SUNDAY NOV 4th.

THE CONSPIRACY

TO ROB THE FOREST GROVE BANK IS REVEALED.

Woman Tells of Plot to Burglarize Jewelry Store and to Slay Pawnbroker's Clerk—Dynamite Hid Near Snyder's Home—Other News.

Hillsboro, Or., Oct. 27.—Before District Attorney Harrison Allen, his deputy, E. B. Tongue, and other officials, Mrs. Madge Snyder, related a marvelous confession of crime this morning, involving her dead husband and others in a series of jobs that vie in sensational daring with the wildest stories of yellow back fiction.

Among the jobs that were to have been undertaken by her reckless husband and desperate companions was the hooding up of the box office of the Heilig theatre in Portland. Another plan involved the robbery of Dan Marx's jewelry store on Third street. Plans of other crimes were equally as sensational were told by the widow. Many of the plots were overheard by her, she said, as she lay hidden behind a hayrack in the barn where her husband and his companions met to do their plotting.

Openly and unhesitatingly she told today of the plan to rob the Forest Grove bank. The deed was planned by her late husband and a man named Rogers, she declared. Her husband and Rogers quarreled, she said and it was because of the quarrel that Carey M. Snyder did not participate in the actual robbery. She also told where the nitroglycerine, dynamite caps and fuse, portions of which were used in blowing the vault of the Forest Grove bank, were buried near their home near Glenoc.

She further told how she had been cruelly beaten and bruised by her husband and his pirate crew because she refused to become an accessory to their conspiracy to murder a man. Once, she said, her husband fired two shots at her in the hope of intimidating her and forcing her to take part in the crimes he planned. The shots were fired in their home and the bullets buried themselves in the wall of their living room.

The widow appeared here today in response to a subpoena served upon her by the district attorney directing her appearance before Judge McBride. For weeks she has baffled every effort on the part of the officials to induce her to divulge her secret, and threatened to return to her home in Kansas City.

She arrived here from Portland this morning. She professes resentment toward the officials and officers who have been working on the case and also claims that her life is in danger as a result of her confession implicating George Perry in the murder of her husband. Officers and others, however, who know the woman place little credence in her alleged fears. She doesn't know the meaning of the word, they say.

"Perry came to visit my husband and me in the early part of June, 1905," continued Mrs. Snyder. "I soon saw he wielded a bad influence over my husband and I tried to get Carey to ask him to leave. My husband grew brutal to me under Perry's domination, and many times struck and kicked me. Once he knocked me down with a chair and kicked me because I detected him cheating at a game of cards with Perry and myself. Perry hated me and never offered to interfere.

"On Saturday, Nov. 25, my husband and I went to Portland, and from there duck hunting. We got back to Portland Sunday evening. The plan of Perry and my husband was to rob the pawnshop next morning. Our room was on Fourth street, not far from Oak. It was arranged that at 6:45 I was to pass the corner of Oak street, on Fourth which meant I had consented to pick up valises containing plunder when they had been left at Fourth and Yamhill streets and carry them aboard the train, after leaving the pawnshop, for fear somebody might detect them on description.

"Carey got up at 5 A. M. and left the house; I did not pass the corner as expected and they were afraid to do the job. On the way to Hillsboro that morning my husband was so angry that he would not speak to me. At Hillsboro we met Rogers, just arrived from Kansas City. He had made the mistake of going to Cornelius. Perry said Snyder had shown a fac simile of his handwriting to the clerk in the Cornelius postoffice and had obtained two letters he sent Perry, which would have landed both in the penitentiary if received by official. This man had a lot of nitroglycerine with him as we discovered afterward. My husband and Rogers, said to be one of the best safe cracksmen in the country, returned to Portland Monday afternoon and I went to the farm Tuesday morning.

"That night I met my husband with a carriage; he gave me an awful beating for refusing to carry the grips aboard the train and thus preventing the pawnshop robbery.

Carey afterward told me he and Perry and Rogers left Portland Monday night for Forest Grove, arriving there at midnight, and inspected the bank premises. Then they went to Hillsboro and under cover of night broke into a grocery store to get something to eat and spent the remainder of the night sleeping in a box car. Tuesday Carey talked over the telephone with Perry in Portland. Perry used the name of Leaby, clerk in the Northwest gunstore, and said he was ready for that duck hunt. This meant ready for the robbery of the theatre. My husband told Perry he would not come and they used words showing anger.

"Friday night, December 1, the bank was robbed. Carey did not hear of it until two days later. Then he was furious and said: 'Perry and Rogers have done that job without me. They will have to divide.'

"He was especially angry when he learned they got only $6,000, and said there was more than $50,000 in the bank and that most of it had been transferred to Portland on Thursday. He declared the failure to get a bigger amount was due to their not meeting him Wednesday night.

"The plunder was to be buried a mile from our house. Carey being led to believe that he was to receive a part of the plunder, and that on reaching the spot he was to be killed.

San Francisco, Oct. 26.—Trembling with passion, his voice raised to a high pitch, Francis J. Heney, the prosecutor of the grafters, leaned across the table in Judge Graham's court this afternoon and, shaking his finger in Abe Ruef's face, stated:

"These are the men, these are the grafters we are after."

It was the concluding scene in the court drama in which Ruef and William H. Langdon had sought for recognition as district attorney, Langdon, who was removed from office last night at the dictate of Ruef, refused to vacate the office. Judge Graham reserved his decision until next Monday.

Heney appeared in the capacity of assistant to Langdon. The removal of Langdon was ordered by Acting Mayor Gallagher when it was learned that Heney, assisted by Detective W. J. Burns and Langdon, had gathered evidence which they claim will send Ruef, Mayor Schmitz, Acting Mayor Gallagher and the 18 supervisors to the penitentiary.

The day was replete with exciting episodes. A crowd of 3,000 people gathered about the courtroom and, when Ruef emerged, rushed at him and was only kept from doing him violence by the cordons of police which surrounded him. As it was, Dr. C. Beasley, an ex-Army surgeon, clashed with Ruef and the two engaged in a fist fight, but were soon parted.

Tonight Ruef and Langdon each Ruef's first act in court today was to appeal for protection. He stated that he had information that Heney was armed.

"The gentleman is incorrect," as usual," said Heney. The two men looked at each other, the crowd waited breathlessly, but there was no outbreak.

KILLED BY MOTOR CAR

MILLIONAIRE SNYDER IS KILLED IN AN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

Life Like His Death Was Tragic—Under Indictment for Bribery—Paid Councilman $50,000

Kansas City, Oct. 27.—Robert M. Snyder, millionaire banker and promoter, met death in his automobile here at 6:30 o'clock tonight. His chauffeur, Frank M. Schroeder, attempted to steer clear of a messenger boy on a bicycle the machine collided with the boy and the curbstone at the same moment. The shock threw Snyder from his seat and his head struck on an iron trolley pole. Snyder was at once carried to the Agnew hospital. He died there upon his arrival. His skull had been fractured. Arthur Odell, the messenger boy, received injuries that will probably cause his death. The driver was not hurt.

The death of Robert M. Snyder was as his life—tragic. He was under indictment at the time of his death in connection with the bribery of members of the St. Louis city council. Joseph W. Folk, now governor of Missouri, was at that time circuit attorney in St. Louis, and was the prosecutor. This is the story he proved:

Snyder went to St. Louis in 1898 as a street railway promoter. He rented an expensive suit of rooms in one of the largest downtown hotels, which he stocked with fine cigars and liquors. Then he invited to these rooms men of influence with the members of the city assembly. The Central Traction bill was through both houses of the council, but was vetoed by the mayor. It had to be passed again over the veto. Then U. Hoff, who was in the council, demanded $50,000 for his vote. Snyder gave it to him, and borrowed it back again the next night. Then he went to New York City.

U. Hoff followed. In another cafe scene, where champagne flowed freely, Snyder presented a letter, exonerating himself. He told Hoff he would get $51,000 if he signed it, otherwise nothing. Hoff signed the statement. "You are as far above giving a bribe as I am above receiving."

Snyder was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, but the supreme court reversed and remanded the judgment to the lower court. Recently a new indictment was returned against him by the St. Louis grand jury.

Carey M. Snyder, a son of Robert M. Snyder, was convicted of holding up and robbing a Kansas City pawnbroker of $6,000 in diamonds.

continued on page 4.

The Florsheim SHOE

Look for name in strap

The Kendall

Brains evolved the Kendall. There's not an iota in its material and make that doesn't represent skilled shoecraft and shoe-experience

Patent leather lace boot, genuine seal top, heavy extension sole, narrow toe

The man who wants to enjoy the benefit of the best shoe-knowledge applied for his comfort should wear the Kendall. Most styles are $5

J. M. Nolan & Son